THIS WEEK'S READINGSFIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Wisdom (1:13-15; 2:23-24)

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being; and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is not a destructive drug among them nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, for justice is undying. For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.

The Word of the Lord.

SECOND READING

A reading from 2 Corinthians (8:7, 9, 13-15)

Brothers and sisters: as you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also.

For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality.

As it is written: Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

(Ps 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13)

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O Lord, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you brought me up from the netherworld; you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Sing praise to the Lord, you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name.

For his anger lasts but a moment; a lifetime, his good will.

At nightfall, weeping enters in, But with the dawn, rejoicing.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Hear, O Lord, and have pity on me;

O Lord, be my helper

You changed my mourning into dancing;

O Lord, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

ALLELUIA

Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death
And brought life to light through the Gospel.

R. Alleluia, alleluia

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark shorter form (5:21-24, 35b-43)

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jarius, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him.

While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?"

Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the House of the Synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep. And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha Koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat. The Gospel of the Lord.

~PASTOR'S NOTES~

June 27, 2021

We are hoping to begin having Mass at the Martyrs soon. I decided to replace the carpeting damaged when the water pipes burst during the winter. I tried to save the carpeting but it doesn't look clean. The new carpeting has been ordered. It should only take one day to do the work. I will leave the sanctuary area without carpeting but will have a rug with a native-American motif. This will be more like the original church design.

That's the good news. The bad news is that we will be without air conditioning in St. Columbanus for a couple of weeks as the compressor went bad. Instead of replacing the compressor in the 50 year old unit, with the consultation of the HVAC company and some parishioners, I believe it would be in the best interest to put in a whole new A/C unit. This will mean that the boiler replacement will be put on the back burner (no pun intended) until a later time. Pray for cool weather for the next few weeks. We will keep the doors open and the church circulation fan running to move the hot air out and keep the church as cool as possible. Although I do not do well in the hot weather, I will willingly offer up any discomfort I have from the heat and wearing the three layers of Mass vestments for the spiritual welfare of our parish. I hope you will consider doing the same.

As we finish up the last days of June that are dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, let us reflect on the words of the four revelations of our Blessed Lord to St. Margaret Mary Alcoque, "My Divine Heart is so inflamed with love for men, and for you in particular that, being unable any longer to contain within Itself the flames of Its burning Charity, It must spread them abroad by your means, and manifest Itself to them (mankind) in order to enrich them with the precious graces of sanctification and salvation necessary to withdraw them from the abyss of perdition. I have chosen you as an abyss of unworthiness and ignorance for the accomplishment of this great design, in order that everything may be done by Me."

St. Margaret Mary recalls, "My Divine Master revealed to me that it was His ardent desire to be known, loved and honored by men, and His eager desire to draw them back from the road to perdition, along which Satan is driving them in countless numbers, that induced Him to manifest His Heart to men with all the treasures of love, mercy, grace, sanctification and salvation that It contains."

"This Heart of God must be honored under the form of His heart of flesh, whose image He wanted exposed, and also worn on me and on my heart."

"Opening it, He showed me His loving and lovable Heart as the living source of those flames. Then he revealed to me all the unspeakable marvels of His pure love, and the excess of love He had conceived for men from whom He had received nothing but ingratitude and contempt."

"'This is more grievous to Me,' [Jesus] said, 'than all that I endured in my Passion. If they would only give Me some return of love, I should not reckon all that I have done for them, and I would do yet more if possible. But they have only coldness and contempt for all My endeavors to do them good. You, at least, can give Me the happiness of making up for their ingratitude, as much as you can."

"First, you are to receive me in the Blessed Sacrament as often as obedience will allow, no matter what mortification or humiliation it may entail. Moreover, you are to receive Holy Communion on the First Friday of each month, and every night between Thursday and Friday I will make you partaker of that sorrow unto death which it was My will to suffer in the Garden of Olives.

"You will thus share with Me, and in a manner soothe the bitter grief I suffered when my disciples abandoned Me and I was constrained to reproach them that they could not watch with Me even for an hour. During that hour you are to do what I will teach you."

