Message from Fr. Pergjini-

It was October 13, 1917 that made Fatima, Portugal known to all the world that Our Blessed Mother promised to the three children that she would give the sign on that specific day at noon time to confirm everything she had said. The morning of that day it was a heavy rain and thousands of people patiently and anxiously were awaiting to see the sign. It was at noon that the sun broke through the clouds and started to dance in the sky as thousands of people witnessed the miracle of the sun. As I share with you this significant moment in the world history, as we mark the 100th anniversary of the apparitions of Fatima, I do bring to my mind the beautiful memories that I have visiting Fatima. My first time visiting Fatima was many years ago as a seminarian thanks to the generosity of some benefactors who sponsored every year seminarians in the United States to visit Fatima. They were remarkable Catholics with a deep devotion and love to our Lady Fatima that touched my soul. They shared with us, as we did with them, our faith journey and the powerful presence of Our Lady of Fatima in our life. They all have a story to tell. One of them, Margaret, who sponsored me few times to go to Fatima had an amazing conversion story to our Catholic faith. She and her husband Victor were Methodists. A few weeks before the death of Victor, who was in hospital, a Catholic priest passed by his room. She saw him passing by but they did not pay any attention. Victor asked his wife who was the man who just walked by. She told him that was a Catholic priest. To her surprise he asked her to invite him into his room. She was shocked to hear that and simply said to him: "why?" He did not give any reason but insisted that he wanted to see the priest. Margaret went after the priest who was still visiting the Catholic patients in that floor. As soon as the priest walked into his room his face changed. He never had any interest in the Catholic Church and he never met any Catholic priest before. The priest who was very kind and aware that Victor was not Catholic tried to help him to ease his physical and spiritual pain. The priest visited Victor every day. Victor told his wife that he wanted to die as a Catholic. He received the sacrament of confession, confirmation and Holy Communion one week before his death. Margaret described his death as a very peaceful and beautiful moment for both of them. After Victor's death, she could not understand the decision of her husband. For a few years she was struggling to make sense of what Victor experienced. One day one of her friends, also a convert to Catholicism, invited her to go to Fatima. In the beginning she hesitated to go to a place unknown to her and also she did not believe in the presence of our Lady. Finally she changed her mind and went to Fatima. That trip became the journey of a deep and profound experience of conversion. She used to tell us that Victor, who was not physically present any more, but she deeply felt his spiritual presence helped her to enter into a new relationship of faith, a journey of conversion eased by the presence of Our Lady of Fatima. As she beautifully described, Fatima was the place where she was touched by Our Lady and also the desire to become Catholic. She became Catholic on Ascension Thursday as she used to remember with great joy the day she entered into the Catholic Church. Yes indeed, Fatima is a place of great interior and spiritual peace that has consoled many souls toward the journey of conversion, my soul too. As I bring to my mind my many trips to Fatima, private retreats at the monastery of the Pius X, the Irish Dominican nuns, celebrating Holy Mass at the Capelina where Our Blessed Mother appeared to the three children, and the moving stories of conversion, I firmly believe the need to speak and remind ourselves about the message Our Lady of Fatima told to the three saintly children. Repentance and conversion, were the words that our Blessed Mother frequently mentioned to them. Also, the vision of Hell is well known in the history of Fatima. It was a tormenting scene for the three little children. They saw the agony beyond description of tormented souls in hell. It was immediately after this vision of hell that Our Lady asked for the spreading of devotion to her immaculate Heart of Mary. Today not many speak about tormenting souls in hell, a total absence of Christ's love, but none of us can remove the many passages in the Gospels that Christ speaks about hell. This Sunday, October 15, again we cannot ignore the words of Christ in the Gospel of Saint Mathew 22: 1-14:

“Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth. Many are invited but few are chosen.”

We all hope to listen to the voice of Christ through Mary and be with those who are chosen in the light and glory of Christ. We all know where Christ is present: in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Holy Scripture, in all Tabernacles of our Catholic Churches around the world, and in the sacraments. We as Catholics, on our knees, beg the intercessions of Our Lady Fatima to present all of us to Our Divine Savior with humble and contrite hearts. At this important anniversary of Fatima, October 13, the miracle of the sun, may we be aware of the words of our Blessed Mother to repent and enter humbly and peacefully into the path of conversion. May those whom I knew in Fatima and helped my priestly journey rest in peace and may Almighty Father reward them for their generosity! Our Lady of Fatima pray for us! Amen!

