Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

DEALING WITH OLD PALMS

According to the Code of Canon Law (c.1171) blessed items are not to be discarded in a trash can, but treated with respect. Palm branches can be burned or buried in order to properly dispose of them. This type of disposal honors their sacred purpose and returns them to the earth in a dignified way.

GOLDEN JUBILEE MASS FOR COUPLES CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF MARRIAGE DURING 2025

Sunday, June 1, 2025 at 2:30 PM - St. Patrick's Cathedral
His Eminence, Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan - Celebrant

To register, contact the parish office 845-452-8580 to provide your names, address, phone number, email, parish where you were married, and wedding date. Pews will be reserved for Golden Jubilee Couples only. Up to four (4) additional family and friends will be accommodated in pews outside of the reserved section in general seating.

GOOD FRIDAY FASTING AND ABSTINENCE AND EASTER DUTY

Fasting means only one full meal a day may be taken. Two smaller meals may be eaten to maintain physical strength but together they should not equal another full meal in quantity. Snacking between meals is not permitted. The fast is not broken by liquids as long as the liquids are not too nourishing. For example, water, soda, tea, coffee, even with milk and sugar, milk, fruit juices, and even wine and beer are allowed between meals as well as at meals. But, soup, cream, a thick shake, or smoothie, etc. are forbidden between meals. Catholics ages 18- 59, unless afflicted with a serious health issue, are obligated to fast on Good Friday. Those who are not specifically obliged to fast are encouraged to join in the discipline of fasting to the extent that they are able.

Abstinence forbids the eating of meat or poultry, including broth and gravy. More particularly, meat means that which comes from warm-blooded land animals. [Snails, frogs, and snakes may be eaten.] Soups made from meat are forbidden, but Church law allows condiments, even those made from the fat of animals, such as lard and drippings from fat. Milk and cheese are permitted. Catholics aged 14 and older are obligated to abstain on Good Friday. Since the availability of nutritious non-meat foods and vitamins are prevalent in the United States, those who are not specifically obliged to abstain from eating meat are urged to join in the discipline of abstaining. Catholics should consult a priest if they have a doubt on this matter.

The Easter Duty is a precept of the Church binding on all Catholics who have made their first Penance and first Holy Communion. It is fulfilled by a sincere and integral confession and worthy reception of Holy Communion, that is while not conscious of having committed a mortal sin since one's last good confession, and thus, presumably in the state of sanctifying grace. The time to fulfill the Easter duty extends until Holy Trinity Sunday (June 15th).

GUIDE TO CONFESSION

Pray to the Holy Spirit for help to remember your sins. Read through the items on this list and honestly reflect on your behavior for each item. If you committed a mortal sin, try to remember the number of times or, at least, the frequency (ex. a couple times a week over the past two months). If necessary, take this list to Confession to help you remember things. Begin the confession by saying how long since your last confession and your state of life (single, married).

I am the LORD your God. You shall have no other gods before me.

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended You, and I detest all my sins because of Your just punishments, but most of all because they offend You, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of Your grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.
