FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

As we celebrate today the great gift that is the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, we have to keep in mind the inherent tension of this gift. This gift is intended to feed us so that we can be Christ for others.

We cannot deny that the reception of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ has an intensely personal dimension. In our parish community, I see two extremes with regard to the Eucharist. There are many in our parish who do not receive the Eucharist, or receive it only infrequently, because they have a tremendous sense that they are not worthy to receive this gift. Only if you are in serious sin, should you refrain from the Eucharist. But if you are in serious sin, then simply come to confession to remove that sin so that you can receive the Eucharist! As for minor sins, the Church teaches that the Eucharist itself wipes away our smallest sins, although we should still confess those sins so as to maintain a good conscience and our faithfulness to the way of Christ. A second extreme in our parish, and in most Catholic parishes (!), is that persons approach the Eucharist too casually – particularly young people. We should never receive the Eucharist without a private prayer in which we acknowledge what it is that we will receive, the real presence of the Risen Christ under the appearance of bread and wine, and what this gift requires of us.

This gift requires that we be Christ for others. The Eucharist is not just personal. It has a public, communal dimension. We receive the Body and Blood of the Risen Christ in order to be Christ for others. We should incarnate in our lives the compassion of Christ, the mercy of Christ, the welcome that Christ gave to all who entered his life, and the concern Christ had for the poor and vulnerable of his day. This is how we receive the Eucharist ‘worthily.’ We sincerely desire that through our reception of the Eucharist, we become the real presence of Christ in our world.

May all of us receive this great gift with joy and the commitment it requires!

Fr. Mark Hallinan, S.J.

PAPAL EXHORTATION on MARRIAGE – Pope Francis has issued an exhortation on married life and the pastoral response of the Church to those who are married and those living in relationships not blessed by the Church. Courtesy of Fr. James Martin, S.J., we will highlight significant portions of the Pope's work:

What might work in one place may not work in another. The pope is not only speaking in terms of individuals, but geographically as well. "Each country or region...can seek solutions better suited to its culture and sensitive to its traditions and local needs" (3). What makes sense pastorally in one country may even seem out of place in another. For this reason and others, as the pope says at the beginning of the document that for this reason, not every question can be settled by the magisterium, that is, the church's teaching office (3).

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY SEEKS VOLUNTEER DRIVERS - If you are interested in learning how you can become a designated driver for persons receiving cancer care, please call 1-800-227-2345. There is a flyer in the vestibule.

This event is sponsored by the St. Pio of Pietrelcina Society of Holy Rosary Church. The cost is $65 per person and reservations are required by June 5th. For reservations, please call Diana Scire (718) 273-9624 or Edna Besabe (646)-483-7583.

WEEKLY OFFERING: May 15th: 4,009. Thank you for your support of our parish!

Reflection for this Week: THIS LOVE CHANGES OUR LIVES - What is the very first gift of the Holy Spirit? It is the gift of Himself, the one who is love and who makes us fall in love with Jesus. And this love changes our lives. That is why we speak of "being born again in the Spirit." It is what Jesus told Nicodemus. You have received the great gift of diversity of charisms, the diversity which becomes harmony in the Holy Spirit, and in service to the Church.

Reflection: Does your love for the Holy Spirit change your life? How is it different? How do you want it to be different? Do you want more joy? Do you want to show more love and mercy to others? Ask God to give you more of the great gift of the Spirit.
