From Fr. Mark Livingston

I hope everyone is having a great weekend! God bless you! The power to bind and loose, that is, to teach and interpret the Word of God handed down to us in divine revelation, has been passed down to the pope and bishops by apostolic succession. They teach in the Catechism of the Catholic Church that we receive the whole Jesus in the Eucharist and the whole Jesus in the cup. We do not need to receive under both species to receive the whole Jesus. While it is not necessary to receive Jesus under both species (Body or Blood) in the Eucharist to receive the whole Jesus, it is the fullest sign to do so. In the Body alone, we receive the full Jesus—Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. The same is true of receiving the Precious Blood from the cup alone. Let's talk about the Precious Blood in Mass.

While there are three permitted ways to receive the Precious Blood—drinking directly from the cup, by intinction, and by a tube or spoon (Redemptionis Sacramentum 103)—the most ancient and even original way of receive the Precious Blood was to drink from the one cup together. During COVID and the years immediately following, our community began the practice of distributing the Eucharist by intinction. This is an uncommon form of Eucharist distribution and reception and is typically done in parishes after having received the permission of the Bishop, though it is not technically required to do so. Communicants' self-intinction is not permitted (Redemptionis Sacramentum 104) and intinction may only be administered by a priest.

In the Old Covenant sacrifices, reference is made to the life of the victim (flesh) being in the blood (Leviticus 17:11). The priest offers the sacrifice ... of the life of the victim (not the death). To offer the sacrifice, the blood (life) of the victim must be separated from its body. In the case of Jesus, he is both the Victim and the Priest. He is offered as the victim and, as the True High Priest, he offers himself freely to accomplish the will of the Father. If the life of the Old Covenant victim (typically a lamb, bull, goat or dove) is in the blood to atone for sins and Jesus is the Victim (and Priest) of the New Covenant, then when we drink his Precious (Life) Blood, we drink in his very divine life! The blood of the Old Covenant sacrifices was splashed on the altar and sprinkled on the people, so that the life (blood) could atone for our death (sin). We are no longer covered by the life blood of an insufficient animal victim, like the doorposts of the Israelites in Egypt at the Passover, but our lips are now purpled (the “doorposts” of the New Covenant) by the Precious Blood of Jesus which gives us super abundant life in our bodies and our souls. This is why Jesus said, “Unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood, you do not have life within you” (John 6:55). This is true of the spiritual life and of the fulfillment of the Old Covenant sacrifice. We drink from the one cup which contains infinite life—the Precious Blood of the Unblemished Lamb of God!

When reasonable, the Precious Blood should be offered to the faithful at Mass. Procedures (and education) should be in place to ensure that the safety of and reverence towards the sacred species' of both Body and Blood are secured. We eat the one Body and drink the one Cup for our salvation with great reverence.

What is the best way to receive Jesus in the Eucharist at Mass? With a heart and mind fixed on the unity and peace of Christ, in communion with each other, as we all partake of His Body and drink of His supernatural, life-giving Precious Blood.

God bless,
Fr. Mark

Also, October is the month of Mary and the Rosary. Let's double down our efforts with the Lord to pray for peace, especially with the war in Israel and the surrounding region, and the unrest around the globe.

Mary, Undoer of Knots, pray for us!

Plenary Indulgence November 1st through 8th

In Catholic Church teaching, a grant (loosing, rather than binding) may be extended by the Pope for the remission of the temporal punishment in Purgatory (i.e., time spent in Purgatory) due for sins after absolution in sacramental Confession. This is called an indulgence (leniency), which can be plenary (full) or partial. The souls in Purgatory are assisted by the prayers of the faithful because they can no longer merit progress towards God by trust/faith shrouded by the veil of earthly life; they now have clarity, having met and experienced God. The effect of obtaining a plenary indulgence is the elimination of all temporal punishment in Purgatory, thus guaranteeing that the deceased person immediately enters heaven. The effect of obtaining a partial indulgence is the shortening of time in Purgatory, but not a complete elimination of it, unless your offering was the last leg of their journey in Purgatory.

The Catholic Church offers these indulgences--plenary and partial--on various occasions throughout each liturgical year. One of these occasions is the period from November 1st through November 8th each year. At this time in the liturgical calendar we pray in thanksgiving to God for the saints on Nov 1, All Saints Day, and ask for their intercession for us and, the next day, we pray for the deceased who are not yet confirmed as saints, on Nov 2, All Souls Day. Recognizing the need for us to pray for the dead and the deceased souls' reliance on us to pray and offer sacrifices for them to assist them into heaven more quickly, the Church offers a plenary (full) indulgence to one soul in Purgatory of your choice each day from November 1 through November 8. This will be satisfied by devoutly visiting a cemetery (it is not specified that it must be a Catholic one) and praying for the dead (in any way and for any duration). Also, within that same time frame, on November 2nd, All Souls Day, individuals may additionally devoutly visit a church or an oratory and recite an Our Father and the Creed and receive a plenary indulgence for the soul of one deceased relative. Essentially, during the time of November 1-8, you can free 9 souls from Purgatory by your prayer in action, one per day with two souls on November 2nd.