"And [opening] to me His Divine Heart: 'Behold this Heart which has so loved men that It spared nothing, even going so far as to exhaust and consume Itself, to prove to them Its love. And in return, I receive from the greater part of men nothing but ingratitude, by the contempt, irreverence, sacrileges and coldness with which they treat Me in this Sacrament of Love.

MISSIONARY COOPERATIVE PLAN FOR THE PROPOGATION OF THE FAITH

Each year the Archdiocesan Office for The Society for the Propagation of the Faith sponsors the Missionary Cooperative Plan. This year, the Covid-19 Pandemic is still affecting Missionary Cooperative plans' traditional way of interacting. There will not be a speaker next Sunday for the Mission Cooperative Plan, however, the Second Collection next Sunday will be in Support of the Propagation of the Faith.

Pope Francis reminds us of the many challenges missionaries face daily which we might take for granted. The second collection at each Mass next weekend will be sent to the Propagation of the Faith Office to support the needs of mission Dioceses and Religious Communities. Evangelization is at the heart of the Church's mission throughout the world, and we ask you to be as generous as your means allow in this second collection.

SECOND COLLECTION TODAY

Today we will have a second collection for the Mission Cooperative Plan. Please be as generous as your means allow.

REMINDER

We would like to remind parishioners of the need to keep us informed of any address or phone number changes. This is especially important for the moderators of parish organizations. Thank you.

Homebound Ministry

In these challenging times, it is easy to feel discouraged and alone. But God never fails to show His presence in the most simple, ordinary things- like handwritten letters and phone calls. The Franciscan Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart would welcome the opportunity to share Jesus' consoling love with you in this way. Please call:

Sr. Lisa Grace Carlone at (914)-737-3373 if you are interested.

Please welcome into the faith the following who was Baptized on June 26th.

Faith Hope Leo

May the Lord watch over Faith and grant her a strong faith.

As a Parish, as of June 4th we have raised $35,114 on a goal of $78,500, putting us at 45% of goal. Thank you to the 152 parishioners who have donated. Seven percent of our registered parishioners have committed to this needed cause with an average gift of $231.00. The Archdiocese of New York helps so many through this campaign, including Catholic schools, needy parishes, formation of new priests, pastoral outreach, those affected by COVID-19, retired priests and many more. The Appeal keeps struggling Churches and Schools open. We all donate to various charities throughout the year. Making a choice to donate to your faith, the Catholic Church, will strengthen it locally, in our neighborhoods. Please prayerfully consider making a pledge today, and share God's gifts. Thank you. St. Joseph, pray for us.

CLOTHING SHED

As a reminder, the Church has a clothing donation shed in the corner of the back parking lot. Since January we've received over 13,700 lbs of donated clothing! Accepted items include: clothing, shoes, belts, purses, blankets, sheets, pillowcases, curtains and stuffed animals. Please do not leave any "other" items such as electronics, furniture, toys, etc; as these items are not accepted and become a problem to dispose. Also, please make sure your items are donated in a sealed bag. Thank you to those who have been able to donate and thank you for following the donation guidelines.

FIRST FRIDAY EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

The Blessed Sacrament will be placed on the altar in monstrance after the 9:00 a.m. Mass on Friday, July 2nd, where it will be on the altar for adoration until 12:00 p.m. We ask parishioners to stop by and spend time before the Body of our Lord to demonstrate our devotion to him.

FOOD COLLECTION TODAY

Donations of non-perishable food items will be collected after today's Masses. Please place your items in the bins located in the front or back of the Church. Thank you for your generosity to this much needed cause.

HEALING MASS

A Healing Mass, with a free flow of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, will be held Tuesday July 6, 2021 at St. Kateri Tekakwitha Parish, 1924 Rte 82, LaGrangeville, NY 12540. Guest Celebrant will be Fr. Giuseppe Siniscalchi of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal of Newburgh. Join us for Praise and Worship at 7:00pm; Mass at 7:30. Adoration and prayers for healing will follow Mass. Benediction will close the evening. The event will be livestreamed with virtual prayer rooms available at <http://www.Catholiccharismaticny.org/spirit-wind-healing-mass> The Mass can be viewed all month at <http://www.facebook.com/SKTLagrangeville>. Contact Pat or Joe at 845-440-35419.
