From Fr. Mark Livingston

There is an experience in the spiritual life that changes, even annihilates in a pure and beautiful sense, your senses and will. It's a true encounter with the Living God that makes you want to give up everything material you thought was of value in this life and follow the Lord. All other consolations of earthly life pale in comparison. You have met the Lord of Glory himself. You have encountered Peace that you never thought was possible. You have experienced Rest that you did not know you needed. You have the certitude of faith that opens every door and dispels every anxiety and fear. Everything is different from that day forward. No drug or new relationship, no new material item will ever come close to matching what you have experienced in the Lord. What St. Augustine said so many years ago is true, "My heart was restless until it rested in you [Lord]." When this true, lasting and beautiful revelation of Jesus happens, our proper and appropriate response is to bow down to the ground before him. It's all we can do. It's all we want to do. We might call this a theophany, or an experience of the revelation of God, also known as a "mountaintop experience."

There are many mountaintop experiences recorded in scripture and in the writings of the saints. Elijah experienced it on Mount Carmel, Moses on Mount Sinai, and Peter, James and John on Mount Tabor (with Jesus' Transfiguration). There are many more. They go to the mountain to be alone (not lonely) in solitude with the Lord, to experience his presence and gentle calm, receive his rest, and hear his voice, listening for the "tiny whispering sound" or the "still small voice." God isn't often flashy, found in the "wow" experiences of fireworks, violent storms, and distraction. He is most clearly found in the quiet stillness of prayer. Remember the effect he had on the storm in the Gospel this weekend? He calmed it. He calms us; reminding us to "Be not afraid" because he is with us. He wants us to experience rest in and through him. This is why people go on retreat, away from the world—to pray, listen, receive graces from God, and respond appropriately.

It's a loud world and our hearts really long for the silent stillness and rest that only God can give. But, God doesn't just meet us on retreats and in hours of adoration, rather, he meets us everywhere if we are open to hearing his still, small voice, even at work and in the activities of daily life. We often aren't prepared to hear him. We have our ear buds in constantly, or staring at our phones, or need to talk constantly about subjects with anyone who will listen. Maybe God's just calling us to listen in prayerful silence to him and each other.

Is it time for you to take a retreat? There are men's, women's and couple's retreats offered at local Catholic retreat centers, like Manresa, Columbiere, and St. Paul of the Cross. There are retreats for teens and people discerning their vocational call in life. There are retreats for people who have suffered loss, others who need to experience healing after abortion, and still others who want healing in another aspect of life. Maybe we should start an annual retreat for people in our Family of Parishes? Outside of retreats, when do you spend time with Jesus in adoration, letting him look at you and you look at him in silent stillness? When you are in a crowded place, can you still have stillness in the "monastery of your heart," knowing that God is with you and you can converse with him even in the middle of the activity of a local fair, big family gathering, or busy service project? Carve out time in your daily scheduled to pray. It doesn't have to be a dedicated hour, but maybe it could be. Jesus is waiting to calm your storm and give you peace. Our natural response to his incredible goodness and love is to worship him.

God bless,
Fr. Mark

Q. Why did the Catholic Church change the title of the Book of the Apocalypse to the Book of Revelation? Didn't Martin Luther remove this book from the bible because it was not inspired by God and impossible to understand? Why has the Church allowed this book to remain in our bible?

A. Luther removed several books from the bible; the Book of the Apocalypse was just one of them. It was written by the Apostle John. Most scholars believe he wrote it sometime shortly before 70 AD, just before the destruction of Jerusalem. The word "apocalypse" simply means revealing or unveiling. In reality the words revelation and apocalypse have the same meaning.

In our society however, the word has morphed to be misunderstood as calamity or disaster on a grand scale, a holocaust.

It appears the Holy Spirit had a two fold message in writing this book through John. First, was to encourage Christians to remain faithful during this time of horrible persecution. Second, to warn them of things that would "soon" come to pass (Revelation 1:1).

