Lead all to the Church through the Word, the Sacraments and the Mass.

A New Vision

As we continue on our Lenten journey guided by our four-letter-words that we have compiled into our lists, we sometimes find ourselves needing to expand the letter counts. Today is a perfect example of that as we opt for a couple of six-letter words. Today we want to emphasize vision and listen.

Throughout the Lenten Season, we focus on three key components: Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Fasting has traditionally been understood to be a way of moving more deeply into prayer and preparing oneself for significant life transitions. We saw in last week's Gospel how the Holy Spirit led Jesus into the desert to fast and pray, and we learned that we can rely on God alone for nourishment, protection, and safety. Perhaps we can apply these lessons learned to our own lives, and utilize them as we prepare ourselves to make a significant transition from this life to the next.

In Scripture, mountains often are places of divine revelation. The last few weeks just before Lent began we learned much from the Sermon on the Mount. Now today's Gospel takes place on another mountain.

In the First Reading, the Lord God tells Abram (his name was changed to Abraham in Gen, Chap. 17) to leave his homeland to become the leader of a great nation. Abram obeys the difficult life-changing command because he loves God and has faith in him. Especially during Lent, we are encouraged to change our life styles, to perform acts of self-denial: fasting, abstaining from eating meat on Fridays, extra prayers, and almsgiving in order to draw ourselves closer to the suffering of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Saint Paul, writing to his young disciple, Timothy, tells him to use the strength that comes from God to bear his share of hardship for the Gospel: "He saved us and called us to a holy life ...". Paul assures Timothy that God provides whatever is necessary to live in holiness and fidelity to God's Word.

A theophany is a mysterious, divine appearance that includes a revelation. In the Gospel, we witness an awesome revelation that shows Jesus' hidden identity both through His transfigured appearance and through God's words to the disciples: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him."

Jesus had led Peter, James, and John up on a high mountain where Jesus was transfigured before them. He was then seen in the company of Moses and Elijah. The inclusion of these two holy men was essential to Matthew's narrative which was directed toward his audience of Christian Jews, as it shows the continuity of the Jewish tradition. Both Moses (in Exodus 24) and Elijah (1 Kings 19) had ascended a mountain to witness a theophany in which God spoke to them.

Let us continue our prayers and fasting in emulation of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ as we prepare for our transition to the next life. May the Transfiguration bring light to our darkest days and may we open our hearts and minds to really listen to His Divine Son.

Eucharistic Adoration

"When you pray, do you feel as though you must speak continuously to our Lord? Do you feel as though you must talk continuously, saying this prayer or that one? Or are you content simply being in His presence in the silence? Ponder today your experience of being silent in the presence of God. Try to discern the unique and profound language God speaks this way. Try to commit yourself to these prolonged moments of silent communication with God and then look at the fruit they bear in your soul. If you discover that you are more at peace, gain a new level of clarity in life, or have grown in a certain confidence, then you can be assured that these good fruits in your life have come to you from God through the Mercy of His Heart, communicated to you in silence." -DivineMercy.Life

The Deacon White Prayer Corner

We plan to have Stephen Ministers available after all weekend Masses. If you would like to pray for yourself, spouse, family, friend or co-worker who is experiencing a rough spot in life, Please stop by after Mass to experience God's true love for you through prayer or a special blessing. During time of need, or even a personal crisis, it can be so comforting to have someone to pray with you and for you. We will be located in the Chapel in the North part of the church.

Please pray for all those who have died and for the consolation of their families, especially

Steve Belk, husband of Juli Belk

Kathleen Blake-Nixon, wife of Rick Nixon

John Laham, father of Ashleigh Hipp, grandfather of Alexander and Andrew Hipp

John's Gospel and the Readings of the Lenten Scrutiny Sundays

Wednesday Evenings – March 8, 15, 22, and 29, 2023 ~ 7-9 PM — Central Time; Repeated Thursday

Mornings – March 9, 16, 23, and 30, 2023 ~ 10 AM to Noon — Central Time

The third, fourth and fifth Sundays of Lent are called Scrutiny Sundays. The church recommends that no matter what lectionary year we are celebrating, the readings from Lectionary Year A be used whenever there are catechumens celebrating the scrutinies. The sessions will be conducted via Zoom and facilitated by Biagio Mazza, Pastoral Associate at St. Sabina Catholic Church in Belton, MO. For more information, or to register, please e-mail Biagio at biagio@stsabinaparish.org with your preferred time frame. Once registered, you will be sent a Zoom link to the sessions. Know that the Zoom time frames are in the Central Time Zone.

Our Parish Family Weekly Novena

Please join us every Tuesday evening at 6:00 pm in the church to pray for marriages, families, vocations and for those who have left the faith to return to the Sacraments.

Legion Of Mary

The Legion of Mary invites you to join us before the Parish Family Novena on Tuesday evening at 5:30 pm to say the rosary.

Marian Reflection

Reading: Holocausts and sin offerings did not please you. Then I said, "As is written of me in the head of the book, Behold, I come to do your will, O God."

~Heb 10:6-7

Reflection: Mary's sole object in this world was to keep her eyes constantly focused on God so as to discover His will. Then when she had found out what God wanted, she did it. ~St. Bernardine of Siena

Prayer: O Mary, you are the obedient Daughter of the Father who cooperated with Him in the salvation worked by Jesus. In every situation make known God's will to me and help me carry it out willingly.
