Lead all to the Church through the Word, the Sacraments, and the Mass.

Catechist Corner - Why do Catholics do that?

We are called to “full and active participation” in the Holy Mass (Sacrosanctum Concilium) which involves intentionally acting in unison with the entire congregation. As Catholics, we enter the church and dip our hand into holy water (which has been blessed by a priest, bishop, or deacon) and make the sign of the cross. Each part of the Holy Mass has a different posture. During Mass, we genuflect, kneel, sit, stand, and sing during the liturgy. Sometimes we do this out of habit but there are good reasons for this.

Why do we dip our hand into holy water & make the sign of the cross?

The Sign of the Cross reminds us to whom we belong: The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. By dipping our hand into holy water and making the Sign of the Cross, we are also reminded of our entrance into the Church through Baptism. It is for this reason that the placement of holy water is typically close to the entrance of the worship space. Baptism is also “the gateway to life in the Spirit, and the door which gives access to other sacraments” so that one can receive the Eucharist. (CCC 1213)

Why do we genuflect?

In medieval Europe, it was a custom to go down on one knee before a king or person of high rank. This practice gradually entered the Church recognizing that Jesus is the King of Kings and He is truly present in the Eucharist.

Why do we kneel?

Kneeling is a sign of humility and penitence. When we kneel, we are humbly worshiping and surrendering ourselves to our Heavenly Father.

Why do we sit?

Sitting is a posture of listening, learning, and waiting. We sit when we are listening to the first two readings during Mass and learning about the readings in the homily. We also remain seated while waiting for the Eucharistic elements to be prepared, a very meaningful gesture because then we stand when the priest is ready.

Why do we stand?

Standing is the posture that expresses respect, honor, and attentiveness and our readiness to carry out the Word of God.

Why do we sing?

God has given us music as a gift for our expression. We sing to unite our voices in a common expression and together we lift our hearts up to God.

Next week we will learn more about the Greeting in the Introductory Rites.

Stephen Ministry

"Bear one another's burdens, and in this way fulfill the law of Christ."

(Galatians 6:2)

Stephen Ministers provide care and support to hurting people by bringing God's love to them through confidential conversation and prayer.

If you are hurting in any way, for any reason, or know of someone who is hurting, please call to arrange a confidential meeting to get further information.

Tom Bryon 816.863.3027

Jim Gisler 913.940.2519

Susie Coultis 913.484.1190

The Deacon White Prayer Corner

We plan to have Stephen Ministers available after all weekend Masses. If you would like to pray for yourself, spouse, family, friend or co-worker who is experiencing a rough spot in life, please stop by after Mass to experience God's true love for you through prayer or a special blessing. During time of need, or even a personal crisis, it can be so comforting to have someone to pray with you and for you. We will be located in the Chapel in the North part of the church.

Eucharistic Adoration

"Let the Children come to me..." (Luke 18:16)

Each of us is a precious child, called to an intimate relationship with God through friendship and love. We are called as His children to open our hearts in trust, to gaze upon the beauty of our Redeemer in awe. When we come to Adoration, we are handing God the keys to our hearts, allowing the rays of His love and grace to bathe our souls in the light of His Presence. Like Mary of Bethany, we are seating ourselves at the feet of Christ and letting His very essence pour down upon us. It is here that we find the better part.

Have you considered spending an hour of your time at the feet of Jesus? Many hours are currently open in the Adoration Chapel. The schedule is now on line at <https://cureofars.com/adults-eucharistic-adoration>.

Or contact Lisa at 913.558.1187 or at lisawhi@gmail.com.

Within the quiet of our hearts, we find God. Within the whisper of our souls, He speaks.

Marian Reflection

Reading: All should honor the Son even as they honor the Father.
Whoever does not honor
the Son does not honor
the Father who sent him.
~Jn 5:23

Reflection: The Heart of Mary is a sun that spreads its rays and its warmth throughout the world.

It is constantly working in every possible way for the salvation of souls. ~St. John Eudes

Prayer: O Mary, the more we honor you, the more we honor
Jesus. And the more we honor
Jesus, the more we honor the Father.

Fr. Storey invites the parish to a Teaching Mass which will be followed by a Question & Answer Session

Tuesday, September 26, at 6:30 pm
in the Church Sanctuary

A Teaching Mass is simply an explanation of each part of the Mass. To fully appreciate the Mass as "the source and summit" of the Christian Life (Sacrosanctum concilium #10), we need to understand it, love it, and be able to explain it to others so they can appreciate it too!

* There will not be a Holy Mass with the Eucharist at this presentation.

Pass on the Faith!

The School of Religion is in need of Adult Classroom Aides to assist the Catechists for the upcoming School year, 2023-24. Please prayerfully consider sharing the Catholic faith and love for Jesus with our children. Training, materials, and support will be provided. We also need substitutes and Special Project Volunteers which require less time commitment.

Our parish School of Religion utilizes a flipped-classroom approach. Children attend classes twice monthly during the School year. For more information, check out our webpage at www.cureofars.com/religioused.

If you are interested, contact Bernadette Myers at 913.521.9361 or bernadettemyers@cureofars.com.

Are you curious about what it means to be a Catholic? Who do you know that could be or should be interested in learning about our faith? Now is an ideal time to invite someone, as our RCIA sessions will begin soon. These sessions are for "Inquirers", that is anyone who wants to learn what Catholicism means.
