Gospel Reflection

The Epiphany of the Lord

A stranger in a foreign land, I was exhausted and homesick as my summer Spanish immersion ended in Guatemala. The rusty minivan arriving outside my small residence filled me with joyful hope. I was flying home to the U.S. and would be, at long last, completely happy. Or so I thought. After about half an hour of being home, I thought to myself, “This place is boring. I want to go somewhere.” So, I hopped in my car and left to see my friends. As I drove, I wistfully wondered, “Where am I truly at home?”

The feast of Epiphany has a lot to do with our notion of home. Where is our origin? Where are we going? When is our wandering done? Saint Matthew tells us of the Magi, “They were overjoyed at seeing the star.” This star will bring them home, to a place where their questing will end, and they will be satisfied. Their real home is neither in the East nor in the earthly Jerusalem. Somehow, their home is wherever this boy and his parents are.

If you’re a teenager or older, you probably know by now that every physical home we have is temporary. So, we look up at the countless stars in our proverbial skies: things which bedazzle and beckon us to follow toward peace. The Gospel invites us to behold that — at long last — God has sent us a star to follow home, one that whispers, “Follow me! I will take you home!” Perhaps that star is your spouse. A friend. An opportunity. A cause. An intuition about a new direction. A prayer group. What is it for you? How will you know? It will lead you to Mary and Joseph and their son, and you will be home.

— Father John Muir

Greetings from Nazareth Motherhouse!

Our home is beautifully decorated for all to enjoy as you enter the peaceful holiday spirit of the Motherhouse.

I wish to send you the heartiest greetings of happiness and excellent health.

Sometimes thoughtful people forget how thoughtful they are. Thank you for the Christmas remembrance for me.

My retirement continues to be full of activities I enjoy with excitement and fun but the center of it is my prayer life.

I am thankful to God for blessing me with such a pastor as Fr. Storey and the dear people of Curé. May this day and the days ahead hold many blessings for you and your families.

May God bless you and gift you with a wonderful New Year.

Fondly,

Sister Julie Galan

Stephen Ministry

"Bear one another's burdens, and in this way fulfill the law of Christ."

(Galatians 6:2)

Stephen Ministers provide care and support to hurting people by bringing God's love to them through confidential conversation and prayer.

If you are hurting in any way, for any reason, or know of someone who is hurting, please call to arrange a confidential meeting to get further information.

Jim Gisler 913.940.2519

Susie Coultis 913.484.1190

The Deacon White Prayer Corner

We plan to have Stephen Ministers available after all weekend Masses. If you would like to pray for yourself, spouse, family, friend or co-worker who is experiencing a rough spot in life, please stop by after Mass to experience God's true love for you through prayer or a special blessing. During time of need, or even a personal crisis, it can be so comforting to have someone to pray with you and for you. We will be located in the Chapel in the North part of the church.

Eucharistic Adoration

"Let the Children come to me..." (Luke 18:16)

Each of us is a precious child, called to an intimate relationship with God through friendship and love. We are called as His children to open our hearts in trust, to gaze upon the beauty of our Redeemer in awe. When we come to Adoration, we are handing God the keys to our hearts, allowing the rays of His love and grace to bathe our souls in the light of His Presence. Like Mary of Bethany, we are seating ourselves at the feet of Christ and letting His very essence pour down upon us. It is here that we find the better part.

Have you considered spending an hour of your time at the feet of Jesus? Many hours are currently open in the Adoration Chapel. The schedule is now on line at <https://cureofars.com/adults-eucharistic-adoration>. Or contact Lisa at 913.558.1187 or at lisawhi@gmail.com.

Within the quiet of our hearts, we find God. Within the whisper of our souls, He speaks.

Please pray for those suffering from illness:

Katie Auld	Susan Lockwood
Shirley Begley	Ross McVey
JoAnn Bellafiore	Paul Mendolia
Susan Brown	Annabel Garcia Murphy

Marian Reflection

Reading: The mother of Jesus said ... ; “There is no more wine.” And Jesus said, ... “My hour has not yet come. “His Mother said to the attendants, “Do whatever he tells you.”

~Jn 2:3-5

Reflection: Let Mary never be far from your lips or heart. And to obtain the fruit of her prayers, so not forget the example of her life.

With her support, you will never fall. Beneath her protection, you will never fear. Under her guidance, you will never tire. And with her help, you will reach your heavenly goal.

~St. Bernard

Prayer: O Mary, enable me to heed your words as the servers did. Let me always do whatever Jesus tells me, so that He may effect in me the miracle of eternal bliss in heaven.
