Dear Padre

September 29, 2019

Do dogs go to heaven?

Franciscan Friar Kevin Mackin writes, “The bond between person and pet is like no other relationship, because the communication between fellow creatures is at its most basic. Eye to eye are two creatures of love” (Catholic Update: “Why We Bless Animals,” Liguori).

Is it any wonder that people desire to see their pets in heaven! Yet, we know so little of what heaven is like. “We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is” (1 John 3:2). “At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face” (1 Corinthians 13:12). Thus, in heaven we’ll see and enjoy the loving essence of God for eternity.

Would not the sensation we experience on earth through a bond with loved ones and with lovable creatures be experienced and infinitely satisfied when we’re bonded to God’s loving essence for eternity? In other words, if a beloved pet gives us such happiness on earth, won’t that sensation be experienced preeminently forever in heaven? We either won’t miss the pet for that very reason or perhaps God will reunite us with it in some form as part of that heavenly experience. “What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and what has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love him” (1 Corinthians 2:9).

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)
Am 6:1a, 4-7; 1 Tm 6:11-16; Lk 16:19-31

It’s so easy to fall into complacency and not strive for greatness. When we’re young, we idealistically dream of reaching the heights of success. Then with time and the resistance of circumstances, we are hypnotized into settling for less and less. Eventually we’re content with just getting by, rather than embracing the arduous struggle upon the higher road that once attracted us.

The rich man of the Gospel was also complacent. His wealth blinded him to the needs of Lazarus, the poor man he passed and stepped over every time he entered his home. Even though he could help, the rich man refused. How could he be so inconsiderate? He had everything and was unwilling to offer even leftover food to someone in need.

God is against complacency and settling for the easy and sensual. He upbraids the chosen race for exactly that. They are too comfortable on their expensive, comfortable couches. Saint Paul challenges the young bishop Timothy to pursue high ideals such as righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, gentleness, and all other virtues. We should strive for them as well. How?

Jesus is the beautiful, timeless ideal of every soul aiming for perfect love. Keep your eyes on him and you will never settle for anything but true greatness.
