Holy Saturday Easter Vigil

The Lighting & Blessing of the Easter Fire

This fire is used to light the Easter candle which is symbolic of Jesus Christ who is God. The bible describes God as the Divine Light and that the world was in the darkness of sin before Christ was born.

The Procession of the Easter Candle

As Christ the Light is processed down the aisle the words, "the Light of Christ" is sung three times. Three represents that God is a Trinity of three persons. Respond "Thanks be to God," when the singer sings, "the Light of Christ."

The Easter Proclamation

The singers sing the ancient Easter hymn called the Exultet meaning "rejoice."

The Gloria

GLORIA in excelsis Deo et in terra pax hominibus bonae voluntatis.

LAUDAMUS te, benedicimus te, adoramus te, glorificamus te, gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam, Domine Deus, Rex caelestis, Deus Pater omnipotens.

DOMINE Fili unigenite, Iesu Christe, Domine Deus, Agnus Dei, Filius Patris, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis; qui tollis peccata mundi, suscipe deprecationem nostram. Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris, miserere nobis.

QUONIAM tu solus Sanctus, tu solus Dominus, tu solus Altissimus, Iesu Christe, cum Sancto Spiritu in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

The Opening Prayer

NOTE: Three Old Testament readings are the minimum to be used.

A Reading from the Book of Exodus

(Ex 14:15-15:1)

The LORD said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to go forward. And you, lift up your staff and, with hand outstretched over the sea, split the sea in two, that the Israelites may pass through it on dry land. But I will make the Egyptians so obstinate that they will go in after them. Then I will receive glory through Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots and charioteers. The Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I receive glory through Pharaoh and his chariots and charioteers." The angel of God, who had been leading Israel's camp, now moved and went around behind them. The column of cloud also, leaving the front, took up its place behind them, so that it came between the camp of the Egyptians and that of Israel. But the cloud now became dark, and thus the night passed without the rival camps coming any closer together all night long. Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the LORD swept the sea with a strong east wind throughout the night and so turned it into dry land. When the water was thus divided, the Israelites marched into the midst of the sea on dry land, with the water like a wall to their right and to their left. The Egyptians followed in pursuit; all Pharaoh's horses and chariots and charioteers went after them right into the midst of the sea. In the night watch just before dawn the LORD cast through the column of the fiery cloud upon the Egyptian force a glance that threw it into a panic; and he so clogged their chariot wheels that they could hardly drive. With that the Egyptians sounded the retreat before Israel, because the LORD was fighting for them against the Egyptians. Then the LORD told Moses, Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the water may flow back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and their charioteers." So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea flowed back to its normal depth. The Egyptians were fleeing head on toward the sea, when the LORD hurled them into its midst. As the water flowed back, it covered the chariots and the charioteers of Pharaoh's whole army which had followed the Israelites into the sea. Not a single one of them escaped. But the Israelites had marched on dry land through the midst of the sea, with the water like a wall to their right and to their left. Thus the LORD saved Israel on that day from the power of the Egyptians. When Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the seashore and beheld the great power that the LORD had shown against the Egyptians, they feared the LORD and believed in him and in his servant Moses. Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD: I will sing to the LORD, for he is gloriously triumphant; horse and chariot he has cast into the sea.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Responsorial:

Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.
(Ps 104:1-2, 5-6, 10, 12, 13-14, 24, 35)

Holy Saturday Easter Vigil

A Reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans (Rom 6:3-11)

Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life. For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. We know that our old self was crucified with him, so that our sinful body might be done away with, that we might no longer be in slavery to sin. For a dead person has been absolved from sin. If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as being dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Lector: Alleluia (said once)

People Only: Alleluia (said once)

Lector: Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his mercy endures forever.

Let the house of Israel say, "His mercy endures forever.

People Only: Alleluia (said once)

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke (Lk 24:1-12)

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

At daybreak on the first day of the week the women who had come from Galilee with Jesus took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb; but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were puzzling over this, behold, two men in dazzling garments appeared to them. They were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground. They said to them, "Why do you seek the living one among the dead? He is not here, but he has been raised. Remember what he said to you while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners and be crucified, and rise on the third day." And they remembered his words. Then they returned from the tomb and announced all these things to the eleven and to all the others. The women were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James; the others who accompanied them also told this to the apostles, but their story seemed like nonsense and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb, bent down, and saw the burial cloths alone; then he went home amazed at what had happened.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

Let the mountains skip with gladness, and the joyful valleys ring
With hosannas in the highest to our Savior and our King!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Like the sun from out the wave,
He has risen up in triumph from the darkness of the grave
He's the splendor of the nations, He's the lamp of endless day;
He's the very Lord of glory Who is risen up today!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Blessed Jesus, make us rise

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned

in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do, (And, striking their breast, they say:)
through my fault,
through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore, I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Priest: Lord have mercy. People: Lord have mercy.

Priest: Christ have mercy. People: Christ have mercy.

\(Or any other option the priest chooses to use. If the words Kyrie eléison are used or sung they mean Lord have mercy.)*

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King.
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ,
Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 10:34a, 37-43)

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Easter Sunday, The Resurrection of Our Lord

The Responsorial: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

A Reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Colossians (Col 3:1-4)

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

A Reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians (1 Cor 5:6b-8)

Brothers and sisters: Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough? Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough, inasmuch as you are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed. Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Easter Sequence

Lead by the lector, the entire congregation recites the following prayer immediately after the Second Reading.

Christians, to the Paschal victim offer your thankful praises!
A Lamb the sheep redeems;
Christ, who only is sinless,
reconciles sinners to the Father.
Death and life have contended
in that combat stupendous:
the Prince of life, who died,
reigns immortal.
Speak, Mary, declaring
what you saw, wayfaring.

"The tomb of Christ,
who is living,
The glory of Jesus' resurrection;
Bright angels attesting,
the shroud and napkin resting.
Yes, Christ my hope is arisen;
to Galilee he will go before you."
Christ indeed from death is risen,
our new life obtaining.
Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning!
Amen. Alleluia.

Lector: Alleluia (said once)

People Only: Alleluia (said once)

Lector: Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed;
let us then feast with joy in the Lord.

(Cf. 1 Cor 5:7b-8a)

People Only: Alleluia (said once)

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Easter Sunday, The Resurrection of Our Lord

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John (Jn 20:1-9)

People: Glory to you, O Lord.

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.
