have been sent out by email or USPS.

If you did not receive yours by mail,
please contact the Rectory Office.

Monday & Tuesday of this week...

Con Ed will be working on the utility box
located within the Rectory driveway on Monday and possibly Tuesday of this week, and will likely be turning off the power to the Rectory for at least part of the time they are here.

Please call ahead to the Office if you plan to visit on either day. If our phone system does not pick up then the power is off at that time.

This year's event will benefit:

Guiding Eyes for the Blind provides guide dogs to people with vision loss.

They are an accredited member of the International Guide Dog Federation (IGDF), the organization that establishes worldwide standards for the breeding & training of guide dogs.

Since 1954, Guiding Eyes has graduated more than 10,000 guide dog teams.

The journey from playful pup to professional Guiding Eyes dog takes up to three years and can cost up to $50,000 annually.

Guiding Eyes provides all services completely free of charge to people who are blind or experiencing vision loss.
