BANNS OF MARRIAGE

- III. Vincenzo Lombardo and Elizabeth Baransky

Sunday, April 8th, 2018

WELCOME ST. JOHN NEUMANN

-Thanks to the efforts of the Holy Name Society, we were able to complete the task of raising our altar by just under 4 inches. One of the chief benefits of raising the altar is that we were able to insert a relic into the altar. The relic is of St. John Neumann, who was ordained a priest here in NY in the old St. Patrick's Cathedral.

-Traditionally, all altars have an 'altar stone' with a relic in it (which the Priest kisses before and after Mass) and it is a great honor to have such a great saint here at Holy Family.

50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY JUBILEE

Couples celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary anytime during 2018 are invited to attend the Golden Wedding Jubilee Mass with Cardinal Dolan at St. Patrick's Cathedral on Sunday, June 3rd at 2:15 pm. Please call Lisa M-F 8:00 AM -4:00 PM to register. The last date to register for the Mass is Monday, May 14th.

COLUMBIETTES

We will be forming a new chapter of The Columbiettes here at Holy Family. If you would be interested in joining, please call Lisa at the rectory (718) 761-6663 to give her your information. BEGINNING APOLOGETICS 1

MARIAN DOCTRINES

Fundamentalists think Catholics give too much honor to the Blessed Virgin Mary. They reject the four defined doctrines on Our Lady: (1) her Divine Maternity (that she is the Mother of God); (2) her Perpetual Virginity (that she remained a virgin throughout her entire life); (3) her Bodily Assumption; and (4) her Immaculate Conception.

Fundamentalists often want to discuss Marian beliefs immediately. Insist on starting with more basic differences: Apostolic authority, the Eucharist, or the "Bible alone" idea. However, you should be prepared to eventually discuss Marian doctrines.

Before beginning a discussion on the four major doctrines, ask Fundamentalists why they think it is so wrong to honor the mother of our Savior. Remind them that God honored her above all creatures by making her the mother of His Son. In honoring Mary, the Catholic Church is following the example of God Himself. Mary's special privileges were given to her by God, not men.

Read Luke 1:26-56. Note how the Archangel Gabriel shows Mary great honor in his greeting. See how Elizabeth, "filled with the Holy Spirit," calls Mary blessed twice in just four short verses. Under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, Elizabeth gives Our Lady great honor with the words, "And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?"

In verse 48, Our Lady prophesies that all ages will call her blessed. Ask Fundamentalists why they don't call her Blessed Virgin Mary as Catholics do. They call her Mary or perhaps Virgin Mary, but almost never Blessed Virgin Mary. Let them see that it is Catholics who are being biblical here and not Fundamentalists.

Once you have established the biblical basis for giving special honor to Our Lady, you can begin discussing the four major Marian doctrines. Don't try to deal with all four doctrines at once; this takes a lot of time and can involve many difficulties and side issues. For apologetic purposes insist on focusing on Mary's title of Mother of God for these reasons: (1) This is her first and greatest privilege; the other privileges follow from this one. If they can understand and accept this doctrine, they will grasp the others more easily. (2) It is the easiest to defend doctrinally, biblically, and historically.

(3) The three great pillars of the Reformation—Luther, Calvin, and Zwingli—all accepted this doctrine wholeheartedly.

Most Protestants are shocked to learn that although the founders of Protestantism rejected many Catholic doctrines, they insisted on honoring Mary as Mother of God and Ever-Virgin.

DOCTRINAL BASIS

All Christians believe that Jesus was born of the Blessed Virgin Mary. They also believe that although Jesus has two natures (one divine and one human), He is one Divine Person. Since this one person was born of Mary, she truly is the Mother of the one Divine Person: in short, the Mother of God.
