Introducing

Faith and Mercy Nights

Please join Fr. Mark and other members of the Merciful Love of Jesus Family of Parishes twice monthly for Faith and Mercy Nights. These events will take place on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of the month for six months, from January to June 2024, beginning at 7 PM.

On the 1st Wednesday of the month, Fr. Mark will lead a teaching on a topic. There will be a presentation followed by table discussion. Then we will have an open format period for question and answer. Any question is fair game! These evenings together are meant to be fun, uplifting and educational. They will take place on a rotational basis at the sites in our family of parishes in the social hall or gathering area. Light refreshments will be served.

On the 3rd Wednesday of the month, Fr. Mark and other clergy members will lead a prayer experience in the church. A typical evening will include Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, inspirational music, guided prayer, and Confession. We will meet for roughly one hour in the church beginning at 7 PM for this wonderful time of rest.

This will take place at a different location in our Family each month.

Here is the schedule:

January	St. Augustine	Talk on Wed, Jan 3 (Kerygma) Prayer on Wed, Jan 17
February	Holy Family	Talk on Wed, Feb 7 (Lent) Prayer on Wed, Feb 21
March	St. Mary Mystical Rose	Talk on Wed, Mar 6 (TBD) Prayer on Wed, Mar 20

Our Mission: Save Souls

From Fr. Mark Livingston

For the weekend of Saturday, 12/23, and Sunday, 12/24, we celebrate both the 4th Sunday of Advent and Christmas Eve. We are obligated as beloved children of God, out of mutual love and respect, to attend Mass for both Solemn occasions. There are no “2 for 1 specials” on Sunday. Here is the Mass schedule:

1st Obligation:

4th Sunday of Advent

Saturday, December 23:

4 PM Mass, at Holy Family (4th Sunday Advent)
6 PM Mass, at St. Augustine (4th Sunday Advent)

Sunday, December 24:

7 AM Mass, at St. Augustine (4th Sunday Advent)
9 AM Mass, at St. Augustine (4th Sunday Advent)
10 AM Mass, at St. Mary Mystical Rose (4th Sunday Advent)
10:30 AM Mass, at Holy Family (4th Sunday Advent)
No 5:30 PM Mass

2nd Obligation: Christmas

Sunday, December 24:

4 PM Mass, at all three sites (Christmas)
6 PM Mass, at Holy Family (Christmas)
10 PM Mass, at St. Mary Mystical Rose (Christmas)

Midnight Mass is technically a new day, see below.

Monday, December 25:

12 AM Mass, at St. Augustine (Christmas)
8:15 AM Mass, at St. Augustine (Christmas)
10 AM Mass, at St. Mary Mystical Rose (Christmas)
10:30 AM Mass, at Holy Family (Christmas)

Please plan accordingly and determine what is best for you and your family. I write this out of loving concern for you, your relationship with God, and how you teach your children and grandchildren the Faith.

For Sunday, 12/31, the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, the evening Mass (5:30 PM) applies to Sunday (a holy day of obligation every week) and is not treated as a vigil Mass for the Solemnity of Mary Mother of God, on Mon 1/1. Here is our Mass schedule for Monday, January 1, Mary Mother of God. Though not obligatory this year, it is still strongly advised to attend.

Monday, January 1

Mary Mother of God

8:30 AM, St. Augustine
9:00 AM, St. Mary Mystical Rose
7:00 PM, Holy Family

Merry Christmas! I’m so happy to celebrate this first Christmas together as a Family. You have all been together for a while. I am new. Welcome to all of our new parishioners and families this year. You are cherished and you belong here.

Jesus loves each of you (us) so much. He couldn’t wait any longer to come and help us, teach us and set us free from slavery to sin and death. So many people today are enslaved to darkness, even thinking that their particular brand of darkness in their life is truly light. I was there for a good period of time in my life myself. It’s alluring and intoxicating to be immersed in darkness and think you have found true light. Yet, in that darkness, we desire something more. If we’re honest with ourselves, we are not really happy apart from God. We were made by him, for him, and, as St. Augustine said, “My heart was restless until it rested in you [God].” Rest is the deepest longing of our hearts—true peace, stillness, and security. These fruits of the heart only come from a life lived with God, persevering to the end in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health, to love and to honor each other all the days of our lives. He chooses to be held by you and to hold you. He wants to give you his transforming grace. Will we try again? Will we let him in? Will we care for him in our hearts and lives as much as we would care for a newborn child?

