Gospel Reflection

1st Sunday of Lent

When I feel down, I sometimes watch the famous “Double Rainbow” video on YouTube to feel better. It’s hilarious. A young man camping in Yosemite Park sees two rainbows stretching across the sky. He bursts into a kind of ecstasy. “Double rainbow, all the way! Oh my God!” he announces. Then he starts to weep. He cries out, “What does it mean?” Beneath the humor of his glorious overreaction is the deep intuition we all have, I think, when we see the colorful bow in the sky. This Sunday, God sends a rainbow to Noah, and to us. What does it mean?

Long before YouTube had the double rainbow, Dante’s medieval poem The Divine Comedy featured one in his image of paradise. Seeing two rainbows, he muses that one is born of the other. The bow is God’s promise of peace. For Dante, it’s even more: nature’s encrypted image of the Trinitarian God. One visible rainbow (God the Son) is begotten of another usually invisible one (God the Father) united by invisible light between them (God the Spirit). Like invisible light, Trinitarian glory surrounds us in every moment — but Jesus has made it visible in his glorious body.

Lenten challenge: This might seem silly, but this Lent I invite you to find a rainbow and meditate on it. You might have to make one yourself, like this current desert-dweller will. Gaze on it. See there a natural gift from the Creator, saying to you, “Here I am! I will love and protect you, surrounding you in My glory.” This Lent let’s embrace that with confidence, rain, or shine.

— Father John Muir

Stephen Ministry

"Bear one another's burdens, and in this way fulfill the law of Christ."

(Galatians 6:2)

Stephen Ministers provide care and support to hurting people by bringing God's love to them through confidential conversation and prayer.

If you are hurting in any way, for any reason, or know of someone who is hurting, please call to arrange a confidential meeting to get further information.

Tom Bryon 816.863.3027

Jim Gisler 913.940.2519

Susie Coultis 913.484.1190

The Deacon White Prayer Corner

We plan to have Stephen Ministers available after all weekend Masses. If you would like to pray for yourself, spouse, family, friend or co-worker who is experiencing a rough spot in life, please stop by after Mass to experience God's true love for you through prayer or a special blessing. During time of need, or even a personal crisis, it can be so comforting to have someone to pray with you and for you. We will be located in the Chapel in the North part of the church.

Adoration Chapel Maintenance

The Curé Adoration Chapel will close for Maintenance beginning February 12th. While the work is being completed, Eucharistic Adoration will be available in the Cry Room during regular building hours. The work will be completed in 2 phases. The first phase will take approximately 5 weeks and consist of updating the paint, lighting, and carpet. The second phase will address the furnishings and building of a new altar. Since these are custom pieces with a longer lead time, a second closure will come at a later date for installation. Additionally, the garden outside the chapel will get some new plantings and cleanup this spring. We appreciate your patience and hope that you will participate in the many opportunities for prayer and reflection offered this Lenten season. The Lenten Schedule can be found at www.cureofars.com/lenen-schedule and printed booklets are available in the vestibule.

Search for Linguists

Do you speak a language other than English? We would love for you to participate in our unique Pentecost Readings at Masses on May 18th and 19th. Our Lectors Ministry will be presenting the First Reading of the Mass, when the Apostles are filled with the Holy Spirit in Acts 2:1-11, spoken in several different languages. In order to present the reading in this way, we need multiple volunteers willing to speak the reading in another language. Any language is welcome. There will be 4 rehearsals in advance where we will bring together the main, English speaking, Lectors as well as 3-5 others who will speak the same reading individually in another language as well as all together illustrating the amazement of the Apostles hearing the words of God in their own tongues. The dates and times of the rehearsals are weekday evenings in May. Please contact Lillian Klein in the Parish Office if you are interested in participating, have any questions or need more information.