Here are the Church's requirements:

- Have a particular person/ soul identified each day or occasion for whom to offer this spiritual gift and work of mercy.
- Perform the indulged work by:
 1. Visiting a cemetery any or every day from November 1-8 and praying, if only mentally, for the deceased, and/ or
 2. Devoutly visiting a church on November 2, praying the Our Father and the Creed (the 7 PM Mass of Remembrance is a great opportunity to fulfill this)
- Complete the normal requirements to properly dispose yourself several days before or after the indulgenced work day:
 1. Be free from all attachment to sin, even venial sin.
 2. Go to sacramental confession.
 3. Receive Holy Communion in a state of grace (ideally on the same day as the indulgenced work).
 4. Pray for the intentions of the Holy Father by at least one Our Father and one Hail Mary or any other prayer according to individual piety and devotion (ideally on the same day as the indulgenced work).

Mass and Fall Clean Up at St. Michael Cemetery

November 4th
Mass 8:15 a.m.
Cemetery Clean Up
9:00 a.m.

November is the month in which Catholics remember those who have joined the Communion of Saints. In order to keep Saint Michael Cemetery a beautiful and dignified resting place for the deceased members of our parish family, it requires a cleaning twice a year. Following 8:15 a.m. mass at Saint Augustine, on Saturday, November 4 (November 11 in case of rain), the annual fall cleaning of Saint Michael Cemetery will take place. The clean-up will begin at 9:00 a.m. All debris and dried foliage will be removed, and trees and shrubs will be trimmed as well. This will prepare the cemetery for the placement of winter decorations, i.e., grave blankets, wreaths, etc. For the past few years, a good number of parishioners volunteered, which made the task much easier! If you are able to join us to help clean our beautiful cemetery on Saturday, November 4, it will be greatly appreciated. Please wear appropriate shoes/boots and bring your work gloves, rakes, shovels, wheel-barrows, etc.

Questions?

Contact Joe Stevens, Chairperson
St. Michael Cemetery Committee at
(810) 543-1838.

In preparation of St. Michael Cemetery clean up on Saturday, November 4th, please remove from your loved one's grave summer pots, vases or any other grave decoration that you would like to keep.

Mirror, Mirror on the Wall

By Annemarie Paciorek
4th Grade Teacher

I came across a quote by St. John Vianney. It said,

"We are each of us like a small mirror in which God searches for his reflection."

Think about that for a moment... Wow! Now ask yourself: If I am a mirror, will God see himself in my reflection? If your answer is not "yes," then ask yourself this: What can I do so that God can see His reflection in me? Well, if you need help accomplishing this feat, let me help you.

At this time the 4th grade is studying how to be disciples of Christ. I asked the students, "What kind of person is a disciple?" They responded saying, "devoted," "pals of Jesus," "interested in others," "powerful in faith," "someone who sacrifices," "doing what God wants," "leads us to Jesus," "good examples," and "a saint." I agree with them that a disciple is all of the above. I also have to agree that being a disciple may not be easy. However, this is something that we all should strive to be.

If we follow the Beatitudes we would be like a disciple of Christ. Jesus taught us the Beatitudes. The Beatitudes teach us to live as one of Jesus' disciples.

If we are poor in spirit, we make God the most important part of our life.

If we mourn, we feel empathy toward others.

If we are meek, we are patient, kind, and respectful, even to those who do not respect us.

If we are hungry and thirsty for righteousness, then we search for justice and treat others fairly.

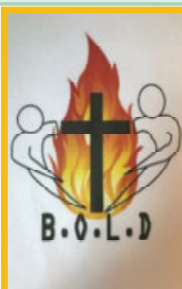

If we are merciful, we forgive others.

If we are clean of heart, we look for God in all situations and are faithful.

If we are peacemakers, then we treat others with love and respect and help others to stop fighting.

If we are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, then we are disrespected for living as one of Jesus' disciples.

If we follow Jesus' teachings in the Beatitudes, then perhaps if we were to look in a mirror, God would see His reflection in us.

CURSILLO

a Short Course in Christianity

What is a Cursillo experience? It's not so much a retreat but an encounter. An encounter with our God who loves us and wants us to know and feel his presence in our lives along with his immense love for us. It's an opportunity to gain knowledge about our faith, share our experiences with others, set goals, and most importantly, it offers Ultreya, a monthly gathering that allows you to continue your journey with fellow Cursillistas after a 3 day experience. Read below about the personal experience of two parishioners within our family of parishes:

"I'm a cradle Catholic who was blessed to be educated in Catholic schools elementary school through college. I always appreciated my faith, but it was stuck in my head and never reached my heart. My relationship with God was more fear instead of experiencing his love for me. Cursillo changed all that."

-Joyce Toia, Parish Advocate for Detroit Cursillo Movement

"How can I describe my Cursillo weekend? Words that come to my mind are Joy...Love...Support. It reinforced that we are powerful in God's hands; and how important it is to tell others about God's love for us."

-Lori Gaffney,
Holy Family Parishioner
