HOLY FAMILY HOSPITAL

We welcome Father Ben Shahzad from Pakistan. For many years, Father Ben has been visiting Curé of Ars Church each summer. In that time, Curé has helped repair and renovate the Major Seminary, construct and furnish the St. Pius X Minor Seminary and has provided scholarships for education of poor and needy children in Pakistan. Archbishop Benny Travas of Karachi, hopes we will continue to support their efforts and this year they are making a plea for their only Catholic hospital in the Archdiocese and The Holy Family School of Nursing and Midwifery, Karachi.

The Holy Family Hospital has recently renovated the ER, ICU and a few private rooms making it more welcoming for patients. They are hoping to procure patient beds, baby cots, defibrillators, incubators, and ventilators, to name just a few, to improve patient service areas to ensure a healing environment for all who come through their doors.

The Holy Family School of Nursing and Midwifery is now in the process of upgrading itself to a College level status, which they expect to achieve in the next 2-3 months. They will be offering a Bachelors in Nursing. It will be open to both female and male students. The total tuition for a student for 4 years who will enroll in 2023 will be $2,895. The tuition, although, cheaper than other areas is still rather steep for the average Christian family of their diocese who are likely to send their children for an education in nursing. They are hoping to create an Endowment Fund that can be used for Scholarships and to help maintain the quality of education at the College of Nursing.

"We have taken a definitive step to the restoration of our beloved and only Catholic hospital of the Archdiocese of Karachi and its attached Nursing School. We pray that our energy will be supported in good faith with essential funds to be able to carry out these renovations and upgrades. The list given is only part of what we require, but we would be profoundly grateful for whatever we can receive for it and we look forward to the generosity of the Cure of Ars Parish to assist us in our mission. Thanking you and sending our prayers. May God bless you and your parishioners."

The Deacon White Prayer Corner

We plan to have Stephen Ministers available after all weekend Masses. If you would like to pray for yourself, spouse, family, friend or co-worker who is experiencing a rough spot in life, please stop by after Mass to experience God's true love for you through prayer or a special blessing. During time of need, or even a personal crisis, it can be so comforting to have someone to pray with you and for you. We will be located in the Chapel in the North part of the church.

Eucharistic Adoration

"Let the Children come to me..." (Luke 18:16)

Each of us is a precious child, called to an intimate relationship with God through friendship and love. We are called as His children to open our hearts in trust, to gaze upon the beauty of our Redeemer in awe. When we come to Adoration, we are handing God the keys to our hearts, allowing the rays of His love and grace to bathe our souls in the light of His Presence. Like Mary of Bethany, we are seating ourselves at the feet of Christ and letting His very essence pour down upon us. It is here that we find the better part.

Have you considered spending an hour of your time at the feet of Jesus? Many hours are currently open in the Adoration Chapel. The schedule is now on line at <https://cureofars.com/adults-eucharistic-adoration>. Or contact Lisa at 913.558.1187 or at lisawhi@gmail.com.

Within the quiet of our hearts, we find God. Within the whisper of our souls, He speaks.

Please pray for all those who have died and for the consolation of their families, especially

Genevieve Holtgraves, wife of the late Don;
mother of Edward, Ronald, Barbara,
Caroline, and the late David

Marian Reflection

Reading: As the soldiers listened to what she had to say, they gazed upon her face and marveled at her beauty.

~Jud 10:14

Reflection: The thought and the countenance of Mary inspire the purity of life that is the first dignity of human beings. They also constitute the salvation of those who struggle against evil and those who are called to greater perfection of life.

~Pope Pius XI

Prayer: O Mary, the thought of you leads to salvation. Let me meditate on your spiritual beauty, so that I too may be saved.
