MIRACLES

It is through Baptism that we are joined with Christ, share in His passion, death and resurrection and are saved from our sins and become adopted children of God, sharing in divine life. This miracle of God's love and grace was recently bestowed on the following children in January:

Yaquab Abbas
Alianna N. Hamill
Natalina Lucia
Camryn Carol McEvoy
August Valentine Parker-Lane

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED JOINING: ADULT OR YOUTH CHOIR?

Membership is open to all, age 16 years or under. The Holy Family Adult Choir sings at the 5 PM mass every Sunday, and meets for rehearsal an hour before, at 4 PM. We're always looking for new members, and anyone who likes to sing is invited to come join us. Speak to Bill Richert, the organist, after mass to find out more.

HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION 2020

On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, Catholics are obliged to participate in the Mass and to refrain from unnecessary work and all spiritually-distracting activities in conformity with the code of canon law.

"Obligation means "ya gotta do it!" It's the Church's way of stressing the importance of the mystery, person or event being celebrated. During 2020, the following days will be observed:

- Thursday, May 21
(Ascension of the Lord)
- *Saturday, August 15
(Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary)
- *Sunday, November 1
(All Saints)
- Tuesday, December 8
(Immaculate Conception)
- Friday December 25
(Nativity of the Lord)

*By special indult from the Holy See in 1994, Catholics are not obligated to attend Mass when either Mary, the Mother of God, the Assumption or All Saints fall on a Saturday or a Monday. Pastors, however are encouraged to offer a convenient Mass schedule for those who wish to attend.

LENTEN FAST AND ABSTINENCE

During the season of Lent, the Church urges the faithful to reflect a spirit of Penance in their daily lives through performing acts of fast and abstinence.

+Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 26 and ends on Holy Thursday, April 9.

+Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence. This is a serious matter within Church law.

+Fasting means only one full meal a day may be taken. Two smaller meals can be eaten to maintain strength but together they should not equal another full meal in quantity. Snacking between meals is not permitted. Catholics ages 18-59 are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Those who are not specifically obligated to fast are encouraged to join in the discipline of fasting to the extent that they are able.

CHAPTER 13: On Grace

Oh my children! St. Augustine says, and it is very true, that God seeks in us what deserves that He should abandon us, and finds it; and He seeks what would make us worthy of His gifts, and finds nothing, because, in fact, there is nothing in us -- we are nothing but ashes and sin. All our merit, my children, consists in cooperating with grace. See, my children, a beautiful flower has no beauty nor brilliance without the sun; for during the night it is all withered and drooping. When the sun rises in the morning, it suddenly revives and expands. It is the same with our soul, in regard to Jesus Christ, the true Sun of justice; it has no interior beauty but through sanctifying grace. In order to receive this grace, my children, our soul must turn to the good God by a sincere conversion: we must open our hearts to Him by an act of faith and love. As the sun alone cannot make a flower expand if it is already dead, so the grace of the good God cannot bring us back to life if we will not abandon sin.

God speaks to us, without ceasing, by His good inspirations; He sends us good thoughts, good desires. In youth, in old age, in all the misfortunes of life, He exhorts us to receive His grace, and what use do we make of His warnings? At this moment, are we cooperating rightly with grace? Are we not shutting the door of our heart against it? Consider that the good God will one day call you to account for what you have heard today; woe to you, if you stifle the cry that is rising from the depths of your conscience! We are in prosperity, we live in the midst of pleasures, all puffed up with pride; our heart is of ice towards the good God. It is a ball of copper, which the waters of grace cannot penetrate; it is a tree which receives the gentle dew, and bears no more fruit. . . . Let us be on our guard, my children; let us take care not to be unfaithful to grace. The good God leaves us free to choose life or death; if we choose death, we shall be cast into the fire, and we must burn forever with the devils. Let us ask pardon of God for having up to now abused the graces He has given us, and let us humbly pray to Him to grant us more.
