Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time -August 27, 2017

"Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven;
and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."
— Matthew 16:19

Message from Fr. Pergjini-

Last Sunday before the final blessing at the 9:15am Holy Mass, our extraordinary Eucharistic minister, Rudi who faithfully goes every Sunday to bring Holy Communion to one of our nursing homes, showed me a consecrated host found on the floor near in the statute of the blessed mother. I was very disturbed seeing the host in that condition. Unfortunately, this is not the first time this has happened in our parish. Another time we did find the host on one of our benches outside the church. Before the final blessing, I made an announcement explaining what happened. I felt the concern of others too and the love for the Eucharist during my brief announcement. Our well-known Grotto attracts many people from everywhere. I am sure a majority are Catholics who visit our beautiful Grotto. Many of them, especially on Sundays, do come and attend Holy Mass also. We are thankful for their visit and welcome them with open hearts. On the other hand, we do have people who are not Catholics or do not practice and are not prepared to receive Holy Communion. The non Catholic visitors do not know the Catholic discipline and requirements on who can receive it and how to receive it. Frequently, I have seen adult and young people who come for the first time approaching the altar and they do not know how to receive Holy Communion. When I have this experience, I briefly explain to them that I can give a blessing instead because they are not ready to receive the Holy Communion. And, I suggest to them to see me after mass if they are willing to know more about our Catholic faith. Most of them understand and they are very kind and humble and happy to receive a blessing. Some of them do wait after mass is over to discuss it. Others, it is sad to say, do not show any interest because their visit is only to go to the Grotto and get the water and light a candle. And this fine also to pray to Our Blessed Mother. As I think what happen last Sunday, I firmly believe that we must be vigilant, not only we as clergy and ushers, but every one of us faithful Catholics who attend Holy Mass. If we see something that has to do with what is a most sacred treasure for us as Catholics, the real presence of Christ, body, blood, soul and divinity veiled in the consecrated host under the appearance of bread, we should speak out to the person who probably is holding the host and unwilling to consume it. Anyone who is aware of the redeeming value of the Eucharist should never be silent and walk away without addressing this serious issue. We all should know that even a small particle falling on the floor is still the body of Christ and should never be neglected. Many times I have experienced myself that people have dropped the host on the floor because they do not properly hold their hands and carefully receive Holy Communion in their mouth. Recently, thanks to one of our faithful benefactors who donated the altar rail, there are many of our faithful people who receive holy communion kneeling. They do not kneel before the priest or deacon, but they do kneel before Christ who is present in that Holy Host. It is inspiring to see that there are many of our faithful who kneel receiving Holy Communion giving the example to others, especially to the young, who desperately need to see reverence and the humble gesture of receiving the Real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. If we carefully read the gospels there are many occasions that those who were in desperate need for healing and help did kneel and prostrated themselves before Christ. If we do not teach and practice how to worship and how to respond with our bodily gestures during the holy sacrifice of the Mass, the presence of the divine mystery would be absent and we would be not touched in our souls, minds and hearts. In this Sunday's Gospel of Saint Mathew, Christ asked his disciples: "But you who do you say that I am?" Thanks to the Almighty Father who revealed to Saint Peter to make that powerful statement: "you are Christ, the son of the living God." And we must believe, that from the Altar we receive the presence of the Son of the Living God. Amen! Do you and I believe that in that Holy Host, is the real presence of body, blood, soul, and divinity of the son of the living God? Do we show that reverence and love with our bodily gesture while receiving Christ, our Savior? Are you and I are prepared by using the Sacrament of confession in order to receive in a state of grace the presence of the Son of the Living God? I am sure if we honestly think, pray and seriously answer these questions we will approach more devoutly and reverently the sacred species and not allow anyone to desecrate what we believe is Holy and Divine presence.

Immaculate Heart of Mary Altar Rosary Society

All women of the parish are invited to join The Immaculate Heart of Mary Altar Rosary Society. The Society's purpose is to secure patronage to the Blessed Mother by praying the rosary, provide and maintain a suitable dwelling place for Our Lord Jesus Christ and be a support to our parish priests. We attend the 9 a.m. Mass every First Saturday as a group, followed by a meeting. Due to the Labor Day weekend, our September meeting will take place on the second Saturday of the month. Please come and join us on Saturday, September 9, 2017.

Our own Msgr. Becker will be having surgery on Friday, September 1, 2017. He is asking for and is most grateful if you can remember him in your prayers.

Prayer before Surgery

O merciful Father in heaven, we ask You to be with Msgr. Becker while he is in surgery. Bless the surgeon with the skill and knowledge needed to do his work and safely bring Msgr. Becker through this operation. O gracious Father, bring healing to Msgr. Becker and bless him with the best care possible as he recovers. Continue to bless him with your tender care. Grant him patience during his recuperation, help him grow in strength each day and bring him to full recovery quickly. Amen.

