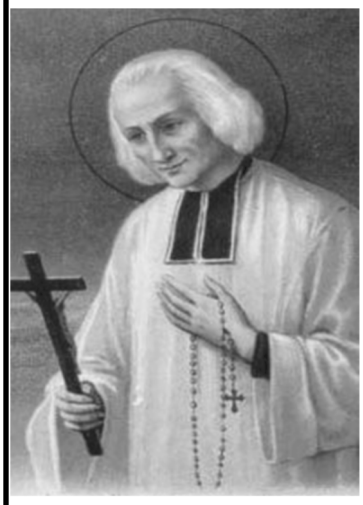
ST. JOHN VIANNEY (1786-1859)
August 4th



The feast of the Curé of Ars, model and patron of parish priests, is celebrated on the anniversary of his death. He was canonized in 1925 by Pope Pius XI, who also named him patron saint of the parochial clergy in 1929. Born near Lyons, France, in 1786, of a very devout family, John Vianney was five years old when the reign of terror in Paris was exiling or murdering the Catholic clergy and religious. He received his First Communion at a time when the troops of the French Revolution passed through the region and closed the parish church. His vocation was stimulated by contact with a holy priest and two years later he received his father's permission to study for the priesthood. He was not an outstanding student, but he was finally ordained in 1815 at the age of 29. He was assigned to the parish at Ars, some distance from Lyons, and he remained there for 42 years because the people repeatedly opposed his transfer. He himself tried several times to leave Ars in order to follow a contemplative life. He refused the appointment as a canon of the diocese and when he received the medal of the Legion of Honor in 1843, he sold it in order to give the money to the poor. He died of exhaustion at the age of 74, as he had predicted, peacefully and without fear.

Father of mercy, you made St. John Vianney outstanding in his priestly zeal and concern for your people. By his example and prayers, enable us to win our brothers and sisters to the love of Christ and come with them to eternal glory.
