From Fr. Mark Livingston

On this third Sunday of Advent, Gaudete Sunday, we light the third candle of the Advent wreath, which is rose-colored. The word “Gaudete” is Latin for “Rejoice.” This celebration is a reminder that God who loves us is still in charge and that we await his coming not with fear, but with tremendous joy and anticipation. Consider this week for what or for whom you are thankful to God. I am incredibly thankful to be here with you. I hope to be here for a long time to come. I have said it many times in the past and I will keep restating it: I wanted this assignment, I love being here, and I can think of nowhere else I would rather be than here, together with you, in Memphis, Richmond and Armada.

The Lord’s coming is rapidly approaching. In fact, next weekend we experience the shortest transition from the 4th Sunday of Advent to Christmas—it’s the same weekend! This happens every six years (weekend cycle B, weekday cycle II) and is tricky every single time. The next weekend, we celebrate a similar tricky weekend with the Sunday of December 31, followed by the Monday of January 1, the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, which is typically a holy day of obligation, but the Church has waived the obligation this year. Here’s how it all breaks out and our obligation out of love to spend time with the Lord in humble and holy worship over the next two weekends.

For the weekend of Saturday, 12/23, and Sunday, 12/24, we celebrate both the 4th Sunday of Advent and Christmas Eve. We are obligated as beloved children of God, out of mutual love and respect, to attend Mass for both Solemn occasions. There are no “2 for 1 specials” on Sunday.

Here is the Mass schedule:

1st Obligation: 4th Sunday of Advent

Saturday, December 23:
4 PM Mass, at Holy Family
(4th Sunday Advent)

6 PM Mass, at St. Augustine
(4th Sunday Advent)

Sunday, December 24:
7 AM Mass, at St. Augustine
(4th Sunday Advent)

9 AM Mass, at St. Augustine
(4th Sunday Advent)

10 AM Mass, at St. Mary Mystical Rose (4th Sunday Advent)

10:30 AM Mass, at Holy Family
(4th Sunday Advent)
No 5:30 PM Mass

2nd Obligation: Christmas

Sunday, December 24:
4 PM Mass, at all three sites
(Christmas)

6 PM Mass, at Holy Family
(Christmas)

10 PM Mass, St. Mary Mystical Rose
(Christmas)

Midnight Mass is technically a new day (see below)

Monday, December 25:
Midnight Mass, at St. Augustine
(Christmas)

8:30 AM Mass, at St. Augustine
(Christmas)

10 AM Mass, at St. Mary Mystical Rose (Christmas)

10:30 AM Mass, at Holy Family
(Christmas)

Please plan accordingly and determine what is best for you and your family. I write this out of loving concern for you, your relationship with God, and how you teach your children and grandchildren the faith.

Continued from page 2

For Sunday, 12/31, the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, the evening Mass (5:30 PM) applies to Sunday (a holy day of obligation every week) and is not treated as a vigil Mass for the Solemnity of Mary Mother of God, on Mon 1/1. Here is our Mass schedule for Monday, January 1, Mary Mother of God. Though not obligatory this year, it is still strongly advised to attend.

Monday, January 1
Mary Mother of God
8:15 AM, St. Augustine
9:00 AM, St. Mary Mystical Rose
7:00 PM, Holy Family

God Bless,
Fr. Mark

Walk Among the Saints

We are all called to be saints! What better way to realize this calling and prepare for Christmas than by taking a walk among them? This November and December we will have displays at each of our parishes that offer an opportunity for each of us to participate in a reflective walk. In this self-paced Walk Among the Saints, learn what it takes to become a Saint, Blessed, Venerable, and Servant of God. This is a great opportunity to reflect on our saintly calling as we enter and participate in the season of Advent.

