From the Pastor's Desk

Last week, evil touched the people of France once again. The latest terrorist attack occurred in a Catholic parish in Normandy. Father Jacques Hamel was celebrating Mass when he and five other people were taken hostages by men who were acting in the name of ISIS. Ultimately, Father Hamel was killed and another person was left seriously injured before police took the lives of the aggressors. Archbishop Joseph Kurtz, President of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), offered this message:

Catholic faithful around the world experienced the shock and sadness of this morning's barbaric attack on Saint-Etienne-du-Rouvray in France, as if the loss was in our very own parish. We pray for Father Hamel and his parishioners knowing, as St. Paul stated regarding the Body of Christ, "if one suffers, all the parts suffer with it." (1 Cor 12:26)

The Holy Mass is the most sacred and joyful act we, as Catholics, celebrate. Never are we closer to our Lord Jesus Christ than we are when we receive the Eucharist. No act of desecration – no matter how vile – can obscure the merciful presence of God.

Jesus calls us to be sisters and brothers, to strive to care for one another, and always to reject the evil that seeks to divide us. We give thanks to God for the unforgettable witness of the faithful this morning at Saint-Etienne-du-Rouvray.

We, too, are witnesses of the goodness of our God, who desires to establish his kingdom of life, peace, justice, and love. Our example of faith in Jesus is crucial at this moment in the history of western civilization. Catholics stand in peaceful, prayerful opposition to the violence that has become so prevalent in our world. The Church continues to echo the words of Jesus: "Love your enemies, pray for those who persecute you."

For seventy years, Christ the King Church on the east side of Columbus has shaped minds and hearts in accord with this message of mercy. On the weekend of our parish picnic, we pray for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit in this community of faith. We depend upon the Spirit to make effective our efforts to share Christ's presence. Let us open ourselves to the gifts of the Spirit so that we might be example of Christian love in these troubled times.

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

La semana pasada, el mal tocó otra vez al pueblo de Francia. El último ataque terrorista ocurrió en una parroquia católica en Normandía. El Padre Jacques Hamel estaba celebrando misa cuando él y otras cinco personas fueron tomados como rehenes por hombres que actuaban en nombre de ISIS. Al final, el padre Hamel fue asesinado y otra persona quedó gravemente herida antes de que la policía acabara con la vida de los agresores. El Arzobispo Joseph Kurtz, Presidente de la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de EE.UU. (USCCB), ofreció este mensaje:

Los fieles católicos de todo el mundo experimentaron la conmoción y la tristeza del ataque bárbaro de esta mañana en Saint-Etienne-du-Rouvray, Francia, como si hubiera sido en nuestra propia parroquia. Oramos por el Padre Hamel y sus feligreses sabiendo, como San Pablo declaró con relación al Cuerpo de Cristo, "si uno sufre, todos sufren con él." (1 Cor 12,26)

La Santa Misa es el acto más sagrado y alegre que celebramos como católicos. Nunca estamos más cerca de nuestro Señor Jesucristo que cuando recibimos la Eucaristía. Ningún acto de profanación - no importa cuán vil - puede ocultar la presencia misericordiosa de Dios.

Jesús nos llama a ser hermanos y hermanas que se esfuerzan por cuidarse unos a otros, y rechazar siempre el mal que intenta dividirnos. Damos gracias a Dios por el testimonio inolvidable de los fieles esta mañana en Saint-Etienne-du-Rouvray.

Nosotros también somos testigos de la bondad de nuestro Dios, que quiere establecer su reino de vida, paz, justicia y amor. Nuestro ejemplo de fe en Jesús es crucial en este momento en la historia de la civilización occidental. Los católicos se mantienen en oposición pacífica y orante a la violencia que se ha vuelto tan frecuente en nuestro mundo. La Iglesia sigue haciendo eco de las palabras de Jesús: "Amen a sus enemigos, oren por los que los persiguen."

Durante setenta años, la Iglesia Christ the King en el lado este de Columbus ha formado las mentes y los corazones de acuerdo con este mensaje de misericordia. El fin de semana de nuestro picnic parroquial, oramos por un derramamiento del Espíritu Santo en esta comunidad de fe. Dependemos del Espíritu para hacer efectivos nuestros esfuerzos de compartir la presencia de Cristo. Abrámonos a los dones del Espíritu para que podamos ser ejemplo de amor cristiano en estos tiempos difíciles.

Que el Señor los bendiga durante toda esta semana.

Padre David Schalk
