Catholic Book of Prayers

By Rev. Maurus Fitzgerald, O.F.

The Coming of the Savior

WHEN the time appointed by the wisdom of God had come, the Son of God, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, became Man in the womb of the Virgin Mary. The Church celebrates the birth of our Blessed Lord Jesus Christ on Christmas Day.

He received the name Jesus, meaning Savior because He came to save the world. Christ, meaning Anointed One, was the name given by the Chosen People of God to their Priests, Kings and Prophets by reason of the holy unction with which they were consecrated. This name is eminently adapted to the Son of God made Man Who was anointed not by means of an exterior and material unction but by the fullness of the divinity which resides in Him.

The Incarnation of Jesus

JESUS Christ is the Son of God, equal and consubstantial with the Father in all things. Jesus Christ is Man because He possesses all that which constitutes human nature: a body, and a soul. This union of Divine nature and human nature in Jesus Christ is called the Mystery of the Incarnation. There are, then, in Jesus Christ, two natures and one Person: the Person of the Son of God, and the nature of God and the nature of man.

Jesus Christ—Our Lord and Savior

JESUS Christ came upon earth to destroy the reign of sin. He fought sin by His example, prophecies, and miracles; but above all He triumphed over sin by the merits of His Passion and death.

He delivered Himself up to the malice of His enemies; He allowed Himself to be condemned to cruel punishment and to be crucified. He shed all His Blood while praying for His persecutors: taking the place of the guilty, He suffered and died for them. He made satisfaction for the sins of all human beings: for those who preceded His coming as well as those who followed Him, meriting graces without number and without measure for their sanctification and salvation.

The Redemption

JESUS Christ did not suffer and die as God, for a Divine Nature can neither suffer nor die. He died as Man; but as God, He has given an infinite value to His sufferings and death. He died for all human beings, including those who do not take advantage of His saving merits. The day in which the Church, in a special manner, commemorates the death of Jesus Christ is called Good Friday.

This death of the Son of God made Man, offering His very life on the Cross as a sacrifice for the salvation of humankind, is called the Mystery of the Redemption of the human race: a mystery of love in which God has united His mercy and justice, in pardoning sinful human beings in view of the sacrifice and merits of His innocent Son.

Immediately after the death of Jesus Christ, His body was placed in a tomb. He then descended into hell, that is, the place of the dead, to free all the souls of the just, the Patriarchs, and Prophets who were detained there awaiting the coming of the Messiah and the Redemption of the world.