Mensaje de Padre Pergjini-

Era el 13 de octubre de 1917 que Fatima, Portugal conocida por todo el mundo que Nuestra Mater prometió a los tres hijos que ella daría el cartel en ese día específico a mediodía para confirmar todo lo que había dicho. La mañana de ese día fue una fuerte lluvia y miles de personas esperaban pacientemente y ansiosamente para ver la señal. Era a mediodía que el sol rompió las nubes y comenzó a bailar en el cielo como miles de personas presenciaron el milagro del sol. A medida que comparto con ustedes este momento significativo en la historia del mundo, al conmemorar el 100 aniversario de las apariciones de Fátima, llevo en mi mente los hermosos recuerdos que tengo de visitar Fátima. Mi primera visita a Fátima fue hace muchos años como seminarista gracias a la generosidad de algunos benefactores que patrocinaban cada año a los seminaristas en los Estados Unidos para visitar Fátima. Eran católicos notables con una profunda devoción y amor a nuestra Señora Fátima que tocó mi alma. Ellos compartieron con nosotros, como hicimos con ellos, nuestro viaje de fe y la poderosa presencia de Nuestra Señora de Fátima en nuestra vida. Todos ellos tienen una historia que contar. Una de ellas, Margarita, que me auspició pocas veces para ir a Fátima, tuvo una asombrosa historia de conversión a nuestra fe católica. Ella y su esposo Víctor eran metodistas. Unas semanas antes de la muerte de Víctor, que estaba en el hospital, un sacerdote católico pasó por su habitación. Ella lo vio pasar pero no prestaron atención. Víctor le preguntó a su esposa quién era el hombre que acababa de pasar. Ella le dijo que era un sacerdote católico. Para su sorpresa le pidió que lo invitara a su habitación. Ella se sorprendió al escuchar eso y simplemente le dijo: "¿por qué?" No dio ninguna razón, pero insistió en que quería ver al sacerdote. Margaret fue tras el sacerdote que seguía visitando a los pacientes católicos en aquel piso. Tan pronto como el sacerdote entró en su habitación su rostro cambió. Nunca tuvo ningún interés en la Iglesia Católica y nunca había conocido a ningún sacerdote católico. El sacerdote que era muy amable y consciente de que Víctor no era católico intentó ayudarlo a aliviar su dolor físico y espiritual. El sacerdote visitaba a Víctor todos los días. Víctor le dijo a su esposa que quería morir como católico. Recibió el sacramento de confesión, confirmación y comunión una semana antes de su muerte. Margaret describió su muerte como un momento muy pacífico y hermoso para ambos. Después de la muerte de Víctor, ella no pudo entender la decisión de su marido. Durante algunos años luchó por darle sentido a lo que experimentó Víctor. Un día una de sus amigas, también convertida al catolicismo, la invitó a ir a Fátima. Al principio dudaba en ir a un lugar desconocido para ella y tampoco creía en la presencia de Nuestra Señora. Finalmente cambió de opinión y fue a Fátima. Ese viaje se convirtió en el viaje de una profunda y profunda experiencia de conversión. Solía decirnos que Víctor, que ya no estaba físicamente presente, sentía profundamente que su presencia espiritual la ayudaba a entrar en una nueva relación de fe, un camino de conversión facilitado por la presencia de Nuestra Señora de Fátima. Como bien describió, Fátima fue el lugar donde fue tocada por Nuestra Señora y también el deseo de ser católica. Ella llegó a ser católica en el jueves de la Ascensión como solía recordar con gran alegría el día en que entró en la Iglesia Católica. Sí, Fátima es un lugar de gran paz interior y espiritual que ha consolado a muchas almas hacia el camino de la conversión, mi alma también. Mientras traigo a mi mente mis numerosos viajes a Fátima, retiros privados en el monasterio del Pío X, las monjas dominicanas irlandesas, celebrando la Santa Misa en la Capelina donde Nuestra Madre Bendita se apareció a los tres niños y las emocionantes historias de conversión, Creo firmemente en la necesidad de hablar y recordarnos el mensaje que Nuestra Señora de Fátima dijo a los tres santos hijos. Arrepentimiento y conversión, fueron las palabras que nuestra Santísima Madre les mencionó frecuentemente. Además, la visión del Infierno es bien conocida en la historia de Fátima. Era una escena atormentadora para los tres niños pequeños. Vieron la agonía más allá de la descripción de las almas atormentadas en el infierno. Fue inmediatamente después de esta visión del infierno que Nuestra Señora pidió la difusión de la devoción a su Inmaculado Corazón de María. Hoy no muchos hablan de atormentar almas en el infierno, una ausencia total del amor de Cristo, pero ninguno de nosotros puede eliminar los muchos pasajes en los Evangelios que Cristo habla sobre el infierno. Este domingo, 15 de octubre, nuevamente no podemos ignorar las palabras de Cristo en el Evangelio de San Mateo 22: 1-14:

“Atan sus manos y pies, y arrojadlo a la oscuridad afuera, donde habrá llanto y rechinamiento de dientes. Muchos son invitados, pero pocos son escogidos.”

