From the Pastor's Desk

Do you remember the day you became a Christian? It was the day that you were baptized. Perhaps you were only an infant at the time. If so, your parents and godparents made a profession of faith on your behalf. They publically rejected Satan and placed their faith in God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. They also committed to raising you in the practice of the faith. If you entered the Church as an adult, you made your own profession of faith. With your baptismal vows, you promised that you would turn away from evil and strive to live as a faithful member of God's family.

As our lives unfold, we sometimes forget those baptismal promises. We can get caught up in our other responsibilities – family, work, health – and the commitment made on the day of our baptism gets overshadowed. This is one of the reasons that our celebration of Easter is so important. As we remember the Lord's resurrection each spring, we are given the opportunity to renew our baptism. Exercising every ounce of our adult freedom and faith, we say "No" to the influence of sin and say "Yes" to life as a child of God.

Renewing our baptismal promises reorients us to our highest aim: heaven. Jesus died and rose from the dead so that we could become saints; he endured the cross and conquered the grave so we could live with him forever. To renew our baptismal vows is to acknowledge what Jesus did for us and to affirm our desire to be in relationship with God now and forever. On Easter, we confess once again that this relationship is the very foundation of our lives and a privilege that we do not take for granted.

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

Father David Schalk

p.s. I will be away on retreat during the week of Easter. Pray for me!

Answer to last week's question: St. Dismas was the name of the good thief?

This week's question: After Jesus rose from the dead, to whom did he appear first?

The Sisters' Corner

Happy Easter from the Missionary Sisters of the Word! May the Lord show you his mercy throughout the Easter Season.

The sisters invite you to join them for the Novena and Chaplet of Divine Mercy. They will lead the Divine Mercy prayers in the church every day this week. Come to pray in English at 3:00 p.m. or in Spanish at 7:00 p.m.

Parish News

Immediately following Benediction, there will be time for food and fellowship in the church basement. Feel free to bring a dish to share. (This event is bilingual.)

The Knights of Columbus are celebrating their Founder's Day. Father Michael McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus on March 29, 1882, meaning this year is the Knights' 134th anniversary. Desde el Escritorio del Párroco ¿Recuerda el día que se convirtió en un cristiano? Fue el día en que fue bautizado. Tal vez era sólo un niño. Si es así, tus padres y padrinos hicieron una profesión de fe en su nombre. Públicamente ellos rechazaron a Satanás y pusieron su fe en Dios – Padre, Hijo, y Espíritu Santo. También se comprometieron a llevarlo a usted por el camino de la fe. Si usdted fue bautizado como un adulto, hizo su propia profesión de fe. Con sus votos bautismales, prometió alejarse del mal y vivir como un miembro fiel de la familia de Dios.

Mientras nuestras vidas se desarrollan, a veces nos olvidamos de nuestra promesas bautismales. Nos enfocamos en nuestras responsabilidades – la familia, el trabajo, la salud – y el compromiso de nuestro bautismo queda en el olvido. Esta es una de las razones por la cual nuestra celebración de la Pascua es tan importante. Al recordar la resurrección del Señor cada primavera, se nos da la oportunidad para renovar nuestro bautismo. Libremente y con mucha fe, decimos que "No" a la influencia del pecado y decimos que "Sí" a la vida divina que Dios nos ha regalado.

El renovar nuestras promesas bautismales nos reorienta a nuestro objetivo más alto: el cielo. Jesús murió y resucitó para que pudiéramos ser santos; él sufrió en la cruz para que pudiéremos vivir con él para siempre. Al renovar nuestros votos bautismales, reconocemos lo que Jesús hizo por nosotros y afirmamos nuestra voluntad de estar en relación con él para siempre. En la Pascua confirmamos una vez más que esta relación es un privilegio que no damos por hecho

Que el Señor los bendiga durante toda la semana.

Padre David Schalk
