Palm Sunday of the Passion of Our Lord

(The people's responses in bold represent wording that Pope Benedict had changed in the Mass throughout the world.)

Greeting

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

The Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do,
(And then striking your breast three times)
through my fault,
through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore, I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Priest: Lord have mercy. People: Lord have mercy.

Priest: Christ have mercy. People: Christ have mercy.

Priest: Lord have mercy. People: Lord have mercy.*

(Or any other option the priest chooses. "The Lord have mercy" can be sung as "Kyrie eléison" or the Penitential hymn "Asperges" may be sung.)*

The Prayer of Blessing of Palms by the Priest

There is now the procession down the aisle by the priest to bless the palms. The singer sings the traditional Palm Sunday hymn, All Glory, Laud and Honor, during the procession and blessing by the priest.

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah (IS 50:4-7)

The Lord GOD has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. Morning after morning he opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Responsorial:

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

A Reading from the Second Letter of St. Paul to the Philippians (PHIL 2:6-11)

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Lector: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!

People Only: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory! (Stand)

Lector: Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this,
God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.

People Only: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your spirit.

The Holy Gospel according to Luke (LK 22:14-23:56)

Narrator	The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke. When the hour came, Jesus took his place at table with the apostles, He said to them,	Jesus	in my kingdom; and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Simon, Simon, behold Satan has demanded to sift all of you like wheat, but I have prayed that your own faith may not fail; and once you have turned back, you must strengthen your brothers."
Jesus	"I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, for, I tell you, I shall not eat it again until there is fulfillment in the kingdom of God."	Narrator	He said to him, "Lord, I am prepared to go to prison and to die with you."
Narrator	Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and said,	Jesus	But he replied, "I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me."
Jesus	"Take this and share it among yourselves; for I tell you that from this time on I shall not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."	Narrator	He said to them,
Narrator	Then he took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying,	Jesus	"When I sent you forth without a money bag or a sack or sandals, were you in need of anything?"
Jesus	"This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me."	People	"No nothing,""
Narrator	And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying,	Narrator	they replied. He said to them,
Jesus	"This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which will be shed for you. And yet behold, the hand of the one who is to betray me is with me on the table; for the Son of Man indeed goes as it has been determined; but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed."	Jesus	"But now one who has a money bag should take it, and likewise a sack, and one who does not have a sword should sell his cloak and buy one. For I tell you that this Scripture must be fulfilled in me, namely, He was counted among the wicked ; and indeed what is written about me is coming to fulfillment."
Narrator	And they began to debate among themselves who among them would do such a deed. Then an argument broke out among them about which of them should be regarded as the greatest. He said to them,	Narrator	Then they said,
Jesus	"The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them and those in authority over them are addressed as 'Benefactors'; but among you it shall not be so. Rather, let the greatest among you be as the youngest, and the leader as the servant. For who is greater: the one seated at table or the one who serves? Is it not the one seated at table? I am among you as the one who serves. It is you who have stood by me in my trials; and I confer a kingdom on you, just as my Father has conferred one on me, that you may eat and drink at my table	People	"Lord, look, there are two swords here."
		Narrator	But he replied,
		Jesus	"It is enough!"
		Narrator	Then going out, he went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed him. When he arrived at the place he said to them,
		Jesus	"Pray that you may not undergo the test."
		Narrator	After withdrawing about a stone's throw from them and kneeling, he prayed, saying,
		Jesus	"Father, if you are willing, take this cup away from me; still, not my will but yours be done."
		Narrator	And to strengthen him an angel from heaven appeared to him. He was in such agony and he prayed so fervently that his sweat became like drops of

