Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading: Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

God ordered Abraham to take his beloved only son to Moriah and offer him as a sacrifice. Abraham built an altar and took out a knife to sacrifice his son Isaac. But God called out to him and told him of blessings that would be bestowed on him and his descendants because he had been willing to do what God had asked.

Second Reading: Romans 8:31b-34

Paul reminds the people that God did not spare his only Son, but gave him up for the sake of all people. This proves God views us all as his children, and that no person can harm or condemn us because God will protect us.

Gospel: Mark 9:2-10

Jesus led Peter, James and John up a high mountain, where he conversed with Elijah and Moses. A voice proclaimed 'This is my Son, my beloved. Listen to him.' Then Jesus was alone and warned them not to tell anyone what they had seen until he had risen from the dead.

JOURNEY TOWARD GOD

This season of Lent let us deepen the experience of our self. On the one hand we are pure spirit, infinite: a manifestation of God, like the wave of the ocean is a manifestation of the ocean. And yet on the other hand we are temporal, our bodies last for a short time and are ever changing. In this earthly form we suffer from a sense of isolation and personal responsibility, which then causes emotions of insecurity and isolation and frustration. When we become conscious of these feelings we reject them and hide them from ourselves and from others around us. All the constant effort and energy we put in hiding then cause our lives to be limited, lacking, illness etc. While our lives are fully tuned in keeping the falseness alive we close the door to the infinite within us. We deny that the Spirit of God dwells in us.

The season of Lent prompts us to open the door to the infinite love of God, in fact we live and move and have our being in Him. The removal of all the barriers, full contact with God, the universal mind will make us understand all the pathways to the infinite that we had stepped off a long time ago. Let us understand this that God will win, he will not be denied, he claims us as his own. I am very sure that you will be very reluctant to have a complete realization of your own divine origin and power. There may even now while you are reading this something prompting you to conclude that you are an insignificant bit of matter, that has been accidentally washed upon the shores of the earth, in a chaotic universe, without cause, without reason, without destiny without power.

This season of Lent: reach inside you and find that still small voice that knows the truth. The Holy Spirit dwells within you and will never leave you no matter how strong your rebellion. The fact that you are a spiritual being and that the great I AM shepherds you cannot be denied. Peace be with you, let not your heart be troubled, I am the good shepherd. You will never ever be lost.

This season of Lent: get into closer contact with the POWER within you. Become aware of the promptings of your ego and the noise of the world that only serves to weaken your resolve to meet the infinite within you. Use this power to make your life happy and fulfilled. The understanding of this power within yourself will open your mind to the light and attract you to the greatest adventure possible.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Nelson Couto
