POPES NAMED LEO - POPE LEO VI

Pope Leo VI was born in Rome to a Roman Sanguini family in 880. He had been cardinal priest of Santa Susana when he was chosen Pope in May of 928 by Marozia, head of the house of Theophylact, whose second husband, Guy, Marquis of Tuscany had deposed and imprisoned Pope John X.

During his short pontificate, Leo VI approved the Synod of Spalato and brought order to the churches of Dalmatia. He forbade castrati from marrying and sought help against the Arab raiders.

Leo VI died December of 929 and was buried at St. Peter's Basilica.

Month of the Most Precious Blood of Jesus

Dear Friends:

Parishes across the country are preparing to collect for the Black and Indian Mission on July 13, 2026. Here in the archdiocese, these two collections have been combined into one. I ask for your support with this important sign of solidarity.

Your participation will provide the presence of missionaries in parishes, schools, religious education programs and many diocesan projects that strengthen the work of the gospel. Your partnership places bibles and catechetical materials, as well as food, shelter, and medical care, in the hands of priests, consecrated men and women and lay leaders where evangelization efforts are multiplied a thousand-fold. I count on your usual generosity. When you contribute, you join with other Catholics in solidarity with needy.

Your goodness to this combined collection is an act of mercy and charity. I am deeply grateful to you for last year's contribution of $255,975 and ask your kindness once again this year. For more information, you may visit www.blackandindianmission.org.

May God bless you always.

As I remain -

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Ronald A. Hicks
Archbishop of New York

NEW BOOK BY A PARISHIONER

Despite his ill health, Sabato (aka Sam) Fasolino recently wrote a book of short stories. Bedridden for many months now, he is being taken care of by his loving wife, Betty Jane.

Stories to Make You Smile and Giggle

Sabato Fasolino

I have so many more short stories that children will be amazed at their smiles and giggles! This book includes:

"My Secret Hiding Place"

I had to find a place to hide to keep me from hearing my parents yelling at each other constantly. I found a spot under my bed, which truly helped me until I was found.

"The Ring"

Joey found a ring that made him believe in all the positive things he did. How? Joey would turn his newfound ring on his finger, and all things would luckily occur.

"Glenn"

This is about how a child kind of makes his parents believe that he knows exactly what he experiences in his daily life, regardless of his parents trying to get him back to his childhood.

"A Brother for Glenn"

Glenn notices that his mom's belly is getting bigger and bigger as time passes. They finally told him that he was going to be a brother. (He was so happy that he was going to be a brother!) But Glenn discovers after nine months that he was going to have a sister. He, at first, was disappointed but truly came to love his little sister.

"A Is for Aardvark, C Is for Charlie"

Charlie was a really overweight kid. Friends made fun of him, and he was always aware of his big belly. Charlie was chosen by his teacher to be a part of his school play. His voice was extremely beautiful, and he surprised all his classmates. His friend Nora got around in her wheelchair, and Nora and friends helped Charlie to accept himself.

"An Unspoken Hero"

Growing up with my friends, we were waiting around for our prize Philly, Mindy-Blue, to give birth. All of a sudden, there was a thunder tornado by the pond. He wanted to catch the biggest tadpole, so he stayed there until he was forced to come back to the barn. The lightning was so bad that it struck the hayloft door, hitting Jake so badly. We need an unspoken hero to resolve things that are happening!

"Roots"

As a child, I loved my neighborhood, and as times changed, the inner city got worse. I didn't want to be there any longer. Our new place was awesome. Papa bought a lovely home, which we admired. The area started to change like the inner city; the roots have outgrown their pots!

"Decision"

As a child, I was given info to what I should be when I grew up. My mom wanted me to be a priest even though I had a loving friendship with my then girlfriend Darcy. It was difficult, but I headed to the seminary on the bus until I realized that Darcy was my life. She wanted me so and wanted me to change my mind. I did!

PRAYER FOR OUR GOVERNMENT

John Carroll was born in 1735, joined the Society of Jesus in 1753, was ordained a priest in 1761, and ordained the first bishop of Baltimore which as the first diocese in the United States, in 1790, covered what is today the area of the United States east of the Mississippi River. The Church of St. Peter, the first Catholic church in Baltimore built in 1770, became the first cathedral. Bishop Carroll became an Archbishop in 1808 when the Dioceses of Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and Bardstown were erected. He died in 1815. Incidentally, his cousin, Charles Carroll, was the last surviving signer of the Declaration of Independence in 1832.

Bishop Carroll composed the following prayer in 1789 for the inauguration of President George Washington borrowing from the wording of the Roman Missal.

We pray Thee, O Almighty and Eternal God, who through Jesus Christ hast revealed Thy glory to all nations, to preserve the works of Thy mercy; that Thy Church, being spread through the whole world, may continue, with unchanging faith, in the confession of Thy name.

We pray Thee, who alone art good and holy, to endow with heavenly knowledge, sincere zeal, and sanctity of life our chief bishop, Francis, the Vicar of our Lord Jesus Christ in the government of His Church; our own Bishop, N., all other Bishops, Prelates, and Pastors of the Church; and especially those who are appointed to exercise among us the functions of the holy ministry, and conduct Thy people into the ways of salvation.

We pray Thee, O God of might, wisdom, and justice, through whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgments decreed, assist, with Thy Holy Spirit of counsel and fortitude, the President of these United States, that his administration may be conducted in righteousness, and be eminently useful to Thy people, over whom he presides, by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion; by a faithful execution of the laws in justice and mercy; and by restraining vice and immorality. Let the light of Thy divine wisdom direct the deliberations of Congress, and shine forth in all the proceedings and laws framed for our role and government; so, that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of national happiness, the increase of industry, sobriety, and useful knowledge, and may perpetuate to us the blessings of equal liberty.

We pray for his Excellency the Governor of this State, for the members of the Assembly, for all Judges, Magistrates, and other officers who are appointed to guard our political welfare; that they may be enabled, by Thy powerful protection, to discharge the duties of their respective stations with honesty and ability.

We recommend likewise to Thy unbounded mercy all our brethren and fellow-citizens, throughout the United States, that they may be blessed in the knowledge, and sanctified in the observance of most holy law; that they may be preserved in union, and in that peace which the world cannot give; and, after enjoying the blessings of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal.

Finally, we pray Thee, O Lord of mercy, to remember the souls of Thy servants departed who are gone before us with the sign of faith, and repose in the sleep of peace: the souls of our parents, relations, and friends; of those who, when living, were members of this congregation; and particularly of such as are lately deceased; of all benefactors who, by their donations or legacies to this Church, witnessed their zeal for the decency of divine worship, and proved their claim to our grateful and charitable remembrance. To these, O Lord, and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we beseech Thee, a place of refreshment, light, and everlasting peace, through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.
