“Jesus said to his disciples: ‘Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven, that no thief nor moth can destroy... Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more.” Think for a moment of the many times in the scriptures it says not to be afraid. We find this advice in the Old Testament. We hear these words again when Gabriel spoke to Mary, Joseph was advised in a dream, and when Peter and his friends were adrift on the sea. Fear is a very human emotion and response. I can ask myself of what I am afraid? A child might be afraid of the dark. An adult fears losing his job, family problems or poor health. Many fear death. Jesus offers a remedy we can follow, if we are one with Him. In the long run, we need only be afraid of losing God’s friendship, and each person has the power to make sure that does not happen. Peter asked to whom the parable was directed. I know the answer.

“No temas, pequeño Rebaño, porque el Padre de ustedes ha querido darles el Reino. Vendan sus bienes y denlos como limosna. Háganse bolsas que no se desgasten y acumulen un tesoro inagotable en el cielo, donde no se acerca el ladrón ni destruye la polilla...Al que se le dio mucho, se le pedirá mucho; y al que se le confió mucho, se le reclamará mucho más.”

Piense por un momento de las muchas veces que se nos indica en las escrituras no tener miedo. Encontramos este consejo en el Antiguo Testamento. Escuchamos estas palabras nuevamente cuando Gabriel le habló a María, cuando a José se le recomendó en un sueño, cuando Pedro y sus amigos estaban zozobrando en el mar. El miedo es una emoción y respuesta muy humana. Puedo preguntarme de qué tengo miedo yo. Un niño puede tener miedo a la oscuridad. Un adulto teme perder su trabajo, tener problemas familiares o mala salud. Muchos temen la muerte. Jesús ofrece un remedio que podemos seguir, si somos uno con El. A largo plazo lo único que debemos temer es perder la amistad de Dios, y cada persona tiene el poder de asegurarse de que esto no pase. San Pedro preguntó a quién se le dirigía la parábola. Yo conozco la respuesta.

In questo brano del Vangelo Cristo ci dice di non avere paura, di non lasciarci prendere dall’angoscia: il nostro stato d’animo di sempre deve essere una tranquilla fiducia in Dio, poiché “al Padre vostro è piaciuto di darvi il suo regno”.

Dobbiamo aprire un conto in questo regno, perché solo lì si trova la vera ricchezza. La motivazione e il fine dell’uomo provengono sempre da dove egli pensa che si trovino i veri valori: “Perché dove è il vostro tesoro, lì sarà anche il vostro cuore”. Questa priorità implica che noi siamo distaccati dal denaro e dai beni materiali, e che li utilizziamo per il bene altrui, essendo responsabili davanti a Dio della loro gestione. Dobbiamo anche tenerci in uno stato di veglia costante, aspettando la venuta di Cristo: “Siate pronti, con la cintura ai fianchi e le lucerne accese”. Come i servi non sanno quando il loro padrone rientrerà dal ricevimento di nozze, come un uomo non può sapere quando entreranno i ladri nella sua casa, così noi non conosciamo l’ora della nostra morte, quando cioè Cristo tornerà per noi.
