From the Pastor's Desk

I want to give everyone a quick update on the recent work of BREAD. With the help of Councilmember Elizabeth Brown, BREAD has introduced an ordinance to Columbus City Council that will create more jobs for our neighbors and friends with criminal backgrounds. The ordinance is likely to pass this Monday, July 31, at the City Council meeting. We are happy to see city leaders attentive to men and women who have paid their debt to society and are seeking to rebuild their lives as productive citizens.

BREAD is also seeing progress in our efforts to bring "One ID Columbus" to the city. Councilmember Mike Stinziano has been a tremendous help in this regard. He has drafted legislation that will give all residents in Columbus the opportunity to obtain a picture ID that is recognized by city officials, businesses, and other community organizations. We expect that "One ID Columbus" will further unite our city and make Columbus a more welcoming place for marginalized individuals and families. We will await more news from Councilmember Stinziano in September after he reviews the legislation with the rest of city council.

Please continue to pray for the work of BREAD and our social justice ministry at Christ the King. As Catholics, we are constantly seeking to collaborate with men and women of good will (especially our city leaders!) in building up God's Kingdom in Columbus – a place where all of God's children should be afforded opportunities to flourish.

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

Father David Schalk

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Quiero dar a todos una actualización rápida sobre el trabajo reciente de BREAD. Con la ayuda de la concejal Elizabeth Brown, BREAD ha presentado una ordenanza al Consejo de la Ciudad de Columbus que creará más empleos para nuestros vecinos y amigos con antecedentes criminales. Es probable que la ordenanza pase este lunes, 31 de julio, en la reunión del Concejo Municipal. Estamos contentos de ver a los líderes de la ciudad atentos a los hombres y mujeres que han pagado su deuda con la sociedad y están tratando de reconstruir sus vidas como ciudadanos productivos.

BREAD también está viendo progreso en nuestros esfuerzos para traer "One ID Columbus" a la ciudad. El concejal Mike Stinziano ha sido de gran ayuda en este tema. Él ha redactado la legislación que dará a todos los residentes de Columbus la oportunidad de obtener una identificación con fotografía que sea reconocida por los funcionarios de la ciudad, los negocios, y otras organizaciones de la comunidad. Esperamos que "One ID Columbus" unirá más a nuestra ciudad y hará de Columbus un lugar más acogedor para las personas y familias marginadas. Esperaremos más noticias del concejal Stinziano en septiembre después de revisar la legislación con el resto del ayuntamiento.

Por favor sigan orando por el trabajo de BREAD y nuestro ministerio de justicia social en Christ the King. Como católicos, estamos constantemente tratando de colaborar con hombres y mujeres de buena voluntad (especialmente nuestros líderes de la ciudad!) En la construcción del Reino de Dios en Columbus - un lugar donde todos los hijos de Dios deben tener oportunidades para prosperar.
Que el Señor los bendiga durante la semana.
Padre David Schalk
