Message from Father Pergjini:

It was Sunday April 29, 2012 that a terrible accident took the lives of seven people on the Bronx River Parkway South. It was a painful experience for our school and our parish because three of those victims were in our parish, mother with two daughters, one of them in our first grade and the other waiting to start in September. I am writing these lines thinking, after six years, of Nelly who died in that accident. Her classmates soon are going to receive the sacrament of Confirmation. Every time when I have to visit them I think of her. In my mind I picture Nelly sitting somewhere in that class next to her friends. I am aware that her classmates in their very young age do not think of her any more. We as adults cannot avoid the past and carry within ourselves the pain and the joy of the past. I am sure that these bright young students who bitterly cried when they found out that Nelly died in that painful accident, one day as adults will think that they knew a beautiful and innocent little girl who died in the first grade on a Sunday in April 29, 2012. The memory of Nelly becomes more powerful when her teacher Miss Torres and myself often think of her. Every year on April 29th she comes and reminds me to mention her name and pray for her and her family during the Holy Mass. This year it is Sunday April 29th. I used to see Nelly's father at our parish. Often I thought of his loneliness and pain going alone to his house, opening the door of his apartment, and knowing very well that inside is no one waiting for him. His wife and two beautiful daughters are gone forever to rest in God's heavenly peace. I greet him in silence. I cannot say much. I simply look at him and shake hands assuring him of my prayers and support. I can read in his eyes pain, loneliness, and sufferings. It seems to me that we read each others thoughts in those moments of silence. It is very hard to accept what happened to him, a whole family is gone. In my mind I try to communicate the peace of Christ, in the silence of his soul and mind. I hope and pray that the power of Christ may touch him and strengthens him in his sufferings. In the eyes of Nelly's father I read pain and sufferings but never despair. His example should inspire many of us, especially the parents of those students who are receiving the sacrament of Confirmation and know the redeeming value of the Holy Mass, our greatest prayer of all.

Six years after that enormous tragedy, Nelly's classmates will receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit. In my mind, I still picture Nelly dressed in a beautiful red and white gown, her tiny hands folded carefully just like her friends would do, looking straight into the eyes of God as she walks up to be anointed by Bishop Iriondo. What a glorious day for them, their parents, families, and all of us! As adults we still remember that day of our first Holy Communion and Confirmation. We will be rejoicing with them and at the same time we should remind ourselves that Christ who unites the living and the dead, invisibly unites us and those who have gone to the Eternal Rest. Yes, Nelly, her sister, her dear mom, aunt, cousin, and grandparents will be invisibly present in the real presence of the Body and Blood of Christ who becomes our divine guest on the Altar! Yes, the real power of the Holy sacrifice of the Mass consoles our broken souls and our sufferings. The sufferings for many of us is still present, but because of Christ, he gives the meaning to our trials. And it is precisely this real power of Christ that gives us strength and courage to look toward the Glory of the risen Lord and never lose hope. After six years, the classmates of Nelly do not think of what happened on that Sunday of April 29, 2012. But we as adults do. We have the duty and obligation to remind to ourselves and to them, to remember and pray for those who have been part of our past and gone to Eternal rest. There will be a moment of silent prayer thinking of Nelly and her family during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. We beg Our Blessed Mother to present our humble prayers and intercede for Nelly and her family, and for who continue in this valley of tears to Almighty Father. Eternal rest grant them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them. May the soul of Nelly, the souls of her family, and all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in Peace. Amen!

Mensaje del Padre Pergjini:

