MALLIA’S MOMENTS

By Fr. Joe Mallia

Today we proclaim the truth that in the Eucharist is present, the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of the Lord Jesus Christ. This truth is based on the words of Jesus himself in the Gospel of John in the sixth chapter and in the Last Supper discourse found in the other three Gospels. This is further highlighted in the writings of St. Paul, where he clearly indicates that the early believers took the words of Jesus literally and this is further testified to by the writings of the early church fathers. From the very beginning it has always been held by those closest of Jesus and those taught by them, that the Eucharist was in fact the bread of life and the cup of salvation; the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Over the centuries others came along and denied this truth. They proposed on their own, with no scriptural backing, that the Eucharist was nothing more than a symbol. Others would later push it to the point of near extinction by not including it in their worship service. All this is contrary to the Scripture and the teaching of the early church.

A further tragedy is that the majority of Catholics today have accepted these false perceptions and also agree that the Eucharist is nothing but a symbol and not the real presence of the Lord. No wonder our faith falters and wanes as we deny even the most basic of essential truths given to us by the Lord himself. No wonder the vast majority see no issue with missing mass on Sunday. After all, it is only a ritual, something to do and they do not see it as an encounter with the real presence of the Lord.

This manipulation of the truth to fit our own wishes and whims has been the cause for the slow and maybe not so slow decline of faithful discipleship in believers. Take for example the impact of how we have allowed sin to be watered down to the point it has no significant impact on our conscience. People rarely go to confession and the false belief that everyone goes to heaven are just signs of how people think evil is “no big deal.”

That is why our Walk with Jesus, this yearly pilgrimage with the Blessed Sacrament through the main road of our two communities, is very significant. Think about what we are doing. We are carrying the Lord Jesus through the heart of our community to show that Jesus must be the heart of our community. Get it! But for Christ to be at the heart of our community, we must be willing to live out a discipleship lifestyle for all to see.

The call to be faithful disciples recognizes that we will not live out a perfect discipleship, since none of us is perfect, but faithful discipleship requires us to make our faith in Christ and the truth he proclaimed, an intentional focus of our lives. Our desire to follow Christ must be at the forefront of our minds and at the center of our hearts. Our Christian faith can no longer be hidden in silence, nor can it be accidental or occasional. It must be witnessed in all of our words, actions and thoughts. It must be lived!

This pilgrimage walk is profoundly significant if it only benefits those of us who believe. It reminds us of a necessary step of discipleship and that is to take Christ out of the church and into the world. So then, open up the doors and let us move forth with a renewed dedication and a heart ready for proclamation. Jesus Christ is present in the Blessed Sacrament; Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. It is true not because we say so, but because He said so. And because He said so, we believe it and we shall live it!

May God be praised this day and always. May the Lord Jesus Christ reign and be found in all the tabernacles of the world and in every heart of all believers. Amen.

RECLAIMING SUNDAY, THE LORD'S DAY!!!

I Am the Living Bread
JN 6:51-58

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us [his] flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

TAKE TIME TO CHAT

Do you realize that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist? How do you prepare to receive him?

What do you think Jesus means when he says, "I am the living bread?"

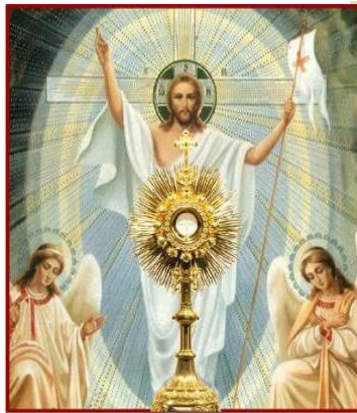

What do you remember from your first holy Communion? If you haven't made your first Communion yet, what do you look forward to about that day?

Attend a Eucharistic Procession

On the feast of Corpus Christi, many churches have Eucharistic processions. A Eucharistic procession is a public witness of the veneration of the most holy Eucharist, conducted through public streets. It takes place in this way: A consecrated host—the real presence of Jesus Christ—is placed in a monstrance, which is then lifted and carried by a priest who leads the faithful in procession. Like a pilgrimage, a Eucharistic procession normally starts at one holy place and ends at another. This earthly journey reminds the Catholic faithful of their spiritual journey toward eternal life with God.

Today, find a local Eucharistic procession and join in! Each year there is a Eucharistic Procession at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral in Detroit. Other parishes have them as well.