John describes a vision of his being caught up into heaven "on the Lord's Day" (Sunday). He witnessed the very same mass being celebrated in heaven as they celebrate here on earth. Now that had to be enormously encouraging to Christians who risked being fed to lions if caught attending mass. The early Church, established by Jesus, had a full understanding of the meaning of the symbols, numbers and imagery John used. The Church was not only familiar with the symbolic language, she was the intended recipient. If, however, his letter fell into Roman hands, its message would not be understood.

In 70 AD Roman forces destroyed the Temple and burned Jerusalem to the ground. Thousands of Jews were slaughtered. Bible scholars believe there is archeological evidence to suggest that Christians, heeding John's warning, left

2nd Monday of each month at Holy Family Parish

"Ultreya" is a Spanish word, derived from the original Latin, meaning Onward! It was commonly used by pilgrims to greet and encourage one another along the way.

This word is now used by the Cursillo community to signify the meeting which is held after a Cursillo experience. It provides continuity by contributing to the maintenance of the Cursillo spirit and by revealing the reality of the living Church.

Even though you may have never experienced a Cursillo weekend, join us for our next Ultreya Monday, August 14, 2023 at 7:00 p.m. in the Life Center

St. Augustine Catholic School spreads the Good NEWS by Navigating a Christian course, Educating body, mind and spirit, Worshipping the Lord, and Serving others.

St. Augustine 8th grade students share memories of their time at St. Augustine School. Each week through the summer, the bulletin will feature an essay or two from our newest alumni, the 2023 eighth grade graduates of St. Augustine Catholic School.

8th Grade Graduation Essay

By Stella Grace
8th Grade Student

At the end of second grade, I found out I had to switch schools. I felt like the world was ending. Little did I know that a new world for me was about to begin. I was sad and also very scared to switch schools. I couldn't imagine my life without my best friend and my current classmates. On the last day of school, my friends and I said goodbye with heavy hearts. Then, when the end of summer came, I knew my life was about to change.

On my first day of third grade at St. Augustine, I only knew a few kids from my old school. My new class seemed so big and scary, but my classmates were very kind and welcoming. My teachers kept making sure I was adjusting well. I soon grew to love St. Augustine. I not only felt welcome by the school, but the church as well. In fifth grade, my brother and I decided to become Catholic. We had always gone to Catholic school, and faith was a big part of our lives. My brother and I were baptized at St. Augustine. After that, I entered middle school at St. Augustine. I was very nervous again. On my first day of middle school, I realized that it was not scary at all. Middle school was a lot different than elementary school, but I really liked it. For me, middle school was exciting. Switching classes made the day go by faster, and having different teachers for each subject made the lessons more interesting. My eighth grade year was probably my favorite year at St. Augustine. Being the oldest class at the school was fun and rewarding. In eighth grade, I made a lot of memories that I will never forget.

From my first day at St. Augustine in third grade to my last day in eighth grade, I have grown a lot. I have also learned important lessons about my faith. During my years at St. Augustine, I have grown in my faith, grown in academics, and made many new friends. Even though I was scared to come to St. Augustine, the teachers, students, and priests made me feel welcome and changed my life forever. I am thankful for my time at St. Augustine and will never forget my years here.

Student Blessing August 26 & 27, 2023 at All Masses

(backpacks optional)

Sometimes we forget about the importance of being blessed and blessing others. As parents, we can and should bless our children. The responsibility we hold as parents should lead us and our children to a deeper understanding of what it means to be a disciple of Christ; to love, follow, trust and serve Him by serving others.

Every time we come to mass, we are blessed, yet on occasion certain people are blessed in a very special way. Prepare your children ahead of time by explaining that when they are blessed in Church, it's a little different than when you bless them at home. Help them understand that priests stand in for Christ and so it will be Jesus himself blessing them to give them all they need for the upcoming school year: patience, knowledge, understanding and peace.

As they struggle with schoolwork this year, remind them of their special blessing and that God is right there to help, they need only to ask Him.

