FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Last Sunday I introduced our project for our new memorial brick piazza at St. Ann's. In case you went to Mass elsewhere last weekend and did not hear the information, let me capsule it for you here:

Parishioners are frequently asking me if they could purchase something in memory of a loved one or in honor of a special event here for use at St. Ann's. Usually they want a statue, vestments, or maybe a chalice. We have no room for any more statues and have all the vestments and chalices we could ever use. I usually end up sending such gifts to the missions. In addition, our beautiful brick piazza in front of the church and especially in front of the chapel is breaking up. Some bricks are missing and there are sags in the foundation. Not only can someone trip and get hurt, but if they should sue us we'll be liable for thousands of dollars! In order to address both needs, we will be replacing the existing bricks with a new memorial brick piazza. You may purchase a brick in memory of a loved one that will be permanently placed in the piazza. They come with a lifetime guarantee from the company, so if they ever break or are damaged they will be replaced for free. They come in a variety of colors and sizes to meet everyone's price range. The basic bricks will be 4" x 8" and 8" x 8" bricks in a choice of six colors. They will sell for $250 and $500 respectively. Directly in front of the main door of the church and the stoop leading to the chapel will be a row of gray 12" x 12" bricks which will sell for $750. The focal point of each piazza will be a cross made of white 12" x 12" bricks. Since these are prime realty they will sell for $1,000. For those for whom $250 is too steep, 4" x 8" bricks may be placed in the alley between the church and Fr. Anthony Hall for only $100. You may include whatever inscription you wish, and even place a symbol if you want for only $5 more. We have a list of all available symbols at the rectory, and there is a list on the order website that you may access. If you wish to include your own personally designed symbol, that can be done too for an extra fee of $50.

In order to have the startup money that will be needed to begin the installation of the bricks – which I hope to be able to do in late May – I am offering a 10% discount for any bricks purchased before May 8th. You may purchase a brick by filling out the form in the bulletin or by visiting the website indicated on the form. (All payments come to St. Ann's Rectory.)

There will be ample space for bricks to be memorialized in the future, so when a loved one dies or there is a special occasion for which you'd like to memorialize a brick, you need only contact us at the rectory and we will be happy to assist you.

Response has been good so far, so if you'd like to get your brick in with the first round – and receive a 10% discount – please order your brick before next Sunday, May 8th.