Mensaje de Padre Pergjini- El domingo pasado antes de la bendición final en la Santa Misa de las 9:15 am, nuestro extraordinario ministro eucarístico, Rudi, que fielmente va todos los domingos para traer la Santa Comunión a uno de nuestros hogares de ancianos, me mostró un anfitrión consagrado encontrado en el piso cerca en el estatuto de La bendita madre. Yo estaba muy preocupado viendo el anfitrión en esa condición. Desafortunadamente, esta no es la primera vez que esto sucede en nuestra parroquia. Otra vez encontramos el anfitrión en uno de nuestros bancos fuera de la iglesia. Antes de la bendición final, hice un anuncio explicando lo que pasó. También sentí la preocupación de los demás y el amor a la Eucaristía durante mi breve anuncio. Nuestra gruta conocida atrae a mucha gente de todas partes. Estoy seguro de que la mayoría son católicos que visitan nuestra hermosa gruta. Muchos de ellos, especialmente los domingos, vienen y asisten a la Santa Misa también. Agradecemos su visita y les damos la bienvenida con el corazón abierto. Por otro lado, tenemos personas que no son católicas o no practican y no están preparadas para recibir la Sagrada Comunión. Los visitantes no católicos no conocen la disciplina católica y los requisitos sobre quién puede recibirla y cómo recibirla. Con frecuencia he visto adultos y jóvenes que por primera vez se acercan al altar y no saben cómo recibir la Santa Comunión. Cuando tengo esta experiencia, les explico brevemente que puedo dar una bendición en cambio porque no están listos para recibir la Santa Comunión. Y les sugiero que me vean después de la misa si están dispuestos a saber más acerca de nuestra fe católica. La mayoría de ellos entiende y son muy amables y humildes y felices de recibir una bendición. Algunos de ellos esperan después de la misa para discutirlo. Otros, es triste decir, no muestran ningún interés porque su visita es sólo para ir a la Gruta y obtener el agua y encender una vela. Y esta multa también para orar a Nuestra Madre Bendita. Creo que lo que ocurrirá el domingo pasado, creo firmemente que debemos estar vigilantes, no sólo nosotros como clérigos y ujieres, sino también para todos los fieles católicos que asistimos a la Santa Misa. Si vemos algo que tiene que ver con lo que es más Un tesoro sagrado para nosotros como católicos, la presencia real de Cristo, el cuerpo, la sangre, el alma y la divinidad velados en la hostia consagrada bajo la apariencia de pan, debemos hablar a la persona que probablemente sostiene al anfitrión y no quiere consumirla. Cualquiera que sea consciente del valor redentor de la Eucaristía nunca debe callar y alejarse sin abordar este grave problema. Todos debemos saber que incluso una pequeña partícula que cae en el suelo sigue siendo el cuerpo de Cristo y nunca debe ser descuidado. Muchas veces me he experimentado a mí mismo que la gente ha dejado caer al anfitrión en el piso porque no tienen apropiadamente sus manos y cuidadosamente reciben la Sagrada Comunión en su boca. Recientemente, gracias a uno de nuestros fieles benefactores que donaron el altar, hay muchos de nuestros fieles que reciben la santa comunión arrodillada. No se arrodillan ante el sacerdote o el diácono, sino que se arrodillan delante de Cristo, que está presente en esa Santa Hostia. Es inspirador ver que muchos de nuestros fieles se arrodillan recibiendo la Santa Comunión dando el ejemplo a otros, especialmente a los jóvenes, que necesitan desesperadamente reverencia y el humilde gesto de recibir la presencia real de Cristo en la Eucaristía. Si leemos cuidadosamente los evangelios hay muchas ocasiones en que aquellos que estaban en desesperada necesidad de sanidad y ayuda se arrodillaron y se postraron ante Cristo. Si no enseñamos y practicamos cómo adorar y cómo responder con nuestros gestos corporales durante el santo sacrificio de la Misa, la presencia del misterio divino estaría ausente y no seríamos tocados en nuestras almas, mentes y corazones. En el Evangelio de San Mateo de este domingo, Cristo preguntó a sus discípulos: "¿Pero vosotros que decís que soy?" Gracias al Padre Todopoderoso que reveló a San Pedro que hiciera esa poderosa declaración: "Tú eres el Cristo, Dios vivo ". Y debemos creer que desde el Altar recibimos la presencia del Hijo del Dios Vivo. Amén ¿Crees tú y yo que en esa Santa Hostia está la presencia real de cuerpo, sangre, alma y Divinidad del hijo del Dios viviente, ¿demostraremos reverencia y amor con nuestro gesto corporal mientras recibimos a Cristo, nuestro Salvador? ¿Estamos preparados tú y yo usando el sacramento de la confesión para recibir en estado de gracia la presencia Del Hijo del Dios Viviente, estoy seguro de que si pensamos honestamente, oramos y respondemos seriamente a estas preguntas nos acercaremos más devotamente y reverentemente a las especies sagradas y no permitiremos que nadie profane lo que creemos es presencia Santa y Divina.

We welcome