Narrator	blood falling on the ground. When he rose from prayer and returned to his disciples, he found them sleeping from grief. He said to them,	Narrator	crowed, and the Lord turned and looked at Peter; and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times." He went out and began to weep bitterly. The men who held Jesus in custody were ridiculing and beating him. They blindfolded him and questioned him, saying,
Jesus	"Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you may not undergo the test."
Narrator	While he was still speaking, a crowd approached and in front was one of the Twelve, a man named Judas. He went up to Jesus to kiss him. Jesus said to him,	People	"Prophecy! Who is it that struck you?"
Jesus	"Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"	Narrator	And they reviled him in saying many other things against him. When day came the council of elders of the people met, both chief priests and scribes, and they brought him before their Sanhedrin. They said,
Narrator	His disciples realized what was about to happen, and they asked,		"If you are the Christ, tell us,"
People	"Lord, shall we strike with a sword?"	People	but he replied to them,
Narrator	And one of them struck the high priest's servant and cut off his right ear. But Jesus said in reply,	Narrator	"If I tell you, you will not believe, and if I question, you will not respond. But from this time on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."
Jesus	"Stop, no more of this!"	Jesus	They all asked,
Narrator	Then he touched the servant's ear and healed him. And Jesus said to the chief priests and temple guards and elders who had come for him,	Narrator	"Are you then the Son of God?"
Jesus	"Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? Day after day I was with you in the temple area, and you did not seize me; but this is your hour, the time for the power of darkness."	People	He replied to them,
		Narrator	"You say that I am."
		Jesus	Then they said,
		Narrator	"What further need have we for testimony? We have heard it from his own mouth."
Narrator	After arresting him they led him away and took him into the house of the high priest; Peter was following at a distance. They lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat around it, and Peter sat down with them. When a maid saw him seated in the light, she looked intently at him and said,	People	Then the whole assembly of them arose and brought him before Pilate. They brought charges against him; saying,
People	"This man too was with him."		"We found this man misleading our people; he opposes the payment of taxes to Caesar and maintains that he is the Christ, a king."
Narrator	But he denied it saying, "Woman, I do not know him." A short while later someone else saw him and said,	Narrator	Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He said to him in reply,
People	"You too are one of them";	Jesus	"You say so."
Narrator	but Peter answered, "My friend, I am not." About an hour later, still another insisted,	Narrator	Pilate then addressed the chief priests and the crowds, "I find this man not guilty." But they were adamant and said,
People	"Assuredly, this man too was with him, for he also is a Galilean."	People	"He is inciting the people with his teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to here."
Narrator	But Peter said, "My friend, I do not know what you are talking about." Just as he was saying this, the cock	Narrator	On hearing this Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean; and upon learning that

Narrator	he was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod who was in Jerusalem at that time. Herod was very glad to see Jesus; he had been wanting to see him for a long time, for he had heard about him and had been hoping to see him perform some sign. He questioned him at length, but he gave him no answer. The chief priests and scribes, meanwhile, stood by accusing him harshly. Herod and his soldiers treated him contemptuously and mocked him, and after clothing him in resplendent garb, he sent him back to Pilate. Herod and Pilate became friends that very day, even though they had been enemies formerly. Pilate then summoned the chief priests, the rulers, and the people and said to them, "You brought this man to me and accused him of inciting the people to revolt. I have conducted my investigation in your presence and have not found this man guilty of the charges you have brought against him, nor did Herod, for he sent him back to us. So no capital crime has been committed by him. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him." But all together they shouted out,	Narrator	Jesus over to them to deal with as they wished. As they led him away they took hold of a certain Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country; and after laying the cross on him, they made him carry it behind Jesus. A large crowd of people followed Jesus, including many women who mourned and lamented him. Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep instead for yourselves and for your children, for indeed, the days are coming when people will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed.' At that time people will say to the mountains, 'Fall upon us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!' for if these things are done when the wood is green what will happen when it is dry?"
		Jesus
		Narrator	Now two others, both criminals, were led away with him to be executed. When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him and the criminals there, one on his right, the other on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do."
People	"Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us."
Narrator	Now Barabbas had been imprisoned for a rebellion that had taken place in the city and for murder. Again Pilate addressed them, still wishing to release Jesus, but they continued their shouting,	Jesus
		Narrator	They divided his garments by casting lots. The people stood by and watched; the rulers, meanwhile, sneered at him and said,
People	"Crucify him! Crucify him!"	People	"He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God."
Narrator	Pilate addressed them a third time, "What evil has this man done? I found him guilty of no capital crime. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him." With loud shouts, however, they persisted in calling for his crucifixion, and their voices prevailed. The verdict of Pilate was that their demand should be granted. So he released the man who had been imprisoned for rebellion and murder, for whom they asked, and he handed	Narrator	Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out,
		People	"If you are King of the Jews, save yourself."
		Narrator	Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews." Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds Narrator to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." It was now about noon and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon because of an eclipse of the sun. Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle. Jesus cried out in a loud voice,

Jesus "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit";

Narrator and when he had said this he breathed his last.

Here all kneel and pause for a short time.

The centurion who witnessed what had happened glorified God and said, "This man was innocent beyond doubt." When all the people who had gathered for this spectacle saw what had happened, they returned home beating their breasts; but all his acquaintances stood at a distance, including the Women who had followed him from Galilee and saw these events. Now there was a virtuous and righteous man named Joseph who, though he was a member of the council, had not consented to their plan of action. He came from the Jewish town of Arimathea and was awaiting the kingdom of God. He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. After he had taken the body down, he wrapped it in a linen cloth and laid him in a rock-hewn tomb in which no one had yet been buried. It was the day of preparation, and the sabbath was about to begin. The women who had come from Galilee with him followed behind, and when they had seen the tomb and the way in which his body was laid in it, they returned and prepared spices and perfumed oils. Then they rested on the sabbath according to the commandment.

