HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY!

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Morning Mass at 9 am

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Times

Today we hear Jesus send his disciples out two by two into the surrounding region to witness to the coming of the kingdom of God. They are not the only ones preaching good news today. Isaiah exults in the Chosen People's return to Jerusalem. In the psalm we cry out to God with joy. Paul boasts in the cross of Jesus, for it has led to a new creation. May the examples of the prophets and apostles inspire us in our discipleship, so that we too may spread the Good News and return rejoicing.

Question of the Week

Where do I need to sow peace this week? What will I do in order to labor for the harvest?

This Sunday's Readings

Isaiah 66:10–14c Mother Jerusalem will gather her children.

Psalm 66 "Let all the earth cry out to God with joy."

Galatians 6:14–18 I bear in my body the brand marks of Jesus.

Luke 10:1–12, 17–20 or 10:1–9 If people welcome you, bid them peace. If not, shake their dust from your feet and move on.

"The Holy Eucharist is the perfect expression of the love of Jesus Christ for man." St. Maria Goretti, July 6th

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being.
Help us to continue a good work begun long ago.
Make our vision clear and our will strong:
that only in human solidarity will we find liberty,
and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth.
Turn our hearts toward the family of nations:
to understand the ways of others,
to offer friendship,
and to find safety only in the common good of all.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Thank you for the many donations we have received since the start of the conflict in the Ukraine. Our community has come together to help these people in need. We have been blessed with a great number of contributions and equipment to help support the Ukrainian people during this time of conflict. May God bless you all for your support and the people of the Ukraine.