Jesus' vulnerable comings, as baby and as bread (Eucharist), tell us that he wanted to make himself utterly approachable for you and me. He wanted to be held and treated with love and care. He did not want us to be afraid of him. Let's approach him with confidence and reverence. Receive the newborn King of the Universe, Jesus, meek and gentle, waiting for us to lift him to our hearts and hold him close forever.

I have been writing about the Eucharist. I hope you will like our gift book to you this year, Beautiful Eucharist, by Matthew Kelly and the wonderful people of Dynamic Catholic. This book is meant to help us understand more fully the great mystery of divine love that is the Eucharist (Jesus really present with and in us), especially as we prepare for the 10th National Eucharistic Congress, at Lucas Oil Stadium, in Indianapolis, Indiana, from July 17-21, 2024.

Merry Christmas and God bless you!

Fr. Mark

Walk Among the Saints

We are all called to be saints! What better way to realize this calling and prepare for Christmas than by taking a walk among them? This November and December we will have displays at each of our parishes that offer an opportunity for each of us to participate in a reflective walk. In this self-paced Walk Among the Saints, learn what it takes to become a Saint, Blessed, Venerable, and Servant of God. This is a great opportunity to reflect on our saintly calling as we enter and participate in the season of Advent.

Gift Without Cost

Emily Lenn
School Principal

A major focus of the Christmas season is on the gifts. We get caught up in the business of shopping for the perfect gifts for our loved ones and friends. The students at St. Augustine recently had an opportunity to shop at our school's Santa Shop, which is sponsored by our PTC (Parent Teacher Club). They were eager to search for the perfect gift for each person on their list. Giving gifts is one way to show others our love and gratitude. We strive to build gratefulness in our St. A's students so that their eyes are opened to the blessings from God in their lives.

The final Sunday of Advent should give us pause to reflect on the gifts of the Lord in our lives. Our reflection should include the spiritual gifts that He has bestowed upon each of us. Spiritual gifts are most meaningful since they come through God's grace. They include gifts of the Holy Spirit such as wisdom, understanding, counsel, knowledge, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "They complete and perfect the virtues of those who receive them. They make the faithful docile in readily obeying divine inspirations." (CCC, 1831)

When we consider all of the gifts that Jesus has blessed us with, we may then begin to wonder, what can we give Him? We can give Him our time in prayer, our presence in Adoration, our attendance and attentiveness at Holy Mass, the gift of our repentance, and our offering of sacrifices. Most of all, we can use the gifts he has given us to glorify God, but how?

Our Blessed Mother gives us the most perfect answer in the Joyful Mysteries of the rosary. Here are a few questions for reflection with each mystery:

- The Annunciation – Do we accept the gifts that God gives us and also how he calls us to use them? Do we answer with a "Yes", like Mary?
- The Visitation – Do we bring those gifts to others and offer our gifts in service to them?
- The Nativity – Do we view our gifts as the hands and feet of Christ on earth? Do we also offer how we use them as a gift to God?
- The Presentation of our Lord – Do we accept the crosses that we have to bear when we serve God and do His will? Are we willing to take on those crosses and follow Him?
- The Finding in the Temple – When we lose sight of our gifts and lose sight of our Lord, do we go back and search for Him? Do we continue searching until we find Him?

Our Blessed Mother will lead us to her Son who can show us how to use our gifts for His glory. Jesus said it best when he told His disciples, "Without cost you have received, without cost you are to give." (Matthew 10:9) Give Him your gifts this Christmas by glorifying God in service to others.

THANK YOU!

I am in awe once again by the generosity of my Holy Family parish. I would like to thank everyone who took a tag from the Giving Tree and purchased gifts. Many of the families were speechless by your generosity and one mom was brought to tears. YOU make a difference in the lives of these families. I also want to thank the Knights of Columbus for hosting the Food Drive and each of you who donated a ham, turkey, potatoes, non perishable items or a monetary contribution. Last, but not least, thank you to the amazing people who came out to sort gifts, pack boxes, deliver boxes, and for the muscles to carry everything. I am blessed beyond words for all of you. Thank you and I pray you have a very Merry Christmas.
