3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. - Jn 21:12-13

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." He then said to Simon Peter a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." Jesus said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep."

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are really and truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Act of Contrition

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended You, and I detest all my sins, because of Your just punishments, but most of all because they offend You, my God, Who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Your grace, to sin no more and avoid the near occasion of sin. Amen.

OFFICE OF THE CARDINAL

Month of Our Lady
Paschaltide
Holy Year

Dear friends in Christ:

Today I am announcing a special Called by Name campaign to identify faithful young men in our archdiocese who, through God's providence, could have a vocation to the priesthood. The campaign will take place on May 10-11, 2025.

As you know, our archdiocese has a great need for "more workers for the harvest." I firmly believe that our future priests will come from our own parishes and schools, but we need the entire Church to identify them, so that we can accompany them as they discern their vocations.

I invite all Catholics to submit the names of young men that they would like to honor. Note that these men do not need to have expressed a desire to be priests. They simply need to love Christ and the Church, exhibit a strong faith, and have a heart for service.

I will send each one of these young men a letter of congratulations and encouragement, as well as invite them to a special dinner in the summer. In addition, our vocation team will offer support as they discern their vocations, especially by inviting them to join small "discernment groups" and attend various events.

This initiative is near to my heart, and I ask you to participate thoughtfully. And please join me in praying that the Lord will raise up many new shepherds for the Church!

With prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Cardinal Dolan

Statement of the NYS Bishops on State-Sanctioned Suicide Bill

"Euthanasia and assisted suicide are a defeat for all. We are called never to abandon those who are suffering, never giving up but caring and loving to restore hope." – Pope Francis, 2019

On Easter Monday, April 21, Pope Francis ended his earthly journey and entered eternal life. The Holy Father gave us many examples to emulate throughout his life and ministry, even right to the end when he gave us an example of a holy, natural death.

Sadly, the very next day, news reports indicated that the New York State Assembly would take up legislation (A136/S138) to legalize state-sanctioned suicide for those who are diagnosed with a terminal illness. Euphemistically titled the Medical Aid in Dying Act, this bill would usher in a dangerous new era in our state, turning the Hippocratic Oath taken by physicians to "do no harm" on its head and leaving vulnerable individuals – people with disabilities, the elderly, and those in impoverished and medically underserved communities – subject to pressure and coercion to end their lives so as not to be a "burden" to society or an excessive cost to insurance companies.

One only need to look to the example of our neighbor to the north, Canada, to understand the risk. That country passed a similar law to New York's bill in 2016. Within a few short years, it was expanded to allow not only those with terminal illnesses, but also those with "chronic" illnesses, such as arthritis, to end their lives. In 2027, the law is set to expand to those whose only underlying condition is mental illness, such as depression, anxiety or anorexia.

At a time when New Yorkers are rightly concerned with issues such as affordability, crime, homelessness, federal cuts to Medicaid, behavioral health access, and their children's education, it is unconscionable that lawmakers would consider now an appropriate time to legalize suicide for a segment of the population.

Think of the message this sends. Sadly, we are facing a suicide crisis among young people in our state, and the government rightly spends large sums of money to prevent these tragedies and to deliver a consistent message that life is worth living. Now our state will be telling its citizens that some lives – perhaps where there has been a loss of autonomy or a disability – are not worth living. We pray that the legislature reconsiders this disastrous public policy, and we call on Governor Hochul to exercise her veto authority should the bill come to her desk.

– Timothy Cardinal Dolan and the Catholic Bishops of New York State

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS XAVIER

St. Francis Xavier was a Basque and co-founder of the Society of Jesus who spent the last ten years of his life as a missionary priest in India and Japan. He is thought to have written this prayer in Spanish. It was soon translated into Latin and still later into English. Of the three English translators, Edward Caswall was an English convert from Anglicanism to Catholicism who was ordained an Oratorian priest. He is also known for his translated hymns: "Alleluia! Alleluia! Let the Holy Anthem Rise"; "Come, Holy Ghost"; and "Ye Sons and Daughters of the Lord." Gerard Manley Hopkins was an English poet and convert from Anglicanism to Catholicism, was ordained a priest of the Society of Jesus.

Attributed to St. Francis Xavier (1506-1552)

No me mueve, mi Dios, para quererte el cielo que me tienes prometido, ni me mueve el infierno tan temido para dejar por eso de ofenderte.

Tú me mueves, Señor, muéveme el verte clavado en una cruz y escarnecido, muéveme ver tu cuerpo tan herido, muéveme tus afrentas y tu muerte.

Muéveme, en fin, tu amor, y en tal manera, que aunque no hubiera cielo, yo te amara, y aunque no hubiera infierno, te temiera. No me tienes que dar porque te quiera, pues aunque lo que espero no esperara, lo mismo que te quiero te quisiera.

O Deus ego amo Te Nec amo Te ut salves me
Aut quia non amantes Te Aeterno punis igne.

Tu, Tu mi Jesu totum me Amplexus es in cruce,
Tulisti clavos, lanceam Multamque ignominiam, Innumeros dolores, Sudores et angores Et mortem et haec propter me Et pro me peccatore.

Cur igitur non amem Te Mi Jesu amantissime, Non ne aeternum damnes me Nec ut in caelo salves me Nec praemii ullius spe. Sed sicut Tu amasti me Sic amo et amabo Te, Solum quia Rex meus es Et solum quia Deus es.

Gerard Manley Hopkins (1844-1889)

O God, I love thee, I love thee- Not out of hope of heaven for me Nor fearing not to love and be In the everlasting burning.

Thou, thou, my Jesus, after me Didst reach thine arms out dying, For my sake sufferedst nails and lance, Mocked and marred countenance, Sorrows passing number, Sweat and care and cumber, Yea and death, and this for me, And thou couldst see me sinning:

Then I, why should not I love thee, Jesu so much in love with me? Not for heaven's sake; not to be Out of hell by loving thee; Not for any gains I see; But just the way that thou didst me I do love and I will love thee: What must I love thee, Lord, for then? —
For being my king and God. Amen.

Edward Caswall (1814 - 1878)

My God, I love Thee, not because I hope for heaven thereby; Nor yet since they who love Thee not Must burn eternally.

Thou, O my Jesus, Thou didst me Upon the Cross embrace; For me didst bear the nails and spear, And manifold disgrace; And griefs and torments numberless, And sweat of agony; E'en death itself; and all for one Who was Thine enemy.

Then why, O blessed Jesus Christ, Should I not love Thee well, Not for the sake of winning heaven, Or of escaping hell; Not with the hope of gaining aught, Not seeking a reward; But as Thyself hast loved me, O ever-loving Lord? E'en so I love Thee, and will love, And in Thy praise will sing, Solely because Thou art my God,
And my eternal King.

Unknown

O God, I love Thee, love Thee Not for eternal yearnings Nor because those who spurn Thee Shall weep in Hell's deep burnings.

My poor love to acquire Thou sufferdest torments dire The Cross, the nails, the spearing The rabble's ribald jeering The rack of mind and body (My God sweat drenched and bloody!) All this and even dying For me Thy love defying.

How can I help but love Thee then Confronted by love broken. Not for my soul's salvation Not to escape damnation Not for rewards elation But with Love's compensation I love Thee and will love Thee The reason for my loving Thee?
My King my God, Thou lovest me!
