Be Filled with Fr. Phil

Thank You

Thank you for the prayers you offered for the priests and deacons while on convocation. It was good to get together with clergy and be enriched through talks and prayer together. We usually don't see each other that much so it was an opportunity to do a lot of catching up as well. The colors had changed quite a bit up north, and it was certainly beautiful to see.

Thank you also to those who have generously donated candy and other things for the children. They certainly will not be deprived!

Family Directors

I announced last weekend (and plan to do so this weekend) that we are in need of talented, generous individuals who would be willing to volunteer their skills and their time to bolster and enhance our Family. A short summary of the two director positions are listed below:

Director of Engagement

Professional who assists parishioners by equipping them for the service of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. (See Unleash the Gospel, Guidepost 4.); oversees programs that evangelize the evangelizers (Marker 4.1, 4.2) using the process of encounter, grow, and witness; helps parishioners to discern their charisms for ministry (Marker 4.3); leads parish and Family efforts to reach out to unchurched Christians and people of other faiths; ensures effective and responsive communications to all those engaged with or seeking engagement with the Church; oversees RCIA and the radical hospitality for all parish events and programs; develops evangelization initiatives and collaborates with the team so evangelization is integrated throughout the other areas; works closely with the Director of Discipleship Formation and Director of Family Ministries, helping to move individuals and families from the "attract" and "encounter" stages of evangelization into the "grow" and "witness" phases of discipleship formation.

Examples of particular attention to this position include ministry placement, evangelization, communications, and hospitality.

This individual should be passionate about the work of making disciples and supporting the parish mission and vision statements, able to inspire others about all aspects of Detroit Model of Evangelization, and possess some of the following charisms: Administration, Discernment of Spirits, Evangelism, Helps, Hospitality, Leadership, and Teaching.

Director of Evangelical Charity

Professional who ensures a full response to Catholic Social Teaching through charity in areas of human need, both in the parish and beyond, and who works for justice by the promotion and coordination of action to eliminate the causes of human need in our society; ensures all evangelical charity initiatives are based on a person-to-person engagement approach that places a primary value on the integral connection between works of mercy, accompaniment, and evangelization (UTG Markers 6.1, 6.2 and 8.4).

Examples of particular attention in this position include care ministries, bereavement, community outreach, and pro-life ministries.

This individual should be passionate about the work of witnessing to the power of the Lord's mercy to the world, and possess some of the following charisms: Administration, Encouragement, Giving, Healing, Helps, Mercy, Service.

For more information about these two director positions, please visit the parish website.

Indulgence: Praying for the Dead

There is a particular plenary indulgence that can be obtained beginning November 1st to 8th. A plenary indulgence remits the temporal punishment due to sin (purgatory). The indulgenced act during that time involves visiting a cemetery and offering prayers for the dead. The general prescription for obtaining a plenary indulgence apply: 1. Confession (20 days prior or after the indulgenced day), 2. Holy Eucharist, 3. Pray for the Pope's intentions (Remember, the intentions are specific to the office of the papacy, not to the holder of the office. Prayer can consist of an Our Father and a Hail Mary), 4. Be free from all attachment including venial sin, and 5. Carry out the prescribed indulgenced act mentioned earlier. Of course, if any one of these requirements are deficient, a partial indulgence can still be obtained (so it's always worth pursuing). An indulgenced act can only be offered either for oneself or for someone who is deceased. One can only pursue a plenary indulgence once a day; partial indulgences can be obtained without limit.

Mass of Remembrance

Please keep in your prayers all of our brothers and sisters who died this past year from our Family. There will be a Mass on November 1st at 7 PM at St. Mary Mystical Rose and on November 2nd at 7 PM at St. Augustine as well as Holy Family. All are welcome to come and pray for those who have died. Those who do so participate in a spiritual work of mercy.

Fall Cemetery Clean up (St. Michael)

The clean up for the cemetery will take place on November 6th at 9 am. Holy Mass will be offered at St. Augustine at 8 am.

Into the Breach

All men are invited to attend a series that has been put together by the Knights of Columbus called "Into the Breach." It's about what it means to be a man of God living in today's world. The series will take place every Sunday evening during the month of November from 7 PM - 8 PM at the Holy Family Life Center. There is no need to RSVP, just come!

God bless your week.

Praised be Jesus Christ. Happy Solemnity of All Saints and Feast of All Souls' Day.