A Cross to Carry is a Gift

Judie Buchan
Preschool Teacher

We all have "burdens" that we have to carry with us each and every day. Whether it is having a hard time learning in school, trying our hardest, or making new friends, both students and adults experience challenges in life. As adults, we are always trying to make the best decision to please everyone around us, regardless of the burdens we carry. We can be inspired by Jesus, who had to carry his cross to where he gave his life for us all. He died on the cross for us and made the ultimate sacrifice for each and every one of us.

NEVER GIVE UP! Always keep praying to Jesus, He is always there for us, no matter what we ask of Him or even if we want to thank Him. Remember that no matter how young or old we are or what we are going through, Jesus knows when we need an answer to our prayers. We may not like how long it takes for an answer, but we just have to be patient. God's timing is not ours.

Personally, I would be lost without Jesus. He has always been there for me and my family when we needed Him. I regularly tell Him thank you and try to find a way to give back. He has helped me while growing up and now as a parent even more with raising my children. Jesus is and always should be our greatest of all to look up to and always consider "what would Jesus do" when making decisions. This Holiday season is a good time to remember to express our gratitude to our Lord and find ways to glorify Him in our lives.

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace."
- 1 Peter 4:10

REMINDER: COMMON EMAIL AND TEXT MESSAGE SCAMS

As the holiday season approaches, we may see an increase in email and text message scams targeting parishes and parishioners.

By far, the most common scam targeting parishioners is an email or text message, purporting to be from the pastor, asking recipients to send gift cards that the pastor will make available to the less fortunate. Please know that neither the parish nor our priests will ever solicit donations in this manner.

Q. In the Old Testament, regarding the prophesy of the birth of Jesus, we read: "a young woman will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel (Isaiah 7:14). Then in direct contradiction we read in the New Testament, that the angel Gabriel tells Mary "You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus (Luke 1:31). How can this and all the other contradictions in the bible be considered divinely inspired?

A. There are no contradictions in Sacred Scripture, in its original form. Translating from one language to another can be difficult and confusing. This passage in Isaiah has a few examples of this. The Hebrew word in Isaiah that we have translated as "name" is "shem" which in Hebrew means position of authority.

"Immanuel" is the English translation of the ancient Hebrew adjective (pronounced im-maw-noo-ale') which means "with us is God." Isaiah wrote that the coming Messiah's position of authority would be that of God himself. In effect, a closer English translation might read: "the Lord himself shall give you a sign. Behold the virgin shall conceive, and bare a son and his position of authority shall be known as with us is God." To the Hebrew people, this was the reason for great anticipation. Christians commemorate, i.e., re-live, this anticipation each year during the season of Advent. Note also: the Hebrew word Isaiah used to describe the woman was (almah) which in English translates "virgin."

"Jesus" is the English translation of the Greek proper name (pronounced ee-ay-sooce') which is itself a translation of the Hebrew name "Joshua" (pronounced Ya-shuah). "Jesus" is a noun, it is a proper name. Isaiah was not prophesying what the Messiah's given name would be. That would have been of little concern to the people of Isaiah's time.

Another example of a translation problem in this passage is "a" (non-specific) virgin verses "the" (specific) virgin. Many translations use "a" which is in error. Keep in mind that Mary was not some "yet to be determined" person in Isaiah's time. She was already known to the Holy Spirit, who is Isaiah's Divine Inspirer. We know this because "In the beginning" (Genesis 1:1) God told Satan there would be enmity between him (Satan) and "the" (specific) woman (Genesis 3:15). God knew thousands of years before Isaiah's time that Mary would be Eve's counterpart. Mary is widely recognized as the New Eve.

So, you see, the so-called contradictions in the Bible are not contradictions at all. They are in reality poorly translated, misinterpreted, or deliberately twisted translations. Keep in mind that some versions of the bible were commissioned by people with preconceived bias which was the very reason for creating their own bible.

The world contains hundreds of various translations which are translations built upon still other translations. This is the result of, as well as the stimulus for, the thousands of Christian denominations we have today. We can be thankful for the Catholic Church which, just as Jesus promised, protects us from the confusion and will continue to do so until he returns and sets everything straight for all eternity.