We look forward to seeing your entire family as your students are blessed!

A GIGGLE AND A GRIN

During his summer vacation, the new Catholic high school teacher injured his back and had to wear a fiberglass cast under his shirt around his upper body.

On the first day of school he was having a hard time keeping the boys, especially Little Jonnie, quiet. So he opened a window until a breeze made his tie flap over his shoulder. Then he walked calmly over to his desk, picked up a big stapler, and stapled the tie to his chest.

No boy in the class, even Little Jonnie, was ever inattentive again.

Richmond Good Old Days 8th Grade Parade Float

Our St. Augustine 8th Graders are hard at work creating a float for the Richmond Good Old Days Parade on Sunday September 10th. They are accepting donations of wrapped candy to toss to kids, young and old, along the parade route. You may drop off your donation at any parish office and it will make its way to the school. Thank you!

Family of Parishes Collecting School Supplies

DID YOU KNOW that our Family of Parishes is collecting school supplies for all of the Pantry guests within our family? Please consider donating an item or two for a family in need. Items may be dropped off at any parish in the collection boxes. At St. Augustine, a box will be located near the ramp doors. At Holy Family, a collection box may be found at the back of church, and at St. Mary Mystical Rose a box is located in the lower Narthex next to the women's restroom. Distribution will take place first week in September. Please contact faith formation with any questions. God bless, the city before the Roman siege began. Scott Hahn's research leads him to believe that no Christians died in this holocaust. They did indeed understand the message in this letter from the Apostle.
Kim

John wrote this letter in a style known as Apocrypha which was most common in the 400 year period between 200 BC and 200 AD., but dates back to 1,800 BC. The images and symbols he used were known to the recipients because they were drawn from the Old Testament, ancient Jewish writings and folklore. Yet, if the letter fell into the hands of the Romans, they would not understand the message.

There are four methods used to interpret the Book of Revelation:

Prederist is a description of only past occurrences. Historistic illustrates various stages of Church history. Futurist describes only what is yet to happen in the end times. This is the most common view today. It is, however, condemned by the Church as a heresy. Idealist is the view held by most Church Fathers. This view contends the book is a description of the on-going spiritual struggle that every Christian and the Church faces in every generation, which will culminate with the second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. There is a fifth method which is a blend of all of the above.

Finally, we can be thankful that the Holy Spirit guided this Church when assembling the canon of Sacred Scripture. In so doing, we have the Book of the Apocalypse from which to draw much encouragement. The revelation that the battle has already been won against evil is illustrated here more than in any other book in the bible. How could anyone, who understands the message, not recognize this is truly a Holy Spirit inspired book? As for why the Church has not removed the Book of the Apocalypse from our bible? I think the answer is clear. The Holy Spirit is at the helm keeping the Church from making such blunders.

Christian Campout!

When: September 8-9

Where: St. Mary Mystical Rose Parking lot

What to bring: A tent, a camper or even a blanket or a bag to sleep out under the stars

Why: For the fun of it! Gas is expensive, campsite reservations are hard to get and who likes driving for hours towing a camper?

Why not enjoy the great outdoors and your parish family at the same time? Holy Family, St. Augustine and Mystical Rose parishioners are invited to our second-annual parish campout in the St. Mary Mystical Rose parking lot. Lots of fun events and activities are planned including:

- Volleyball
- Cornhole games
- Movie night for the kids
- A talk by Deacon Alan
- A blessing of tents and campers
- Potluck dinner
- Stations of the cross
- Stump the clergy challenge
- Evening bonfire and storytelling
- Breakfast available Saturday morning

Wisdom of the Saints

"Isn't it absurd to send children out to jobs and to school, and to do all you can to prepare them for these, and yet not to 'bring them upon in the chastening and admonition of the Lord (Eph. 6:4)?"
Discipline is needed, not eloquence; character, not cleverness; deeds, not words. These gain a man the kingdom."

-St. John Chrysostom
