PLEASE CLOSE THE DOORS

A true gentleman will hold the door for a lady, not just prop it open. With the recent colder weather and a greater demand for heating, we ask that you keep the doors of the Church closed. Please do not presume the person behind you will close it. This also applies to our daily Mass goers. We try hard to keep our expenses down, and making sure the doors are kept closed is a great way to not throw your money out the window, (or door). Thank you.

Thank you for your continued support.

FLU SEASON

For those parishioners who don't wish to shake hands at Mass, during the flu season, the Church allows for some other gestures such as a wave or a nod during the sign of peace as well as the Our Father. Additionally in order to avoid getting the flu you should wash your hands frequently, cough into your arm (not hands) and if possible get the flu shot. We must all be cautious in our daily interactions so that Holy Family can be a Healthy Family.

SPONSOR CERTIFICATES

Sponsor Certificates are signed and sealed documents attesting to the fact that you are a practicing Catholic (going to Mass every week and living the Catholic faith). A Sponsor Certificate is required if you are being asked to be a sponsor for Confirmation or a godparent for Baptism. A LETTER FROM FR. ANTHONY

Dear Friends,

Peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you and your family. My heart is filled with gratitude and joy for your support. I would like to inform you that I have been able to roof the Rectory in my home town. The building has three bedrooms, each has an attached bathroom. It has an office, conference room, living room, storeroom and kitchen.

May I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to you and all parishioners of Holy Family for your financial support. May God continue to replenish whatever they spent on the project. The project is on-going and all support is appreciated. Thank you.

Yours gratefully,

Fr. Anthony Enyinfu, enyinfu@yahoo.com

BEGINNING APOLOGETICS 1

THE CANON OF THE BIBLE

OT Continued

The Hebrew canon was established by Jewish rabbis at Jamnia, in Palestine about the year 100 A.D., perhaps in reaction to the Christian Church, which was using the Alexandrian canon. The Jews at Jamnia rejected seven books from the Hebrew canon found in the Septuagint-Wisdom, Sirach, Judith, Baruch, Tobit, and 1 and 2 Maccabees (as well as portions of Daniel and Esther)-chiefly on the grounds that they could not find any Hebrew versions of these books which the Septuagint supposedly translated into Greek.

The Christian Church continued to use the Septuagint. When the Church officially decided which books comprise the canon of the Bible (Councils of Hippo, 393 A.D., and Carthage, 397 A.D.), it approved the 46 books of the Alexandrian canon as the canon for the OT. For sixteen centuries the Alexandrian canon was a matter of uncontested faith. Each of the seven rejected books is quoted by the early Church Fathers as "Scripture" or as "inspired," right along with the undisputed books.

In 1529 Martin Luther proposed the Palestinian canon of 39 books in Hebrew as the OT canon. Luther found justification for removing the seven books from the Bible in the old concerns of St. Jerome and the Council of Jamnia that the Greek books had no Hebrew counterparts. However, research into the Dead Sea Scrolls found at Qumran has discovered ancient Hebrew copies of some of the disputed books making their rejection unsupported on those grounds.

But here is the real question: Which OT would you rather use—the OT used by Jesus, the NT writers and the early Church, or the OT used by the Jews who rejected Christ and persecuted Christianity?

If your Bible includes the seven books, you follow Jesus and the early Church. If your Bible omits the seven books, you follow the non-Christian Jews at Jamnia and Martin Luther—a man who wanted to throw out even more books (James, Esther, Revelation), and who deliberately added the word "alone" to Sacred Scripture in his German translation of Romans 3:28.

THE NEW TESTAMENT (NT)

The first word of the NT was written about 50 A.D. (1 Thess), the last word between 90-100 A.D. (Rev), for a total of 27 books, all of which are accepted as canonical and inspired by Catholics and Protestants alike. The question is, who determined the NT canon of inspired books? The Bible didn't fall from heaven pre-printed, so where did we get it? How do we know we can trust every book?

Various bishops developed lists of inspired books:

- Mileto, Bishop of Sardis, c. 175 A.D.
- St. Irenaeus, Bishop of Lyons, 185 A.D.
- Eusebius, Bishop of Caesarea, c. 325 A.D.
- Pope Damasus in 382 A.D., prompted by the Council of Rome, wrote a decree listing the present OT and NT canon of 73 books.
- The Council of Hippo (in North Africa) in 393 A.D. approved the present OT and NT canon of 73 books.
