Below are this week's important COVID-19 updates.

Walk-Up Vaccinations for People 50+

New Yorkers age 50 and older plus one accompanying eligible person of any age can now get vaccinated together without appointments at select vaccination sites. Proof of age and eligibility is required upon arrival at the vaccination site. A full list of vaccination sites accepting walk-up appointments can be found at on.nyc.gov/WalkUpSites

COVID-19 Care and Vaccine Access Factsheets

COVID-19 vaccines are free to anyone living in the U.S. HRSA has published two new factsheets to address concerns about barriers some immigrants face regarding documentation requests prior to receiving COVID-19 vaccination, and individuals wrongly being sent bills for COVID-19 vaccination. These factsheets are meant to assist patients (English | Spanish) and providers (English | Spanish) understand their rights and responsibilities pertaining to the COVID-19 vaccine access.

COVID-19 Vaccine Messaging for Social Media

You can now download shareable social media materials in multiple languages about the Johnson & Johnson vaccine pause in the agency's social media kit link: on.nyc.gov/covidvaxsocial

Hosting a COVID-19 Vaccination Site

This form is for New Yorkers who would like to offer a building they own or control to be considered as a vaccination site open to the public. Currently, sites that are prioritized are:

- Indoor buildings of at least 5,000 square feet
- ADA accessible
- Easily accessible by public transportation
- Available for the next 4-6 months

Provided with clinical staff approved to vaccinate

Increase Vaccination Coverage Across Racial and Ethnic Adult Populations

The CDC Foundation recently released an RFP that is focused specifically on “supporting community-based organizations to increase vaccination coverage across different racial and ethnic adult populations currently experiencing disparities”. The due date is Monday, April 26. This opportunity is for up to 100 CBOs to receive $50-100K in funding. For more information, please visit the site:
