CATHOLIC COUPLE CHECK UP

February 14 is the old Feast day of St. Valentine. He was a Catholic priest who was martyred for his faith in Jesus Christ in Rome in the 200's AD. We don't know too much more about him. Since 1969, Pope St. Paul VI's liturgical calendar celebrates the day as the Memorial of Saints Cyril and Methodius, Apostles to the Slavs. But, many will not forget St. Valentine who is still on the Roman Martyrology.

His name is associated with love. Thus, it is important to remember that Christian love seeks the true good of the other person. True love respects the other person and one's relationship to the person. True love knows that outside of the sacred bond of holy matrimony, a man and woman do not have the right to express love by conjugal activity. And even within the sacrament of marriage, the conjugal embrace should never be dehumanizing, manipulative, or lustful. The ius ad corpus (right to the body) which is effected at holy marriage, must always involve mutual consent of both husband and wife and be open to God's intervention, even if such relations take place in an infertile period month.

Of course, the physical expression of love must be based on the superior love of friendship unto death. In pronouncing their marriage vows before the altar, husband and wife are saying I love you to death so much that like Jesus, I am willing to die for you! For fallen human beings, to keep this love alive and fresh takes work and communication. No matter how good a relationship is, couples are encouraged to make it stronger. One helpful tool in doing so is Catholic Couple Check Up. The Archdiocese of New York requires this online tool for Marriage Preparation. However, it can be used by any couple, even those long married. It is an interactive questionnaire that helps give a snapshot of a couple's friendship, pointing out strengths and weaknesses and providing opportunities for discussion. "Just answering the questions will stimulate thoughts and attitudes about your relationship. It is designed to activate dialogue, discovery, and increase the overall quality of your relationship." The cost is $35. The tool can be found online at The Marriage Group (<https://themarriagegroup.com/>).

CARDINAL'S APPEAL 2026 HAS BEGUN

OUR LADY OF LOURDES

February 11 is the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes which commemorates eighteen apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary's at Massabielle in Lourdes France to 14-year-old Bernadette Soubirous. The first of the eighteen apparitions was on February 11, 1858. On March 25, the feast of the Annunciation, Our Lady told St. Bernadette, "I am the Immaculate Conception" ("Que soy era Immaculada Concepciou."). The miracle working waters still draw many pilgrims to the site.

From a letter from Saint Bernadette Soubirous:

I had gone down one day with two other girls to the bank of the river Gave when suddenly I heard a kind of rustling sound. I turned my head toward the field by the side of the river but the trees seemed quite still and the noise was evidently not from them. Then I looked up and caught sight of the cave where I saw a lady wearing a lovely white dress with a bright belt. On top of each of her feet was a pale yellow rose, the same color as her rosary beads.

At this I rubbed my eyes, thinking I was seeing things, and I put my hands into the fold of my dress where my rosary was. I wanted to make the sign of the cross but for the life of me I couldn't manage it and my hand just fell down. Then the lady made the sign of the cross herself and at the second attempt I managed to do the same, though my hands were trembling. Then I began to say the rosary while the lady let her beads slip through her fingers, without moving her lips. When I stopped saying the Hail Mary, she immediately vanished.

I asked my two companions if they had noticed anything, but they said no. Of course they wanted to know what I was doing and I told them that I had seen a lady wearing a nice white dress, though I didn't know who she was. I told them not to say anything about it, and they said I was silly to have anything to do with it. I said they were wrong and I came back next Sunday, feeling myself drawn to the place....

The third time I went the lady spoke to me and asked me to come every day for fifteen days. I said I would and then she said that she wanted me to tell the priests to build a chapel there. She also told me to drink from the stream. I went to the Gave, the only stream I could see. Then she made me realise she was not speaking of the Gave and she indicated a little trickle of water close by. When I got to it I could only find a few drops, mostly mud. I cupped my hands to catch some liquid without success and then I started to scrape the ground. I managed to find a few drops of water but only at the fourth attempt was there a sufficient amount for any kind of drink. The lady then vanished and I went back home.

I went back each day for two weeks and each time, except one Monday and one Friday, the lady appeared and told me to look for a stream and wash in it and to see that the priests build a chapel there. I must also pray, she said, for the conversion of sinners. I asked her many times what she meant by that, but she only smiled. Finally with outstretched arms and eyes looking up to heaven she told me she was the Immaculate Conception.

During the two weeks she told me three secrets but I was not to speak about them to anyone and so far I have not.

CHICKEN PARMESAN

John Alice Chupay

2 lb. boned chicken breast
bread crumbs

Then put in empty dish. Do remaining breasts. Prepare frying pan - heavy bottomed with canola oil bring to 375° and fry on both sides medium heat about 7-9 minutes on each side.
