ABOUT THE LITURGY: Go, You Are Sent

Last week we looked at the opening of the Mass and the ritual action of gathering. This week, let us examine the very last part of the Mass and what some may call the most important part of the Mass itself: the dismissal.

Our word "Mass" comes from the Latin text of the Mass' final dialogue, Ite, missa est. Some scholars have translated this as, "Go forth, the Mass is completed." Others have it as, "Go forth, the assembly is dismissed." No matter the exact definition of missa, the meaning is clear. The grace we have received and shared in the eucharistic action cannot remain here. It must go forth, and animate us in our daily lives. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal says the purpose of the dismissal is "so that each may go back to doing good works, praising and blessing God" (90).

The abrupt quality of the instructions gives us a sense of the urgency of the dismissal. Go, now! You are sent. Take only what you have been given here, and give it away freely to all you meet this week. Then come back next Sunday rejoicing and giving thanks for all God has done.

TITHING GOD'S PLAN FOR GIVING

Please note that our Bulletin Publisher has requested early submission in order to facilitate the seasonal workload. Therefore, First and Second collections will be posted in a future bulletin.

Thank you for understanding

Our Second Collection each week is for the ongoing maintenance of our Grounds and Buildings.
