SUPPORTING OUR BULLETIN ADVERTISERS

We are glad to give credit where credit is due and the recent support of our bulletin advertisers by our parishioners deserve credit/praise. The more support they receive, the more ad space they buy, which allows us to improve our bulletin. In the previous 6 months we have been able to obtain the option of full color covers and in the near future we will also have a full color interior as well. We thank all of the parishioners who have helped support our advertisers and encourage everyone to take a look at the advertisement page and patronize the businesses that support our parish.

MASS INTENTION BOOK 2019

The 2019 Mass Intention book has been opened and given the high demand for Mass Intentions we ask that you consider giving a Purgatorial Society Intention in place of a Mass Intention for the soul of a loved one. The Purgatorial Society offers a dozen monthly reminders of your loved one instead of the singular intention and is a beautiful Mass every month as we gather to remember those who we love and will never forget.

ROSARY ALTAR SOCIETY NEWS

This Wednesday June 6th, the Rosary Altar Society will celebrate the mass together at noon and afterwards they will break bread with a covered luncheon in the gym.

Romans 5:1-2

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

BEGINNING APOLOGETICS 1

The Catholic Church is both human and divine. Because it is human, it will have scandals. Because it is divine, it will last forever. Scandals are found in all denominations; they have nothing to do with the Catholic Church being the true Church.

What St. Paul wrote concerning the Jews applies also to Christians: "What if some were unfaithful? Will their infidelity nullify the fidelity of God? Of course not!" (Rom 3:3-4). Christ's faithfulness to His Church remains even when some of its members are unfaithful (see 2 Tim 2:13).

Scandals do not prove that the Catholic Church is false. They only prove what is obvious: that the Church contains sinners as well as saints, weeds along with the wheat. In the parable of the wheat and the weeds (Mt 13:24-30), Our Lord makes clear that good and evil will exist side by side until the end of time. Mt 13:47-48 also confirms that the Church contains good and bad members alike.

PRAYER TO THE SAINTS

Is it biblical to ask the saints in heaven to pray for us? Catholics say yes, since we are all part of the communion of saints. Most Protestants say no, even though many of them recite the Apostles' Creed. Thus, they profess to believe in the "communion of saints," but usually they cannot explain what this means. What does it mean to believe in the communion of saints? Does this belief give us the biblical foundations for the doctrine of intercessory prayer?

COMMUNION OF SAINTS

As the word suggests, the communion of saints refers to the bond of unity among all believers, both living and dead, who are committed followers of Christ. In Christ, we are made part of God's family (1 Tim 3:15), children of God (1 John 3:1), joint heirs with Christ (Rom 8:17), and partakers of the divine nature (2 Pet 1:4). This family communion of saints is known to Catholics as the Mystical Body of Christ. We are joined in a supernatural union as members of Christ's own body, and thus as members of one another. Each of us participates in the divine life of Christ Himself.

Remind non-Catholics that because we as branches are connected to Christ the vine, we are also connected to each other. It is the life and grace of Jesus that gives us life and unites us in our common pilgrimage to heaven.

St. Paul emphasizes this unity in Christ's body in 1 Cor 12:12-27 (especially v. 25-27) and in Rom 12:4-16. Know these passages.

INTERCESSORY PRAYER

What we have said about the communion of saints gives us the biblical reasons why Catholics ask the saints to intercede for them:

- (1) All Christians are members of Christ's body and one another (Rom 12:5 and many others).
- (2) Jesus has only one body (Eph 4:4; Col 3:15).
- (3) Death cannot separate Christians from Christ or from one another (Rom 8:35-39).
- (4) Christians are bound in mutual love (Rom 12:10; 1 Thess 5:1; Gal 6:2).
