"We must choose the possibility of living now in the most noble and fair world possible, while we form the new generations, with an education that can never turn its back on its "neighbors", on everything that surrounds us". (Pope Francis)

"Peace to this house" (Luke 10:1-9)

Jesus is clear when sending his disciples to what would be the first great apostolic mission. From the beginning our faith is presented as contagious and evangelizing. How could the believer be quiet when there is a reason for joy. We are those disciples that Jesus wanted to the extent that we reflect, not because of what we have or appear to have, but because we carry the peace that Jesus himself granted us. How easy and at the same time how difficult it is to bear witness to our faith.

"Peace be with you." In an increasingly violent world and in which we have to mourn our loved ones whose lives are taken away, the difficult thing is to find peace. It seems that the teachings of Jesus have been forgotten or have only been relegated to the sacristies. It seems that the violent and those who threaten the lives of other men and women are the ones who prevail. It is enough to watch the news to cry for so many children who die violently at the hands of gunmen who have bought their weapons freely. How sad to remember the massacres of so many schools, colleges and even religious places where gunmen tried to take away innocent lives.

Today, on the eve of the Independence Day of this beautiful country that welcomes us and that we call home, let us bring the peace of Jesus. This is a peace that does not impose laws but creates living communities. It is the one that each believer preaches more than with words with deeds. "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few" Jesus laments in today's Gospel. The Kingdom of God is a kingdom of fullness but in which there are always new and better opportunities to share God's love with all our brothers and sisters of good will. With the strength of the Word of God and the Eucharist, let us be active missionaries of the Kingdom. May the ideal of Jesus and his Kingdom encourage us to build a country where together we work to form a more just and equal society for ALL.

Just as the People of Israel felt the provident power of God that is glorified in many mothers who caress their babies with love, Jesus also wants to be like the benefactor who harvests abundantly so that his children do not starve. It is the actions of Jesus and of those who preach his Kingdom that not only make peace flourish, but also quench the hunger and thirst of those who have lost almost everything. Let us think of so many people forced to seek new life alternatives and give thanks because we are those holy people who only seek peace.

Happy 4th of July! God bless America!

2022 CARDINAL'S APPEAL

Charitable & Pastoral Outreach: The COVID-19 crisis highlighted the critical role our pastors play in addressing the needs of their communities. Charitable services like food pantries, pop-up clinics, counseling services, and eldercare are facilitated through the parishes under the guidance and leadership of the pastors. Over ten million meals have been distributed since the start of the pandemic, and the needs continue to grow. Our archdiocesan apostolates are also hard at work serving the faithful through ministries such as Youth Faith Formation and Catechesis, Young Adult Outreach, Family Life and Respect Life, Adult Faith Formation, and Black and Hispanic Ministry. Make your gift today now to the Annual Cardinal's Appeal at cardinalsappeal.org and help our Parish meet it's goal. Our parish number is 340.