Can't make it to a procession? Visit Jesus at an Adoration Chapel. Many parishes have 24-hour chapels for perpetual (or continuous) adoration. As a family, spend time with the Lord in adoration. Spend time in silence, and pray for the needs of your family and friends. Bring a journal to write down anything you hear the Lord speak into your heart.

CORPUS CHRISTI

Thank you to everyone who participated in this year's Corpus Christi procession. Thank you Fr. Joe, Deacon Alan, and all the volunteers who make this event a reality. Everyone from those who set up the walk, the tent / environment, the sound system, prepare and serve lunch, and all the behind the scenes volunteers. Without you, this event wouldn't be a success!!

A PRAYER FOR OUR COUNTRY

O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, at this most critical time, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care.

Most Holy Mother, we beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son. Overwhelmed with the burden of the sins of our nation, we cry to you from the depths of our heart and seek refuge in your motherly protection.

Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of the people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and that threaten the sanctity of family life. Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim that God's law is the foundation on which this nation was founded, and that he alone is the True Source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and pursuit of happiness.

O Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life. Amen.

Mail Call

Q: I have a Protestant friend who criticizes our Catholic literal interpretation of "This is my Body." He says that Jesus also said, "I am the door" and no one takes that literally. How should I answer this objection?

A. Without the benefit of Catholic Tradition, which Protestants also reject, understanding Scripture can be anywhere from easy to impossible for a lay person. More on Tradition a little farther down. With your friend's example, however, one only has to read at the passages in question and apply a little common sense. When Jesus said that He was the door, nobody took Him literally and walked away (John 10:9). Nobody pictures Jesus as wood planks nailed together with a door knob attached.

When Jesus declared that we must eat His flesh and drink His blood, 5,000 people who actually heard his words understood Jesus to be speaking literally. They walked away (John 6:67). Now add to this the fact these 5,000 people saw the miracles Jesus performed and were all just served a free meal from five barley loaves and two fish (John 6:2-12). The all or nothing approach which holds that the Bible is to be read in an entirely literalist way, or that it is all merely symbolic is just not practical. Protestants, too, would reject such an idea. The real question then becomes which texts are to be understood literally, and which texts use symbolism?

When trying to understand Sacred Scripture, we lay Catholics have Sacred Tradition, which is simply the teaching of the Church Fathers from the first century on. These Fathers down through the centuries have universally understood Jesus' words in the 6th chapter of John to be literal. St. Paul taught that Holy Communion is a partaking of the body and blood of Christ and goes on to declare that those who receive it unworthily, not discerning the body and blood of our Lord Jesus, actually sin against the body of the Lord (First Corinthians 11:29).

It is interesting to note the original Protestant reformers did not dispute such things as the real presence, nor did they argue the queenship or perpetual virginity of the Blessed Mother. Protestant denial of these things didn't happen in their movement until later on.

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Intercessory prayer reflects God's own character of outgoing love and mercy. Please pray for the intentions of the following:

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS NEWS

Decrees of the Congregation for the Causes of Saints.

On May 26, 2020, the Holy Father Francis received in audience His Eminence Cardinal Angelo Becciu, prefect of the Congregation for the Causes of Saints. During the audience, the Supreme Pontiff authorized the same Congregation to promulgate the Decrees regarding the miracle, attributed to the intercession of the Venerable Servant of God Michael McGivney, Diocesan Priest. He was born on August 12, 1852 in Waterbury (United States of America) and died in Thomaston (United States of America) on August 14, 1890. Venerable Michael McGivney was the founder of the Knights of Columbus, now the world's largest Catholic fraternal organization. After studies in Canada and the United States, he was ordained to the priesthood by Archbishop James Gibbons in Baltimore. He founded the Knights of Columbus as a mutual aid society, geared especially to working men and their families. He was known for his tireless work among his parishioners. He died at the early age of 38 from pneumonia.

We would like to support Spero Pregnancy Center in Port Huron during these trying times. We will have envelopes in the back of church or you can use an envelope of your own to put spare change in or to simply make a donation. Please return the envelopes by Saturday, June 20th. You can put your donation in the drop box in front of the Life Center. Please write Spero on the envelope. Thank you for your generosity and support.

Prayer During A Health Crisis

Compassionate and Loving Father, In the face of confusion and concern impart to us the calm of your presence. In You allow us to find hope and healing. Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands. Be with those who lead and give them Your Spirit of wisdom. Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart. Wrap your arms around our world and hold us in your love. Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love to all we meet.

We ask this in Your Name. Amen.
