MALLIA'S MOMENTS

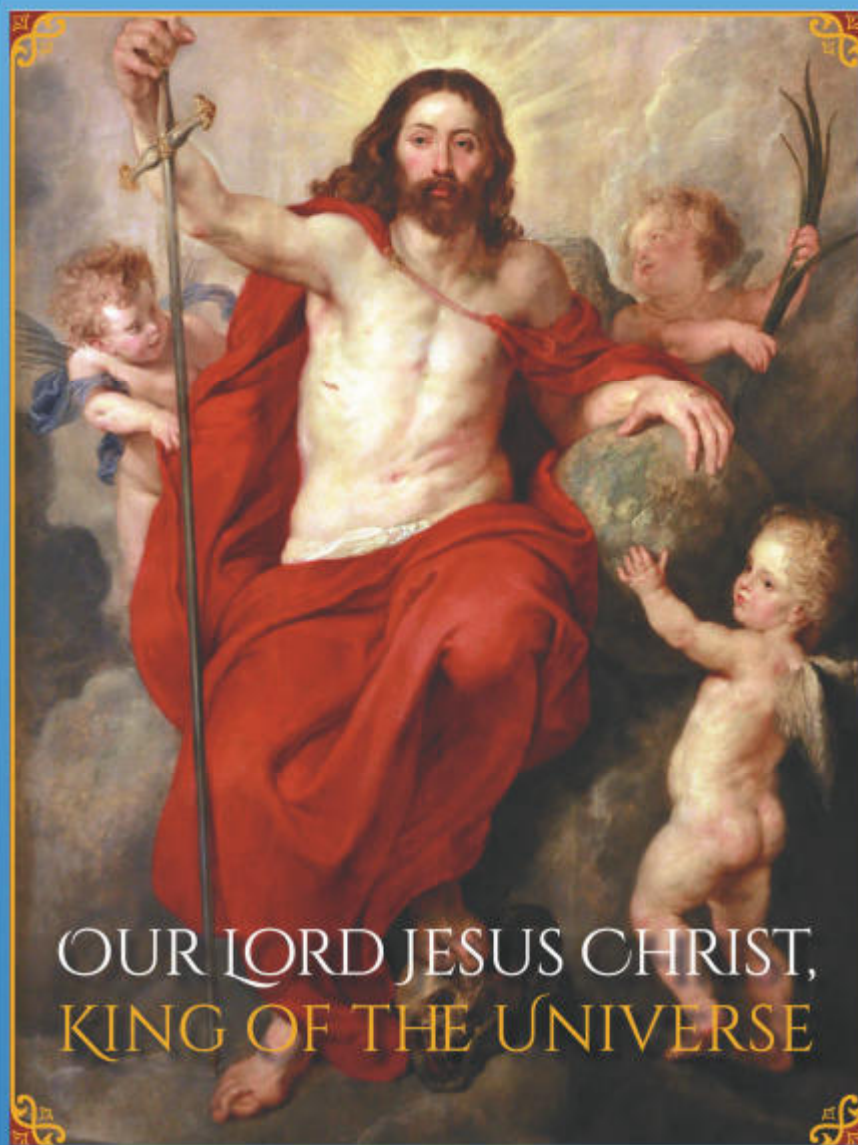

by Fr. Joe Mallia

Happy Feast of Christ the King! For us as believers this is kind of a new year's eve celebration because next Sunday begins a new liturgical season and a new year of grace. We should really celebrate this time. It is a good thing that in this past year we have celebrated a full cycle of reflection on the life of Jesus on earth and we also contemplated the mystery of God's love within our own lives. We shared in the joyful times and we have shared in sad times, but in all of it we have sought out the presence of God. Think about all the service we were able to provide, the education we gave to children and adults, the laughs and outreach to the community through our festivals and the prayers we offered in worship of God. Think about the people we welcomed into the faith through the RCIA this past year and the improvements we were able to make to our buildings all while still improving our overall financial health. There has been so much good that has been accomplished this year that we would be wrong not to rejoice in what God has done for us. It has been a year full of grace and we look forward to a new year of grace as well.

The worst thing we can do is to only focus on negative things. Faith requires us to contemplate the whole of our reality, the good and the bad. The ability to reflect allows us to see where we have been and gives us a clear direction to where we are going. That is why it is so important that at these end of the year celebrations, we take the opportunity to take a deep spiritual breath, understand how God has been active among us and to see where we need to open ourselves up to a more complete cooperation with God. In all that we do and pray let God be praised and may Jesus always be our King. God bless.

Thank you

I want to thank all those who had a hand in making the auction at St. Augustine School such a wonderful event and for the great generosity of time, talent and treasure that people gave to raise money for our school. I am fully aware of the hard work of a few people and I am eternally grateful to them. That being said, we are in need of more volunteers to run the auction. If you attended our school, sent your children here in the past, presently have grandchildren who are attending or you are just a kind hearted person looking for a way to give a better future to children, we need you to help coordinate our auction for next year. Please call the school office for more information. Thank you in advance.

This year again we will be offering a number of masses and penance services during the Advent Season, and of course special masses for Christmas and the feast of Mary the Mother of God, on January 1. This schedule will be in the church paper but also included on the inside flap of the Christmas card that you will shortly be receiving from us. Please post that schedule in a place that you will not forget it. The cards will be mailed out so that you should get them around the first week of Advent. If you don't get a card, please call us and let us know so that we can make sure you are registered with the correct information. If you wish to receive these mailings and are not yet registered, please take the opportunity to register at either parish. All those who are over the age of 18 and are no longer living at home, should register on their own. This is especially important if you are planning on getting married from either parish in the future.

