Lead all to the Church through the Word, the Sacraments, and the Mass.

Catechist Corner - Liturgy of the Word

At each Sunday and Holy Day Mass, we hear three readings and a psalm from the Bible which we believe have been divinely inspired and tells us about the story of God's plan of salvation for those who follow Him. Some people who are unfamiliar with the Mass are surprised to find out that most of the words and phrases of the prayers of the Mass are taken from the Bible.

Where does the First Reading come from?

The First Reading is read from the Old Testament (except during the Easter season). In the Old Testament, we hear about the covenants that God made with our Hebrew ancestors and the consequences of not keeping those covenants. The first reading is often a "type" or prophetic symbol that foreshadows something or someone in the Gospel reading. During the Easter season, the first reading is taken from the Acts of the Apostles which tells the story of the early Church. We sit to listen to the first two readings and a psalm.

What is the significance of the Psalms?

After the First Reading, we sing or recite from the Book of Psalms. More than half of the psalms are attributed to King David who put into practice the use of music and poetry into worship. These have been sung by the people of Israel for centuries. It provides a combination of all the teachings of the Old Testament. The psalms were also recited by Jesus, Mary, the apostles and the first Christian martyrs. In addition to the Mass, the Church has taken them as its official prayer to be recited every day by priests and religious in the Liturgy of the Hours.

Where does the Second Reading come from?

The Second Reading always comes from the New Testament and is usually taken from one of the letters of St. Paul or another apostolic writing. Unlike the First Reading, these readings are not usually coordinated with the Gospel reading.

What is unique about the Gospel?

The Gospel is proclaimed by a priest or deacon. A priest or deacon bows to the altar as we stand out of reverence for the unique presence of Jesus Christ to hear from one of the four Gospels and the reading is introduced by an acclamation of praise. Except during Lent, that acclamation is "Alleluia," which is a Hebrew phrase meaning "Praise the Lord!" While the Gospel is being introduced, a priest or deacon makes a small sign of the cross on the Book of the Gospels and greets us with the "Lord be with you" and we respond, "And with your Spirit." We join the priest or deacon in marking a small cross on our forehead, lips, and heart with our thumb while the priest or deacon prays silently, "Lord, may your words be on my mind, heart, and lips so that I may know, speak, and love your Word" and then he proclaims the Gospel. The priest or deacon concludes with these words, "The Gospel of the Lord" and we respond, "Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ." Our response proclaims our faith in Jesus Christ. The word "Gospel" translated from Greek means "Good News." The "Good News" is that God desires for all men to be saved and this has been made possible through the life, death, and resurrection of his Son, Jesus Christ.

Next week, we will learn more about the Homily, Creed, and Universal Prayers.

Stephen Ministry

"Bear one another's burdens, and in this way fulfill the law of Christ."

(Galatians 6:2)

Stephen Ministers provide care and support to hurting people by bringing God's love to them through confidential conversation and prayer.

If you are hurting in any way, for any reason, or know of someone who is hurting, please call to arrange a confidential meeting to get further information.

Tom Bryon 816.863.3027

Jim Gisler 913.940.2519

Susie Coultis 913.484.1190

The Deacon White Prayer Corner

We plan to have Stephen Ministers available after all weekend Masses. If you would like to pray for yourself, spouse, family, friend or co-worker who is experiencing a rough spot in life, please stop by after Mass to experience God's true love for you through prayer or a special blessing. During time of need, or even a personal crisis, it can be so comforting to have someone to pray with you and for you. We will be located in the Chapel in the North part of the church.

Eucharistic Adoration

"Let the Children come to me..." (Luke 18:16)

Each of us is a precious child, called to an intimate relationship with God through friendship and love. We are called as His children to open our hearts in trust, to gaze upon the beauty of our Redeemer in awe. When we come to Adoration, we are handing God the keys to our hearts, allowing the rays of His love and grace to bathe our souls in the light of His Presence. Like Mary of Bethany, we are seating ourselves at the feet of Christ and letting His very essence pour down upon us. It is here that we find the better part.

Have you considered spending an hour of your time at the feet of Jesus? Many hours are currently open in the Adoration Chapel. The schedule is now on line at <https://cureofars.com/adults-eucharistic-adoration>. Or contact Lisa at 913.558.1187 or at lisawhi@gmail.com.

Within the quiet of our hearts, we find God. Within the whisper of our souls, He speaks.

Please pray for those in our parish who are suffering from illness:

Marian Reflection

Reading: Ephraim is my favored son; he is a tender child... I still remember him. My heart stirs for him, and I will surely show him compassion. ~Jer 31:20

Reflection: Mary far surpasses all other mothers in glory and holiness as well as in kindness and sweetness. Come before her with a contrite and humbled heart. You will find her more prompt and more tender in loving you than all other mothers. ~St. Gregory

Prayer: O Mother of the Word Incarnate, to you do I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. Despise not my petitions, but in our mercy hear and answer me.

Want to learn about Catholicism?

Are you an adult Catholic but missed Confirmation?

Then we would love to have you join us at R.C.I.A.

Who do you know that could be or should be interested in learning about our faith? We are all called to be disciples and to share our living faith, so think about (and then act) on whom you might invite - a friend, a neighbor, a co-worker, a family member. Now is an ideal time to invite someone, as our RCIA sessions will begin the 18th of September. These sessions are for "Inquirers", that is anyone who wants to learn what Catholicism means. They are also a way for adult Catholics to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

For more information look to Curé of Ars' website, email to rcia@cureofars.com, call the church office at 913.649.1337 or call Bill Hobbs at 913.338.4820.