Todos esperamos escuchar la voz de Cristo a través de María y estar con los escogidos en la luz y gloria de Cristo. Todos sabemos dónde está Cristo: en el Santo Sacrificio de la Misa, en la Sagrada Escritura, en todos los Tabernáculos de nuestras Iglesias Católicas alrededor del mundo y en los sacramentos. Nosotros, como católicos, de rodillas, rogamos las intercesiones de Nuestra Señora Fátima para que nos presenten a Nuestro Divino Salvador con corazones humildes y contritos. En este importante aniversario de Fátima, el 13 de octubre, el milagro del sol, podamos ser conscientes de las palabras de nuestra Santísima Madre para arrepentirnos y entrar humildemente y pacíficamente en el camino de la conversión. ¡Que los que conozco en Fátima y ayude a mi viaje sacerdotal descansen en paz y que el Padre Todopoderoso los recompense por su generosidad! Nuestra Señora de Fátima ruega por nosotros! ¡Amén!

Annually, World Mission Sunday is celebrated on the next-to-last Sunday in October. It is organized by the Propagation of the Faith and is a day set aside for Catholics worldwide to recommit themselves to the Church's missionary activity through prayer and sacrifice. World Mission Sunday will be celebrated next Sunday, October 22nd.

As described by Pope Saint John Paul II, World Mission Sunday is "an important day in the life of the Church because it teaches how to give: as an offering made to God, in the Eucharistic celebration and for all the missions of the world" (see Redemptoris Missio 81).

Each year, the entire Church is invited to support the young mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the poorest of the poor. This year, we are invited to "Chat With The Pope" to learn more about his missions. Scan this year's World Mission Sunday poster using Facebook Messenger for your mobile device, or learn more at ChatWithThePope.org

In anticipation of World Mission Sunday next week, let us offer a World Mission Rosary asking Jesus to care for missionaries and those they serve and to help us express our faith in all we do.

Our Lady of the Rosary, Pray for us.

LIVES OF THE SAINTS ST. MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE (1647-1690)

St. Margaret Mary died in the convent of the Visitation nuns at Paray-le-Monial in France on October 17, 1690 and was canonized in 1920. Born into a middle class family in Burgundy, France, her father died when she was 9 years old and she was badly treated in the family of an uncle who took her in. At the age of 24 she entered the monastery of the Visitation nuns at Paray-le-Monial. There she suffered greatly because of health problems but she was encouraged by the Lord to make profession (1672). The following year, on the feast of St. John the Evangelist, the Lord asked her to receive Communion on the first Friday of each month and to make reparation for the sins committed against him. In June of 1675 Jesus asked that the first Friday after the feast of Corpus Christi be dedicated to his Sacred Heart, together with reception of Communion and acts of reparation. When her superiors were unwilling to cooperate, Margaret Mary received support and guidance from the Jesuit, Claude de la Colombiere. Nevertheless she still had to suffer more when the Lord instructed her to go contrary to her own Visitation community. Finally, however, a friend of hers became superior (1640) and selected Sister Margaret Mary as an assistant and as mistress of novices. Thus, on June 21, 1686, the feast of the Sacred Heart was celebrated in the convent for the first time. The image of the Sacred Heart was painted on the standard of Louis XIV and was later adopted in France, Spain and the Tyrol. In 1873 France was consecrated to the Sacred Heart and the Basilica of Sacre Coeur was built in the Montmartre district of Paris. Later, Spain and Brazil also erected statues in honor of the Sacred Heart. In 1856 Pope Pius IX extended the feast of the Sacred Heart to the universal Church and in 1929 Pope Pius XI raised the feast to a solemnity.

Lord, pour out on us the riches of the Spirit which you bestowed on St. Margaret Mary. May we come to know the love of Christ, which surpasses all human understanding, and be filled with the fullness of God.