Simple reminder

In case of bad weather during the week, we will cancel mass if the schools are also closed. Please do not venture out if the roads are bad. During the weekends, we always do our best to make sure the parking lots and sidewalks are cleared before mass. Either way, if you are not secure in driving or walking in slippery weather, please use your best judgment about attending mass. If it is bad on Saturday, come on Sunday, or if the prediction is bad for Sunday, come Saturday. I know we all like our routines, but this time of year we are all held hostage by the occasional snow storm.

Please be kind

With the holidays coming up, it is very possible to see a few more people at mass that do not regularly attend. Please go out of your way to make them feel welcome, to move over and make room for them to sit, and to maybe even introduce yourself. I am also urging the ushers to be especially attentive to helping people find a seat. It would be even better if we moved to the front of the church as we arrived so that any late comers do not need to feel uncomfortable by having to walk up front and disturb mass by making everyone move around.

Also, if you have small children, I ask that you please put the carrier under the seat rather than on the pew itself. That is a bit more room we need at some of the masses for people to sit. I do not get upset with crying babies, but I would ask that any toys that are brought to church are soft toys rather than hard toys that make noise when they fall and hit the pews. Thank you.

Finally,

I will be leaving for Malta on November 30th in the evening and be returning on December 10th. I will be going back to celebrate the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. As you know I was appointed a Canon by the Archbishop of Malta several years ago and as such, I am urged to return to the parish to share in the various liturgical rites and to pray with the other Canons. A Canon was is a priest who is part of specially designated parishes by the pope. Those priests used to serve as advisors to the bishop and in case of the death of the bishop or his retirement, would run the diocese until a new bishop was named. That is why a Canon is allowed to wear special vestments during processions and other celebrations that show his connection to the bishop.

This is a special year for the Church of the Immaculate Conception in Cospicua Malta. This year we mark the 75th anniversary of the return of the statue and the titular painting from the church it was taken to during the bombings during World War II. During the war, the harbor area of Malta was heavily bombed because of the location of the British Navy. The priests of the church had the statue and the painting taken by night out of the church to a more remote area of the island for safe keeping. They promised God that if the church was not destroyed during the bombings, they would carry the statue and the painting back. Malta was the world's worst bombed place during the war because of its strategic location. In fact at one point of the war, the total tonnage of bombs that fell in London was falling in Malta every 18 hours. Through the grace of God, although every building around the church and even other churches were destroyed, this one was not. The priests and the population of Malta were faithful to their word and on the 19th of November, they held a procession carrying the statue and the painting back.

While I am gone, I will be praying for you, please pray for me and I will see you when I get back. May the Lord bless you and Mary our Mother intercede for you.

Save the Date!

Most of us live very busy lives, so we take the time to mark the important things – birthdays, holidays, weddings, even doctor appointments – on our calendars.

"I Ain't Afraid of No Ghosts" ~ Fr. Mike Schmitz
<https://youtu.be/RgyX-aLMrGc>

Creator of all things, true source of light and wisdom, origin of all being, graciously let a ray of your light penetrate the darkness of my understanding. Take from me the double darkness in which I have been born, an obscurity of sin and ignorance. Give me a keen understanding, a retentive memory, and the ability to grasp things correctly and fundamentally. Grant me the talent of being exact in my explanations and the ability to express myself with thoroughness and charm. Point out the beginning, direct the progress, and help in the completion. I ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Thank you to everyone who assisted Holy Family's Christian Service Food Pantry with Thanksgiving baskets. With your love and kindness, we served 52 families in the local community this year.

Thank you to the Knights of Columbus #10501, to everyone who donated non-perishable foods and to those who donated turkeys and potatoes.

Thank you to all who helped assemble the food baskets. We could not have done it without you.

Giving Thanks

I like to take the time during the Thanksgiving season with my students before we fill our bellies with turkey, mashed potatoes, and pumpkin pie to fill our hearts with thankfulness and praise to God for all He has given us! We discuss what it means to be thankful and blessed and ways we can show that thankfulness to God.

I am always amazed at their answers and how well they grasp what the real meaning of Thanksgiving is! This year I am truly thankful for a great and supporting group of people to work with, a wonderful class, and my loving family. I wanted to share the great answers my class gave on their giving thanks turkeys.

- ☺ Ethan: mommy, aunts, grandma, grandpa, and daddy
- ☺ Kenadee: mom, dad, my baby, toys, and God
- ☺ Josh: everyone in this class, Cork my stuffed animal, my cat, Legos
- ☺ Skylar: snow, Thanksgiving, food, toys
- ☺ Joey: snowball fights, going on trips, going on the boat with my family, mommy, daddy, my sister, and brother
- ☺ Autumn: my books, my whole family, trees that grow, God doing everything for us
- ☺ Owen: my dog, my family, grandma, grandpa, and my cousins
- ☺ James: Big Jack, Josh, Ella, Jack, Charlie, Star Wars toys, and a dinosaur that moves by itself
- ☺ Lincoln: Granna, Nana, Big Pa, Auntie, Aunt Bay, and turkeys

"Thank you is the best prayer that anyone could say. Thank you expresses extreme gratitude, humility, understanding."
