Lead all to the Church through the Word, the Sacraments, and the Mass.

Catechist Corner - Liturgy of the Word, Part 2

After the Gospel, we sit to listen attentively to the homily. Then, we stand to profess our Catholic faith by reciting the Creed and petition God through the Universal Prayer.

Who can give the homily and what is its purpose?

Homilies are different than speeches. A homily is given by an ordained bishop, priest, or deacon and is only preached at liturgies (e.g., Mass, Baptisms, Confirmations, weddings, funerals, and ordinations). The homily will typically use texts from the Scripture readings that have just been proclaimed as a framework to help the congregation understand how to grow closer to God and as an encouragement to stay strong in the faith. It might also challenge us, but the purpose is to help form our consciences and direct us in the way we should live. On any given Sunday, Catholics around the world will hear the same Mass readings, but the homily may be very different from one homilist to another.

What is the meaning and history of the Creeds?

After the homily, we stand to recite the Nicene or Apostles' Creed. The word creed comes from the Latin word credo, meaning "I believe." Even though the two creeds are different, they both express a belief in our Catholic faith. The Apostles' Creed is referred to as a faithful summary of the Apostles' faith and was originally used as a baptismal creed beginning in the second century. At the heart of the Nicene Creed is the confession of Jesus Christ as consubstantial with the Father and was first articulated in 325 at the first ecumenical Council of Nicaea in response to the heresy of Arianism which denied that Jesus was God. The statements after "I believe in the Holy Spirit" that we say today, were added at the Council of Constantinople (381) and so technically speaking the Nicene Creed as we know it today is the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed. The Roman Missal permits the option of using the Apostles' Creed instead of the Nicene Creed. However, the Nicene Creed is more often recited at Holy Mass because it is a more detailed profession of our faith.

What are the other common names for the Universal Prayer and what are we generally praying for?

The other common names for the Universal Prayer are the Prayer of the Faithful, Petitions or Bidding Prayers. These prayers usually fall into four categories: the Church, nations and their leaders, people who are in special need, and the local needs of the parish. The priest usually begins the Universal Prayer with a brief introduction and concludes with a formal prayer. The petitions are announced, and the congregation is given an opportunity to respond with "Lord, hear our prayer" or something similar. As we anticipate approaching the altar to receive the Eucharist, we are praying together as the Body of Christ because we believe that God hears our prayers and will work through His people to bring healing and salvation to the world.

Next week, we will learn more about the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Stephen Ministry

"Bear one another's burdens, and in this way fulfill the law of Christ."

(Galatians 6:2)

Stephen Ministers provide care and support to hurting people by bringing God's love to them through confidential conversation and prayer.

If you are hurting in any way, for any reason, or know of someone who is hurting, please call to arrange a confidential meeting to get further information.

The Deacon White Prayer Corner

We plan to have Stephen Ministers available after all weekend Masses. If you would like to pray for yourself, spouse, family, friend or co-worker who is experiencing a rough spot in life, please stop by after Mass to experience God's true love for you through prayer or a special blessing. During time of need, or even a personal crisis, it can be so comforting to have someone to pray with you and for you. We will be located in the Chapel in the North part of the church.

Eucharistic Adoration

"Let the Children come to me..." (Luke 18:16)

Each of us is a precious child, called to an intimate relationship with God through friendship and love. We are called as His children to open our hearts in trust, to gaze upon the beauty of our Redeemer in awe. When we come to Adoration, we are handing God the keys to our hearts, allowing the rays of His love and grace to bathe our souls in the light of His Presence. Like Mary of Bethany, we are seating ourselves at the feet of Christ and letting His very essence pour down upon us. It is here that we find the better part.

Have you considered spending an hour of your time at the feet of Jesus? Many hours are currently open in the Adoration Chapel. The schedule is now on line at <https://cureofars.com/adults-eucharistic-adoration>.

Or contact Lisa at 913.558.1187 or at lisawhi@gmail.com.

Within the quiet of our hearts, we find God. Within the whisper of our souls, He speaks.

Please pray for those in our parish who are suffering from illness:

Want to learn about Catholicism?

Are you an adult Catholic but missed Confirmation?

Then we would love to have you join us at R.C.I.A.

Who do you know that could be or should be interested in learning about our faith? We are all called to be disciples and to share our living faith, so think about (and then act) on whom you might invite - a friend, a neighbor, a co-worker, a family member. Now is an ideal time to invite someone, as our RCIA sessions will begin the 18th of September. These sessions are for "Inquirers", that is anyone who wants to learn what Catholicism means. They are also a way for adult Catholics to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

For more information look to Curé of Ars' website, email to rcia@cureofars.com, call the church office at 913.649.1337 or call Bill Hobbs at 913.338.4820.