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ

Please remain standing for the Creed.
(There is usually no sermon on Palm Sunday)

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through Him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven,
At the words that follow, up to and including and became Man, all bow and by the Holy Spirit was Incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became Man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius
Pilate,
He suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Hymns

Entrance & Hymn During the Blessing of the Palms

All Glory, Laud & Honor

Refrain

*All glory, laud and honor,
To Thee, Redeemer, King,
To Whom the lips of children
Made sweet hosannas ring.*

Thou art the King of Israel,
Thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's Name comest,
The King and Blessed One.

Refrain

The company of angels
Are praising Thee on High,
And mortal men and all things
Created make reply.

Refrain

The people of the Hebrews
With palms before Thee went;
Our prayer and praise and anthems
Before Thee we present.

Offertory

Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All

Jesus, my Lord, my God, my all!
How can I love Thee as I ought?
And how revere this wondrous gift,
So far surpassing hope or thought?

Refrain:

*Sweet Sacrament, we Thee adore!
Oh, make us love Thee more and more.
Oh, make us love Thee more and more.*

Had I but Mary's sinless heart
With which to love Thee, dearest King,
Oh, with what ever fervent praise,
Thy goodness, Jesus, would I sing!

Refrain

Thy Body, Soul and Godhead, all!
O mystery of love divine!
I cannot compass all I have,
For all Thou hast and art is mine!

Refrain

Communion

Sweet Sacrament Divine

Sweet Sacrament divine!
Hid in thine earthly home,
Lo! 'round thy lowly shrine,
With suppliant hearts we come;
Dear Lord, to thee our voice we raise
In songs of love and heartfelt praise
Sweet Sacrament divine! Sweet Sacrament divine!

Sweet Sacrament of Peace!
Dear home of ev'ry heart,
Where restless yearnings cease,
And sorrows all depart.
There in thine ear, all trustfully,
We tell our tale of misery,
Sweet Sacrament of peace! Sweet Sacrament of peace!

Sweet Sacrament of Rest,
Ark from the ocean's roar,
Within Thy shelter blest Soon may we reach the shore;
Save us, for still the tempest raves;
Save, lest we sink beneath the waves:
Sweet Sacrament of Rest! Sweet Sacrament of Rest!

Meditation

Judy Ballou

Throughout Lent people have told me that they have enjoyed the Lenten Reflections done by Judy Ballou. Several people have asked me for her email address so they can thank her. Judy will be back at St Peter's for the Holy Week Masses and services. If you see her, I'm sure she'd love to speak with you. With her permission, I have included her email: 'jaballou@earthlink.net'.

Visit Seven Churches in Dutchess County
Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament
From the Mass of The Lord's Supper Into the Night

Join the third year of a Dutchess County tradition of making a personal pilgrimage by visiting seven churches of your choice of the eighteen that offer an Altar of Repose on Holy Thursday, following the Mass of the Lord's Supper.

"Let these three, faith, hope and love abide in you; but the greatest of these is love. And now there remain faith, hope and love, these three; but the greatest of these is love".
- 1 Cor. 13:13

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Salve, Regina

Salve, Regina, Mater misericordiae;
Vita, dulcedo et spes nostra, salve.
Ad te clamamus exules filii Hevae.
Ad te suspiramus gementes et flentes in hac lacrimarum valle
Eia ergo, advocata nostra, illos tuos misericordes oculos ad nos converte.
(brief bow)
Et Jesum, benedictum fructum ventris tui, nobis post hoc exilium ostende.
O clemens, O pia, O dulcis Virgo Maria.

St. Peter's Parish Needlework Group

Do you knit, crochet, quilt or sew? Join St. Peter's new needlework group! Our main focus is to create baby blankets as gifts for babies christened at the Chapel, and we also recently started making prayer shawls. We hope to also share our skills, ideas and experiences with each other. We meet every Wednesday at 9:00 am at the Administration Building located on the cemetery grounds.

Contact: Theresa at TAL150@verizon.net (845) 483-9270 or Gert at GTRANI@optonline.net (845) 229-5561.

Helping Hands: St. Peter's Meal Ministry

Is your family facing a challenge or a crisis? Is someone sick or recovering from surgery?

If so, St. Peter's Meal Ministry wants to help. We are also looking for new members.

Whether you need help, or want to help, we welcome you!

Please contact Margaret Greenly at Love3Labs@optonline.net for more information.

Saint Peter's Parish Prayer Group

The St. Peter's Parish Prayer Group will meet every Thursday at 6:00pm at Our Lady, Seat of Wisdom Chapel, located at St. Peter's School. All are welcome to attend and offer up their prayers and intentions before the Blessed Sacrament in the tabernacle of our Chapel, dedicated to Our Lady. Anyone who can not make it to the meeting, but would like to have their intentions prayed for before the blessed sacrament, please call Carol Speier at (845) 635-8191.