One thing that we as 21st century American Catholics are lacking today is an understanding of authentic Catholic culture. In Europe each town has its own patron Saint and on that Saint's feast day, the town shuts down and the people celebrate with great festivities. The reality is, in our world today, we rarely focus on these types of "Catholic things" such as feast days, and instead allow modern culture to influence and form how we live our lives.

The Gore of Halloween

One obvious sign of the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls' Days (November 1st and 2nd) is our lack of recognition and response to them today. Halloween, with its gore and "terror filled" haunted houses, has taken precedent over the Solemn Catholic Feasts we should celebrate.

The authentic meaning of Halloween is the Vigil for All Souls' Day. Just as we celebrate Christmas Eve as a solemn entrance into the day of Christmas, so too was October 31st a vigil to enter into the Solemn Feast of All Souls Day. All Hallows Eve, as it was always known as, (Oct 31) began as a reminder to us to pray for our beloved dead and celebrate the saints in Heaven. Unfortunately, now we even allow our own children to dress up as little devils and witches—which is blatantly mocking our Christian Faith.

Celebrating the Days

This year the feast of All Saints falls on a Monday so that we are all able to celebrate this great day as a family together. All Souls' Day, November 2nd, follows. Please see the bulletin for exact Mass times and places. Having three communities and three Masses for these days can become confusing for all of us.

On November 2nd particularly recognize and pray for all the faithful departed from our Family of Parishes—the Family of Jesus' Merciful Love. Pray for their salvation. We entrust them to the Merciful Love of our Savior.

Why Pray for the Dead

It is important for us to continue to pray for those in our lives who have died. We believe that the faithful departed receive judgment from God and that our prayers aid them in the forgiveness of their sins. I have often said to my friends and family: "When I die, don't ever assume that I am in heaven. Pray for my soul. Pray to God that I make it to purgatory." Our prayers for the dead this day are important and we gather especially for you who have lost loved ones this past year.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Don't Forget

Please mark your calendars for November 13th—our indoor clean up at St. Mary Mystical Rose. All are invited: young and old.

Lastly, I will be handing out candy from the church at St. Mary's and Fr. Phil will be at St. Augustine. Send the kids our way!!!

Mail Call

Q. I really enjoy celebrating Halloween. I would like to know what the official position of the Catholic Church is on celebrating this holiday.

A. I am not sure if Halloween is an actual holiday. I am equally unsure whether the Catholic Church has ever taken a position (official or otherwise) on celebrating Halloween. I have not found anything to that effect. Therefore, perhaps we are free to draw our own conclusion based on "unofficial" observations and conjecture?

Christianity's attitudes towards Halloween are quite diverse. Many see Halloween as having strong Christian roots. In the Anglican Church, some dioceses have chosen to emphasize the Christian aspects of these traditions, while other Protestants celebrate Halloween as Reformation Day, a day of remembrance and prayers for unity. Still other Protestant denominations condemn Halloween as being evil or satanic.

Although St. Paul never heard of Halloween, he gives us guidelines for a variety of similar situations in the 14th chapter of Romans. We are to follow our conscience on such matters while at the same time being careful not cause others to lose faith by a bad example we might set. The Catholic Church ascribes no negative significance to Halloween, treating it as a purely secular observance devoted to imaginary and handing out candy.

Halloween celebrations are quite common among Catholic parochial schools. Furthermore, Father Gabriele Amorth, a Vatican-appointed exorcist in Rome, has said, "If children like to dress up as witches and devils on one night of the year that is not a problem. As long as it is just a game, there is no harm in that."

Any holiday is what we make of it. If our intention is to pay homage to satanic forces, that would be a grave sin any day of the year. The things of utmost importance are our motivation in the observance, how we conduct ourselves while participating and how our words and actions may negatively influence others.

Our Halloween traditions in the U.S. could actually be considered as a ridicule of evil rather than a celebration of it. Although today's celebrants tend more to dress up as super heroes, cartoon characters, historic figures and such, even those who are decked out as some sort of ghoul do so in fun, not in honor of any dark forces. Door to door trick or treating is giving way to more trunk or treat type events. One big reason for this development is the safety of our children. There are some sick people in this world who would do harm to the children who come to their door. Therein lays the real evil in Halloween.

Walking with Mom's in Need (WWMIN)

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, founder of and organizer of WWMIN, has asked all local parishes to help pregnant and parenting Mom's in difficult circumstances.

