"My Grace is Sufficient for You"

(2 Corinthians 12: 9)

The words of the Lord to Paul: "My grace is sufficient for you" are taken from the Second Letter to the Corinthians.

They have been always served me as a source of consolation. It is God himself who is present in our poor and sometimes fragmented lives. However, the context of today's readings we must look for in the experience of faith that we live week by week in our parish community.

Similar to this experience, perhaps it was Jesus' countrymen until he surprised them with his preaching and presence. I hope that in our daily experiences we let ourselves be touched by Jesus who comes to our lives and manifests himself in an unexpected and ordinary way.

Both Jesus and the prophet Ezekiel felt rejection of their preaching in today's readings. Jesus is rejected by the simple fact of having been raised in their midst. His countrymen CAN NOT accept someone who looks so much like them to teach them about the things of God. Ezekiel did not have it easy since he had to preach to a people who had rebelled against God to the point of being considered by the prophet as "obstinate of heart." Perhaps more consoling is the experience of Paul who recognizes that the grace of God is enough for each one of us in order to overcome our human weaknesses. Let us ask the Lord to have the humility to know how to accept the other who seems to be similar to us. The role of the true prophet is to speak on behalf of God. Ezekiel did it in times of difficulty and despite the multiple criticisms of his contemporaries continued to prophesy until the end of his life. Human frailty leads to the rejection of things and people who speak in the name of the Lord because they are unable to fulfill God's expectations for our lives.

In the Gospel of Mark, faith is the prerequisite for obtaining healing. Jesus does not cure so that people have faith but heals those whose faith is powerful (strong).

"Your faith has saved you" are the words of consolation for the sick woman for 12 years whose story we heard last week. However, in today's Gospel, Jesus does not cure any of his countrymen because their lack of faith (Mark 6: 5-6). Our faith is what enables each one of us to be open to the grace of God willing to work in those who are open themselves to it.

Pope Francis invites us to open ourselves to Jesus who comes and wants to meet us in the ordinary of everyday life; this is in the poor, in the sick, in the neighbor or in the priest of our parish. Pope Francis also tells us that God speaks to us in our brothers and sisters we meet every day and in them and through them Christ wants to touch our lives. Let us ask for the grace of knowing how to receive Jesus every day in our lives and to recognize Him in our neighbor without leaving room for any type of rejection.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA) - Have you or anyone you know expressed an interest in becoming a Catholic? Were you baptized a Catholic but never received the sacraments of Communion and Confirmation. We offer the opportunity for people to come together in small groups to learn more about The Catholic Faith. These sessions center on the teachings and experiences of the Gospels and the Church while preparing individuals to celebrate the sacraments of baptism, communion and confirmation. Candidates will make their sacraments during the Easter season. Call the rectory if you or someone you know is interested for more details.

PARISH MEMBERSHIP - To be considered an active, participating member of the parish and eligible to serve as a sacramental sponsor, our parish takes into account your Mass attendance and ministry involvement. Since weekly offertory envelopes are the primary means of determining whether you are regularly attending Mass, we ask you to place your envelopes in the collections basket each Sunday. Remember, attendance at Mass is the most meaningful way we model and live our Catholic Faith!

DOES GOD CARE WHAT I WEAR TO CHURCH? - Activities and vacations can make getting to Mass each week seem like a juggling act. Harder still is finding the time to dress properly and prepare as we would like. But approaching all aspects of the Eucharist carefully can deepen our Communion with Christ. What we wear can help.

Make it feel special. If you were invited to a friend's house for an evening wouldn't you wear something nice and appropriate? Sunday Mass is a special time for you and God. Wearing good clothes makes it feel special.

Send a message. Mass is also a communal celebration. When you look nice in church, you send a message to your Catholic brothers and sisters that you value your time together in God's house. Just because it's "in style" doesn't make it "in style" for God.

Use this guideline. When deciding what to wear in Church, think about this: If it's something you would wear to a picnic, to play a sport, or to clean out the garage or the house, don't wear it to church - even when on vacation.

PROTECT OUR CHILDREN – Anyone who needs to report an alleged incident of sexual abuse of a minor by a priest, deacon, religious or lay person serving in the Archdiocese of New York is asked to contact Sr. Eileen Clifford, O.P., at 212-371-1000, x2949 or Deacon George J. Coppola at 917-861-1762. Both may also be reached via e-mail at victimassistance@archny.org. Information can also be found on the website of the Archdiocese – www.archny.org. In keeping with the archdiocesan policy regarding sexual abuse of minors, this information is provided to ensure that our children remain safe and secure.

REFLECTION - "People are often unreasonable and self-centered. Forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of ulterior motives. Be kind anyway. If you find happiness, people may be jealous. Be happy anyway. The good you do today may be forgotten tomorrow. Be happy anyway. Give the world the best you have and it may never be enough. Give your best anyway. For you see, in the end, it is between you and God. It was never between you and them anyway." — Mother Teresa — Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DePAUL GIVES BACK - Our parish could share in the profits. For each car, truck or van, running or not that is donated the Society will give back to our church $75/$200 per vehicle. Maybe you don't have a vehicle, but a family member, friend or neighbor has an old or neglected vehicle in their driveway that they would like to dispose of. Call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at 718 491-2525.

SUPPORTING OUR BULLETIN ADVERTISERS - The more support our bulletin advertisers receive, the more ad space they buy, thank all of the parishioners who have helped support our advertisers and encourage everyone to take a look at the advertisement page and patronize the businesses that support our parish and consider buying space for your business. Please support our bulletin advertisers – they defray the cost of publishing our weekly bullet
