Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshiped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading: 2 Chronicles 36:14-16, 19-23

The people of Judah practiced many abominations, even polluting God's temple in Jerusalem. They mocked the messengers he sent among them, until he grew so angry he delivered them to the King of the Chaldeans. Those who weren't killed were exiled and became servants for seventy years. Cyrus, King of Persia, was ordered to build a temple to God in Jerusalem, and he freed the servants as God had inspired him to do.

Second Reading: Ephesians 2:4-10

Paul declares that God brought us to life in Jesus, though we had been dead from our sins. He reminds us that it was not a reward for our good service so no one should take credit. Instead, we must remember that it was not our doing, but a sign of God's mercy and love for us.

Gospel: John 3:14-21

God so loved the world, he sent us his only Son so that all who believed would have eternal life in him. The light came into the world, but those who were wicked avoided it, for fear that their evil deeds would be exposed. But those who believed were unafraid of the light, where it would be clear that their deeds were done in God.

From Fr. Nelson

March 14, 2021

I can't pray!

While many of us want to pray, we find that our minds distract us and lure us into a thousand other by-lanes we would rather not travel. We call them distractions and they can occupy about 50% of our thought processes. The mind swings from the pole of the past to the pole of the future. Between these swings, it now and then pauses in the center which is the present. And since prayer is in the present, we are not praying but swinging from past to future. And even when we are in the present moment we are battered by a torrent of notifications, alerts, texts, phone calls, video and TV, stresses of life, family, relationships, our cravings and needs. Are we to live in this thought jungle? Are we awake or constantly in a dream? Are our minds being perpetually hijacked from the present?

Jesus tells us to "Be awake, be watchful." So let us figure out what it means to be awake and how we can be watchful not only when we pray but also at every moment of our lives. Jesus also tells us, "Pray always."

We can do this with a wee bit of regular practice which strengthens and stabilizes our minds and keeps the flab of distractions and stress at bay, reduces our anxiety levels, protects us from depression and improves our memory. Let us begin by paying attention to the present moment, by being awake and watchful of where our attention is. For ages the sages of old and even today practice focusing all their attention on their breath. Just breathe in and be aware, breathe out and be aware. Whenever your mind begins to wander, like a good shepherd bring the wandering sheep back to the fold. Think of your brain like a puppy that needs to be gently trained to walk on a leash. Another routine you could follow could be becoming aware of all the sensations that you feel in various parts of your body. Begin from the crown of your head and gradually move on down to your toes. You could also pay attention to all the sounds that come to your ears, all the smells that drift through the air and all the sights that present themselves to your eyes. Just notice all this and let them dissolve and dissipate. As you practice, your mind will get used to be where it needs to be. It feels like now you walk the puppy and not the other way around. You will walk through this world with serenity and joy. Without being pulled or pushed around.

Do this exercise for a month for around 15 minutes a day and maybe you will learn to pray and be centered. You do not stop the mind from wandering, but you can gently bring it to where you need it to be. You are now awake and watchful and therefore in the present where your Father and mine has a residence.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Nelson Couto

The Care for Creation Ministry will be hosting a Sustainable Sunday Speaker Series event on Sunday March 14 at 3:00 pm – 4:15 pm entitled Recycle Right!

The program is a joint venture with the Croton Conservation Advisory Council.

Eva Thaddeus from the CCAD will present the newly launched "Recyclopedia" which is a fantastic resource in Croton to help you recycle over 200 different items.

Following her presentation, Sean O'Rourke, County Director of Material Handling will show us what happens to all of our recycling in Westchester and why proper recycling is so important. Where does the recycling go? What is aspirational recycling and why is it bad? Where does the other trash go?

Please be part of the online Zoom presentation by logging onto <https://fordham.zoom.us/j/99964223882> at 3 pm. The presentation will start shortly thereafter. Login at 2:45 and chat with fellow attendees.

Recordings and slides from past Sustainable Sunday presentations are available for viewing on our website www.hnmcare4creationministry.com. Go to the More menu on the upper right and select Resources.

A flyer for this presentation is available on-line as well.

Eagle Scout Project: Fencing & Benches for the Good Shepherd Chapel Court

My name is Mitchell Considine. I am a Life Scout in Troop 28 Croton who is working on his Eagle Scout project. My project will entail the installation of new fencing and benches by the basketball court at Good Shepherd Chapel on the corner of Benedict Boulevard and Young Avenue. This will help get the court ready for CYO use for practices and games, as well as for recreational use by the community.

This project will complement the ongoing court renovation that the Church is undergoing, creating a more pleasurable experience for both players and onlookers. The fencing will also help keep the basketballs from rolling into the street, as it is going to be extended and will be closed off in the corner, which was a safety issue. In total, the cost of funding this project is approximately $4,800. This is because the fencing will be about 200ft long and set in concrete. Also, the benches will be aluminum 15ft team benches with backs.

As a part of my responsibility for leading this project, I need to raise the funds to cover the entire cost of the project. So, I am asking for your help. If you would like to donate, please see the details below. Overall, this will be a project not just for the Holy Name of Mary Parish, but for the community as a whole. Thank you very much, and please contact me with any questions.
