Happy Mother's Day to all Mothers, Grandmothers & Godmothers

Happy Mother's Day to all the mothers of our parish! Though the modern celebration of Mother's Day is less than 100 years old, by a stretch of history, one could say that its origins go back to the Middle Ages. Christians at one time celebrated a feast of Mary, the Mother of Christ, on the 4th Sunday of Lent, and in England, this feast was adapted to honor all mothers and became known as "Mothering Sunday". The movement in America for a day set aside to honor mothers, however, had its roots in 1872 when, in the decade after the carnage of the Civil War, the writer Julia Ward Howe encouraged mothers to rise up against war, and suggested that they do so en masse on the 2nd Sunday in June. Anna Jarvis, an American woman inspired to honor her own mother's achievements, took the lead in encouraging Americans to honor their mother's on that 2nd Sunday of June, and she began the custom of Mother's Day Bouquets by having red carnations sent to decorate her mother's church in her honor. In 1914, President Woodrow Wilson signed a resolution stating that Mother's Day would be celebrated nationally, not on the 2nd Sunday of June, but on the 2nd Sunday of May. And so, once again we wish all mothers a Happy Mother's Day today.

Feliz Día de la Madre a todas las Madres, Abuelas y Madrinas

Feliz día de la madre a todas las madres de nuestra parroquia! Aunque la celebración moderna del día de la madre es menos de 100 años de edad, por un tramo de la historia, se podría decir que sus orígenes se remontan a la Edad media. Cristianos en un tiempo celebraron una fiesta de María, la madre de Cristo, en el cuarto domingo de Cuaresma, y en Inglaterra, esta fiesta se adaptó para honrar a todas las madres y se conocía como "Domingo de las Madres". El movimiento en Estados Unidos por un día dedicado a honrar las madres, sin embargo, tenía sus raíces en 1872 cuando, en la década después de la Guerra Civil, la escritora Julia Ward Howe alentó a las madres a levantarse contra la guerra, y sugirió que lo hacen en masa en el segundo domingo de junio. Anna Jarvis, una mujer americana inspirada en honrar los logros de su propia madre, tomó la delantera en el fomento de los estadounidenses en honor a sus madres en ese segundo domingo de junio, y comenzó la costumbre de día de la Madre por tener claveles rojos enviado para decorar la madre en su honor. En 1914, el Presidente Woodrow Wilson firmó una resolución declarando que día de las madres se celebra a nivel nacional, no en el segundo domingo de junio, pero el segundo domingo de mayo. Y así, una vez más deseamos a todas las madres hoy Día de las Madre Feliz.

A Mom's Story

A baby asked God, "They tell me you are sending me to earth tomorrow, but how am I going to live there being so small and helpless?" God said, "Your angel will be there waiting for you and will take care of you." The child further inquired, "But tell me, here in heaven I don't have to do anything but sing and smile to be happy." God said "Your angel will sing for you and will also smile for you and you will feel your angel's love and be very happy." And the child asked again, "And how am I going to understand when people talk to me if I don't know the language?" God said, "Your angel will tell you the most beautiful and sweet words you will ever hear, and with much patience and care, your angel will teach you how to speak." "And what am I going to do when I want to talk to you?" God said "Your angel will place your hands together and will teach you how to pray." "Who will protect me?" God said, "Your angel will defend you even if it means its life." "But I will always be sad because I will not see you anymore." God said, "Your angel will always talk to you about me and will teach you the way to come back to Me, even though I will always be next to you." At that moment there was much peace in heaven, but voices from Earth could be heard and the child hurriedly asked, "God, if I am to leave now, please tell me my angel's name." You will simply call her, "MOM."

Una Estoria de Una Madre

Un bebé pidió a Dios, "Dicen me envías a la tierra mañana, pero cómo voy a vivir tan pequeño e indefenso"? Dios dice, "tu Ángel estará allí esperando y se encargará de ti". Preguntó el niño más, "pero dime aquí en el cielo, que no tengo nada pero cantar y sonreír me hace feliz". Dios dijo "tu Ángel cantará para usted y también le sonríe para usted. Y usted sentir amor de su Ángel y será muy feliz. El niño le vuelve a preguntar "Y cómo me voy a entender cuando la gente habla si no sé la lengua?" Dios dijo: "tu ángel te dirá las palabras más hermosas y dulces nunca escuchadas, y con mucha paciencia y atención, tu ángel te enseñará cómo hablar". Y como voy a hacer cuando quiero hablar con usted? Dios dice "tu Ángel pondrá las manos juntas y te enseñará cómo orar". "Quien me protegerá?" Dios dice, "tu Ángel te defenderá e incluso si esto significa arriesgar su vida." "Pero siempre estaré triste porque no te veré más". Dios dijo, 'tu Ángel siempre hablarán con usted acerca de mí y le mostrará la manera de volver a mí, aunque siempre estaré a tu lado. " En ese momento hubo mucha paz en el cielo, pero se podían oír voces de la tierra y el niño apresuradamente pidió, "Dios, Dígame el nombre de mi Ángel. Simplemente llamará a ella, "Mamá".
