“Jesus began speaking in the synagogue: ‘Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.’ All who were present spoke favorably of him; they marveled at the appealing discourse which came from his lips. They also asked, ‘Is this not Joseph’s son?’...At these words the whole audience in the synagogue was filled with indignation. They rose up and expelled him from the town...” It didn’t take many verses in the gospel of St. Luke to find a conversion, not to but away from Jesus. The person, admired and respected, became the challenger. He knew their hearts and was found to be too much for them. He told it like it was. We are called to turn constantly to the Lord. We hear His word proclaimed and a teaching on a weekly basis. God’s word is ‘like a two edged sword’ which can cut deeply, inform and reform our lives. Sometimes we do not care for what we hear, because it challenges our way of life, our pattern of thinking, or our relationship with others. But remember, what is important is our relationship with God. As I recreate the scene in the Nazareth synagogue, I ask myself if I marvel at what I hear and how I respond.

“Entonces Jesús comenzó a decirles: ‘Hoy se ha cumplido este pasaje de la Escritura que acaban de oír’. Todos daban testimonio a favor de él y estaban llenos de admiración por las palabras de gracia que salían de su boca. Y decían: ‘¿No es este el hijo de José?’... Al oír estas palabras, todos los que estaban en la sinagoga se enfurecieron y, levantándose, lo empujaron fuera de la ciudad...” No tomó muchos versos en el evangelio de San Lucas para encontrar una conversión, para luego alejarse de Jesús. La persona, admirada y respetada, se convirtió en retadora. El conocía sus corazones y se convirtió en mucho para ellos. El les dijo las verdades. Estamos llamados a voltearnos constantemente hacia el Señor. Escuchamos Su palabra proclamada y su enseñanza en una base semanal. La palabra de Dios es ‘como una espada de dos filos’, que puede cortar profundamente, informar y reformar nuestras vidas. A veces no nos importa lo que escuchamos porque desafía nuestra forma de vida, nuestro patrón de pensamiento o nuestra relación con otros. Pero recuerde, lo que es importante es nuestra relación con Dios. Al recrear yo la escena en la sinagoga de Nazaret, me pregunto si me maravillo por lo que escucho y cómo respondo.

Perché gli uomini rifiutano il profeta che parla in nome di Dio? Perché avvertono in lui un personaggio “scomodo”, che li sveglia dal loro quieto vivere e condanna le vie sbagliate che percorrono, invitandoli a cambiare vita e a mettersi sulla strada indicata dal vangelo e dal modello di Cristo. A Nazaret rifiutano Gesù, perché chiedeva un cambiamento radicale di vita, di abitudini, di mentalità. Allora trovano tanti pretesti per sfuggire all’ammonimento del profeta. Il mondo ha bisogno di profeti del vangelo. Oggi più di ieri. Anch’io sono invitato a essere profeta, cioè a testimoniare il vangelo con la vita e la parola, in tutte le situazioni di ogni giorno: famiglia, lavoro, scuola, letture, conversazioni, impegno di carità, attenzione all’uomo, ecc. Debbo chiedermi: chissà se la gente che mi avvicina riceve da me uno stimolo al bene? Ma prima ancora mi pongo questa domanda: come accolgo Gesù, che ogni giorno m’invita alla conversione? I miei criteri di giudizio, di scelta, non entrano in crisi quando leggo il Vangelo? È una verifica che dovrei fare con serietà, nella preghiera. Altrimenti, a cosa serve dirsi cristiano, se poi rifiuto tante volte ogni giorno l’invito di Gesù alla conversione?
