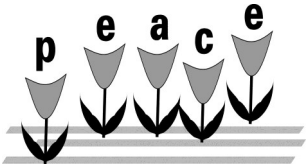
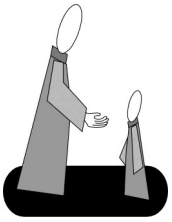
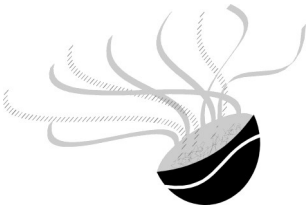
TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ✠ SEPTEMBER 20, 2015
VIGÉSIMO QUINTO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO ✠ 20 DE SEPTIEMBRE, 2015
VENTICINQUESIMA DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO ✠ 20 DI SETTEMBRE, 2015



"Where do the wars and where do the conflicts among you come from? Is it not from your passions that make war within your members? You covet but do not possess. You kill and envy but you cannot obtain, you fight and wage war. You do not possess because you do not ask. You ask and you do not receive, because you ask wrongly to spend it on your passions." The words of James' letter we can apply to the world around us. Although he speaks of the root of the conflicts within us, we can concede that they also go outside us. Conflicts exit in so many places in the world. The 'enemy' seems to arise on all fronts. Al Caida, ISIS, Boko Rama, Taliban – it is easy to put a name on it. But we should look closer to home. The weapons we sell to other nations are often confiscated and used against good people. The monies nations use to wage war could be directed to saving lives. Training persons to wage war is contrary to the gospel of Jesus. Nonviolence is the way of Jesus and the gospel. If we do not seek peace and work for justice, we will never know either. Pope Paul VI told us 'if you want peace work for justice.' The prophets of nonviolence Ghandi, Dr. King and Dorothy Day are admired, but somehow their message, like that of James is drowned out by rhetoric pushing war.



"¿De dónde provienen las luchas y las querellas que hay entre ustedes? ¿No es precisamente de las pasiones que combaten en sus mismos miembros? Ustedes ambicionan, y si no consiguen lo que desean, matan; envidian, y al no alcanzar lo que pretenden, combaten y se hacen la guerra. Ustedes no tienen, porque no piden. O bien, piden y no reciben, porque piden mal, con el único fin de satisfacer sus pasiones." Las palabras de la carta de Santiago se pueden aplican al mundo que nos rodea. A pesar de que él habla de la raíz de los conflictos entre nosotros, podemos aceptar que también van más allá. Existen conflictos en tantos lugares en el mundo. El 'enemigo' aparece por todos los frentes. Al-Qaeda, ISIS, Boko Haram, Talibán… es fácil ponerle nombre. Pero deberíamos buscar más cerca a nosotros. Las armas que vendemos a otras naciones son generalmente confiscadas y utilizadas contra gente buena. El dinero que se usa para costear guerras podría utilizarse para salvar vidas. Entrenar gente para la guerra está en contra del evangelio de Jesús. La no-violencia es el camino de Jesús y el evangelio. Si no buscamos la paz y trabajamos por la justicia, nunca las conoceremos. El Papa Paulo VI nos dijo: 'si quieren paz, trabajen por la justicia.' Los profetas de la no-violencia, tales como Gandhi, Martin Luther King, y Dorothy Day son admirados, pero sin embargo su mensaje, como el de Santiago, se ahoga por la retórica que empuja la Guerra.



Il santo battesimo ci ha inseriti nella morte del Signore, ci ha resi conformi al suo sacrificio. Questa è la radice della nostra esistenza cristiana, la sua sorgente profonda: il frutto deve essere l'umiltà, l'esistenza che ne sgorga deve essere un'esistenza donata nel servizio. È questo un punto centrale della vita cristiana. In essa, e dunque nella Chiesa, la logica delle "precedenze" è completamente rovesciata: il primo è colui che si fa il servo di tutti, come Gesù, il cui primato è stato posto dalla sua obbedienza ed immolazione sulla croce. La vera dignità è nella possibilità offerta all'uomo di imitare l'umiltà del Verbo Incarnato. Una conseguenza sconvolgente: il piccolo è il "sacramento" di Gesù e quindi in lui accogliamo il Padre.
