From the Pastor's Desk

This weekend, we hear the whole of the gospel summed up in these words: "Love one another as I have love you." Christ loved us by giving his life for us, and he calls us to do the same. As disciples of Jesus, we find our joy and purpose in pouring out our lives in loving service to one another. Pope Francis' most recent work is entitled "The Joy of Love." He reminds us that love is a demanding enterprise. However, love is the very meaning of human existence. God, who is love, has gifted us with life in order that we might spend it in love.

During these, the busiest days of the year at our church, I am asking a lot from parishioners. Our sacramental celebrations, faith formation programs, and community-building fundraisers would be impossible without you, the members of this community. Please remember our motivation: love. We give our time, treasure, talent, and testimony to support the life of this parish because Christ has called us to love as he did – in a sacrificial way. Thank you for responding to Christ's call and expressing generously your love of God and neighbor.

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

Father David Schalk

Answer to last week's question: There are a lot of excellent Chinese restaurants in Columbus. I prefer Wing's Restaurant, which is on the corner of Main and Gould in Bexley. They are generous sponsors of the Spring Fest each year.

This week's question: The Feast of St. Mark is on Monday, April 25. What is they symbol of his gospel? And where is his gospel symbol found in our church?

The Sisters' Corner

The sisters invite all children from 7 to 11 years old to participate in a children's retreat on Saturday, April 30, in the basement of the church from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. All our children are encouraged to learn more about their faith in our God. (This event is in Spanish.)

The sisters would like to remind everyone that the new Bible Studies have begun. Please join us this Monday, April 25 and Wednesday, April 27 at 6:00 p.m. in the church basement. Bring the entire family! (This event is in Spanish.)

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Este fin de semana escuchamos el Evangelio entero resumido en estas palabras: "Ámense los unos a los otros como yo os he amado." Cristo nos amó dando su vida por nosotros y nos llama a hacer lo mismo. Como discípulos de Jesús encontramos nuestra alegría y propósito gastando nuestras vidas en servicio amoroso del uno con el otro. El escrito más reciente del Papa Francisco se titula "La Alegría del Amor." Él nos recuerda que el amor es una tarea exigente. Sin embargo, el amor es el verdadero sentido de la existencia humana. Dios, que es amor, nos ha dotado de vida a fin de que la gastemos amando.

Durante estos días, los más ocupados del año en nuestra iglesia, estoy pidiendo mucho a los feligreses. Nuestras celebraciones sacramentales, los programas de formación en la fe, y la recaudación de fondos de la comunidad no serían posibles sin ustedes, los miembros de esta comunidad. Por favor recuerde nuestra motivación: el amor. Damos nuestro tiempo, tesoro, talento y testimonio en apoyo de la vida de esta parroquia porque Cristo nos ha llamado a amar como él lo hizo – con sacrificio. Gracias por responder a la llamada de Cristo y expresar generosamente su amor a Dios y al prójimo.

Que el Señor los bendiga durante toda la semana.

Padre David Schalk

Pregunta de esta semana: La fiesta de San Marcos es el lunes 25 de abril. ¿Cuál es el símbolo de su evangelio? ¿y dónde se encuentra el símbolo de su evangelio en nuestra iglesia?