St. Augustine Christian Service has taken on this task of getting the message out to everyone that you should know how to help a local pregnant and/or parenting Mom in need. Our first step has been to place crisis cards in all the bathrooms located at St. Augustine, Holy Family, and St. Mary Mystical Rose. If you notice that these cards are low or empty, or a bathroom was missed and needs a set of cards, please let me know. St. Augustine Christian Service is working on other ways to help 'Mom's in need' and we will let you know when we will institute this in the future. If you know any Mom that is in need, please refer them to the crisis cards or me and I will refer them to the help they may need.

Thanks for 'Walking with Mom's in Need'

Rosary Rally at St. Augustine a Success by Pete Romano

38 people attended the Rosary Rally at St. Augustine on October 16th.

Something very spiritual happened that I would like to share with all of you. A couple arrived late and after prayers ended and I explained what the rally was about, and that a rose would be presented to our Lady. They told me they were riding by and saw us and decided to stop. He said his mother died yesterday and that her name was Rose. I believe two roses will be given to our Lady, a flower and his mother.

Father blessed the couple and gave them a rosary. I was very blessed that this happened. Looking forward to next year.

Thank you
to all who participated.

Firsts in First Grade

by Hannah Burke
First Grade Teacher

To begin, I would like to introduce myself to those who I have not had the pleasure of meeting yet. My name is Hannah Burke and I'm so blessed to be teaching first grade at St. Augustine. Since I can remember, I wanted to be a teacher, however, like most people, I never expected to be navigating my career during a pandemic. I still remember receiving an email from Wayne State University that classes were changed to online courses and student teaching partnerships were also going to be completed virtually. As impossible as that idea was, I completed a year of student teaching from behind a screen and graduated in May 2021. Even though student teaching and graduation looked much different than I expected, the school year looked different for our students as well.

Something that has brought new understanding to me throughout the pandemic and beginning my career is that my students and I have had similar experiences. During a time of so many unknowns, I never realized that one day, God would lead me to students that also faced similar challenges. Currently, I have 20 first graders in my class that never had a "normal" year of school. They have learned to go to school through the pandemic just like I have learned to teach in a pandemic.

This journey has brought many exciting experiences to my classroom. To highlight one of these experiences, last week on October 15th, the first and second grade classes went on a field trip to the Pine River Nature Center in Goodells. This was the first time that I was able to go on a field trip as a teacher, but more importantly, it was the first time that our students were able to experience a field trip. We had a wonderful day and our students received such an enriching experience to further understand plants and animals in the world around us.

I always pictured myself working in a large public school district, however, I believe there is always a reason that the Lord points us in a specific direction. The community of St. Augustine has been such a great place to work. This environment has not only helped me to grow in my teaching practices but also grow spiritually. Being a young teacher can be very challenging and something that is a great advantage of working at St. Augustine is the community of faith around me. I'm so excited to continue working in this community and growing in my faith over the next year.

What does it mean to have a Mass "offered" for someone?

An individual may ask a priest to offer a Mass for several reasons: for example, in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as on a birthday), or, as is most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died. One must never forget the infinite graces that flow from the Sacrifice of the Mass which benefit one's soul. Pope Leo XIII in his encyclical "Mirae caritatis" (1902) beautifully elaborated this point and emphasized the connection between the communion of saints with the Mass: "The grace of mutual love among the living, strengthened and increased by the sacrament of the Eucharist, flows, especially by virtue of the Sacrifice [of the Mass], to all who belong to the communion of saints."

When a priest offers Holy Mass, he has three intentions: First, to offer the Mass reverently and validly in accord with the norms of the Church. Second, to offer the Mass in union with the whole Church and for the good of the whole Church. Third, to offer the Mass for a particular intention, such as the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

The special personal fruits of the Mass benefit the celebrating priest who acts in the person of Christ in offering the Mass and to the people who are in attendance and participate in the offering of the Mass. These fruits are both extensively and intensively finite, since each of us is finite. Therefore, the more a Mass is offered, the more benefit is conferred.

Holy Family's Prayer Blanket Ministry

Holy Family's Prayer Blanket Ministry is a ministry of helping hands that constructs prayer blankets of all types. As a Ministry group, we pray together and we pray over all the completed blankets, petitioning God for His blessings and healing for the blanket recipient all in the name of God's unending love.

We meet on the first and third Wednesday of each month from 12:00 pm to 3:00 pm in the Life Center. Anyone who can sew, use scissors, thread needles, use an iron, crochet, knit or would like to just spend some time, is welcome to join us. We rely on donated material, thread, batting and any sewing items.

To learn more please contact Linda Browe at 586-202-8030.
