Holy Name of Mary is a Roman Catholic community of believers who are dedicated to know Christ and become Christ, each one, for the sake of all. As disciples, we are called to create an environment where God is worshipped and where we serve our neighbor. Our warmest welcome to all who celebrate the Eucharist with us! We thank God for your presence at Holy Name of Mary and we pray for you and your families.

300 CLUB IS BACK!!!!

300 Club is a major fundraiser for our Holy Name of Mary parish. It supports all kinds of activities and ministries and helps to pay our bills.

Here's how it works – There are ten (10) chances to win! Select a number from 1-300 that hasn't already been taken for a donation of fifty dollars. We will randomly draw a number for each week for ten consecutive weeks beginning on April 12. The first nine drawings offer a $300 prize. If your number is drawn, you win! The tenth and final drawing on June 14th and the prize is $3000!

Enrollment for our 300 Club begins this weekend and continues through April 1st. If there's a number(s) that you've had in the past that you would like to reserve, let us know as soon as possible and we will save it for you!

FYI: Be sure to notify the Parish Office of any change of address, phone number, or email.

Bravo!

Thank you to Fr. Ron, Music Director Sara Della Posta, and the HNM Choir for the amazing concert performance in the Church last Sunday! Fr. Reflection

Often Jesus requires that those he heals participate in some way in their recovery. Last week, we heard Jesus heal the blind man by applying clay to his eyes. But then he instructed the man, still sightless, to make it to the Pool of Siloam to wash his eyes. Perhaps onlookers were able to guide him there. Today, Lazarus, tied hand and foot with burial bands after being dead for four days, is ordered to walk out of the tomb. He then orders onlookers to untie Lazarus. These miracles are not passive operations. Today, when we encounter those who are blind out of ignorance or self-centeredness, or when we recognize those who are entombed by addiction or hardship, Jesus orders us to help free them from the bands that bind them.

The passage we heard ends on the triumphant line that many people began to believe in the Lord after seeing this miracle. But the very next line reveals a different reaction: “But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done” (John 11:46). Most people see a miracle and react with awe and wonder. But for some, a miracle simply upsets the status quo. They want the blind to stay blind and the dead to stay dead. Someone with the power over blindness and death threatens the little power they are allowed to have. They fear “the Romans will come and take away both our land and our nation” (John 11:48). Our land and our nation, yes, but also our positions of power. “So from that day on they planned to kill him” (John 11:53).

Death is the subject of each of today’s readings. Ezekiel addresses the death of a great nation, its citizens in exile. Paul speaks of life “in the flesh,” a kind of spiritual death (Romans 8:8). Lazarus has been dead in the tomb for four days. In each case, God brings new life: raising those exiled from their graves and returning them to Israel, sending us the Spirit, who gives life to our mortal bodies, and bringing us forth from the tomb. Our collective sinfulness, our personal sins, and death itself have no power over God. We are called to “come out!” (John 11:43) from our tombs of sin and death and live in the new life of Christ.

Pallium Pilgrimage to Rome, Italy

June 25 – July 1, 2026

All parishes and archdiocesan staff are invited to join Archbishop Ronald A. Hicks on pilgrimage to Rome when he receives the pallium from Pope Leo XIV. The Holy Father will confer the pallium during a special Mass at Saint Peter’s Basilica on June 29, 2026. The pallium is a white, lamb's wool liturgical vestment worn by the pope and metropolitan archbishops in the Roman Catholic Church, symbolizing authority, unity with the papacy, and the role of a shepherd. Worn over the chasuble at Mass, it features six black silk crosses and two black pendants.