Fue el domingo 29 de abril de 2012 que un terrible accidente se cobró la vida de siete personas en el Bronx River Parkway South. Fue una experiencia dolorosa para nuestra escuela y nuestra parroquia porque tres de esas víctimas estaban en nuestra parroquia, madre con dos hijas, una de ellas en nuestro primer grado y la otra esperando comenzar en septiembre. Escribo estas líneas pensando, después de seis años, en Nelly que murió en ese accidente. Sus compañeros de clase pronto recibirán el sacramento de la Confirmación. Cada vez que tengo que visitarlos, pienso en ella. En mi mente me imagino a Nelly sentada en algún lugar de la clase junto a sus amigas. Soy consciente de que sus compañeros de clase en su temprana edad ya no piensan en ella. Nosotros, como adultos, no podemos evitar el pasado y llevar dentro de nosotros mismos el dolor y la alegría del pasado. Estoy seguro de que estos brillantes jóvenes estudiantes que lloraron amargamente cuando descubrieron que Nelly murió en ese doloroso accidente, un día como adultos pensarán que conocían a una niña bella e inocente que murió en el primer grado un domingo 29 de abril , 2012. El recuerdo de Nelly se vuelve más poderoso cuando su maestra la señorita Torres y yo a menudo pensamos en ella. Cada año el 29 de abril viene y me recuerda que mencione su nombre y ore por ella y su familia durante la Santa Misa. Este año es el domingo 29 de abril. Solía ver al padre de Nelly en nuestra parroquia. A menudo pensaba en su soledad y su dolor yendo solo a su casa, abriendo la puerta de su departamento, y sabiendo muy bien que dentro no había nadie esperando por él. Su esposa y sus dos hermosas hijas se han ido para siempre a descansar en la paz celestial de Dios. Lo saludo en silencio. No puedo decir mucho. Simplemente lo miro y le doy la mano asegurándole mis oraciones y mi apoyo. Puedo leer en sus ojos dolor, soledad y sufrimiento. Me parece que leemos los pensamientos de los demás en esos momentos de silencio. Es muy difícil aceptar lo que le pasó, una familia completa se ha ido. En mi mente trato de comunicar la paz de Cristo, en el silencio de su alma y mente. Espero y rezo para que el poder de Cristo pueda tocarlo y lo fortalezca en sus sufrimientos. A los ojos del padre de Nelly leo el dolor y los sufrimientos, pero nunca me desespero. Su ejemplo debe inspirarnos a muchos de nosotros, especialmente a los padres de aquellos estudiantes que están recibiendo el sacramento de la Confirmación y que conocemos el valor redentor de la Santa Misa, nuestra mayor oración de todas.

Seis años después de esa enorme tragedia, los compañeros de clase de Nelly recibirán los dones del Espíritu Santo. En mi mente, todavía me imagino a Nelly vestida con un hermoso vestido rojo y blanco, sus pequeñas manos dobladas con cuidado al igual que lo harían sus amigas, mirando directamente a los ojos de Dios mientras camina hacia arriba para ser ungida por el obispo Iriondo. ¡Qué glorioso día para ellos, sus padres, familias y todos nosotros! Como adultos todavía recordamos ese día de nuestra primera Comunión y Confirmación. Nos regocijaremos con ellos y, al mismo tiempo, debemos recordarnos a nosotros mismos que Cristo, que une a los vivos y a los muertos, nos une invisiblemente a nosotros y a los que han ido al reposo eterno. Sí, Nelly, su hermana, su querida mamá, su tía, su primo y sus abuelos estarán invisiblemente presentes en la presencia real del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo que se convierte en nuestro huésped divino en el Altar. Sí, el verdadero poder del Santo sacrificio de la Misa consuela a nuestras almas rotas y nuestros sufrimientos. El sufrimiento de muchos de nosotros todavía está presente, pero debido a Cristo, él da el significado a nuestras pruebas. Y es precisamente este poder real de Cristo que nos da fuerza y coraje para mirar hacia la Gloria del Señor resucitado y nunca perder la esperanza. Después de seis años, los compañeros de clase de Nelly no piensan en lo que sucedió ese domingo del 29 de abril de 2012. Pero nosotros, como adultos, lo hacemos. Tenemos el deber y la obligación de recordarnos a nosotros mismos y a ellos, recordar y orar por aquellos que han sido parte de nuestro pasado e ido al descanso Eterno. Habrá un momento de oración silenciosa pensando en Nelly y su familia durante el Santo Sacrificio de la Misa. Le suplicamos a Nuestra Santísima Madre que presente nuestras humildes oraciones e interceda por Nelly y su familia, y por quienes continúan en este valle de lágrimas. Padre Todopoderoso Descanso eterno, concédelos, oh Señor. Y que la luz perpetua brille sobre ellos. Que el alma de Nelly, las almas de su familia y todos los fieles difuntos, por la misericordia de Dios, descanse en paz. ¡Amén!
